

TO
BUYERS AND SELLERS ON THE SABBATH-DAY.

HAVE you considered, my friend, what you are now doing? that you are breaking one of God's commandments, and profaning his most holy day? Read the last chapter of Nehemiah, and see your sin exposed. How many of your fellow-creatures are every Sabbath-day borne to their grave! Perhaps before the next Sabbath your neighbors and friends may carry you there. Then it will be too late to lament your present sinful conduct. Remember what our blessed Saviour said: "What shall it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" MATT. 16 : 26.

O, could you be persuaded to leave off this ruinous custom of either buying or selling on the Sabbath-day; to attend the house of God; to read his holy word, and pray for his Holy Spirit to convince you of sin, and lead you to Jesus Christ the only Saviour of sinners, be assured you would find the benefit of it in this world and that which is to come. You would not be a loser even as to things needful for the body; for Christ has declared, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." MATT. 6 : 33.

Take the warning this little tract would give you, and flee, by faith, to the Lord Jesus Christ, as the only refuge for guilty sinners.
