Re: LLY Yakima Claims No. 160

Dear Sir:

Enclosed are typescripts from Oregon Superintendency of Indian Affairs, 1848-73, Roll 3, Microcopy 2.

General trend of hurried preparations for Treaties, rushing them through and extinguishing land title of Indians to prepare for white settlement is set up in the first several rolls of this series, together with other fragmentary bits covering:

Method of appointing chiefs

Government's policy not yet determined

Food migration habits by season

Reduction of tribes by death due to disease, not destroying clans.

Only apparently pertinent material copied. An abstract of other information generally covered in the roll included.

Sincerely
