Dear Allen:

Under separate cover I'm sending you a copy of the Yakima Treaty Centennial booklet, 64 pps., wraps, which is unique inasmuch as it was authorized and paid for (I did my work gratis) ~~for~~ by the Yakima Nation.

I turned two sections, rewriting another two several times and edited a couple of them. My only regret is that it came up rather late and I had to railroad it through in about 12 days (rather nights at home) to get to the printers in time.

I'm expecting some circulars in any day from Caxtons. They plan to come out with Drummers and Dreamers next spring, but are going to issue circulars now about any day.

I don't know if it would be ethical or not, but I know you have various real Indian fans in your following, and I wonder if you would want a small number of the circulars. The advance reaction of course would help Caxton determine the number to publish.

Perhaps too you could advise me as to some ~~xxxx~~ outlets, the kind like Broads in Yakima, that would be possibilities for one or two or maybe even three or four books. These I would write and send circulars. I plan to work the Yakima Valley, Spokane, Seattle and Portland areas rather intensely, but I could sure use some help elsewhere. Hope you have some ideas because I've got to depend upon real fans like you. Enclosed, too a clip to show how Wanapums are coming
