Celebration of a birthday anniversary in Claremont this week honored Miss Martha Wiley, born 90 years ago in Yakima.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wiley, who arrived in the Valley in 1868 from Oregon, was complimented by her neighbors in Pilgrim Place, Claremont, home for retired missionaries.

In the afternoon Miss Wiley was the honored guest at a large party given by her Chinese friends, many of them

Combining the unique privileges of college and community which Claremont offers children and grandchildren of boys and girls she befriended and taught during her long years of service in China.

The birthday cake, set and served by Miss Wiley, was baked by Mrs. Jean Boda Curtis, who grew up in Yakima.

Miss Wiley keeps her excellent health, engages in many activities, walks long distance daily. She will be ~~also~~ honored at the Phi Beta Kappa dinner this week.
