

Treaty Centennial 1855 1955 The Yakimas 64 pps, wraps, 8vo over
45 illustrations.

This publication, authorized by the Yakima Tribal Council contains nearly 30,000 words. It includes a documentary account of the events leading up to the Treaty at the Walla Walla Council in 1855, a history of the Yakima Reservation, a scholarly section on the Columbia fisheries, the text of the complete treaty with the Yakima Tribe, a brief history and evaluation of timbering on the reservation, a statement of Indian Claims and some tribal lore.

Explaining the operation of the reservation, land status, irrigation and other activities as it does, besides being good history it is virtually a handbook.

Single copies $1.00 postage paid.

Five copies or over, 40 percent discount plus postage.

Make orders payable to Yakima Tribe.

Mailing address: Yakima Indian Agency, Toppenish, Washington