Dear Mr. Relander:

Have kept your communication on my desk for some time trying to figure out how to handle it. Unfortunately this requires a great deal of research and we are simply unable to do anything about it.

Trusting we may be able to serve you in other matters.

Very sincerely yours,

SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you very much indeed for your very kind letter of September 29th. Sorry that I have not written you previously regarding the receipt of your advance circular on DRUMMERS AND DREAMERS.

We do not stock any new books and our experience has been that it does not pay to list these. Why this is so, I have not been able to ascertain but we have tried it a number of times with rather meager results.

Of the books which you so kindly list for us, we would be interested in Easton's HISTORY OF THE SAINT CROIX VALLEY. Will you kindly describe condition and let us know how much you want for the two volumes.

Very sincerely yours,
