JUSTICE DOUST ROASTS MADDOX

Councilman Miller's Busy Detective Practically Compelled to Leave City—Idiotic Officer Had Stomach Ache.

As the result of some very clever (?) detective work on the part of a young man employed by a special committee of the city council, and instructed to ensnare any or all drug dealers and saloon men who are selling illegally liquors within the city limits, "much ado about nothing" in police and justice court circles has caused more or less comment within the past week.

Maddox is the name of the young man detective. Miller is the name of the city councilman who is accused of having instructed Maddox how to proceed. Maddox has resigned his position as special city detective, and Councilman Miller, of the Fourth ward, threatens to resign from the police committee "if he fails to suit the people."

Justice of the Peace Doust has also come in for a good share of criticism, although his action in publicly condemning Maddox for the manner in which he procured evidence is generally upheld. Justice Doust also attempted to excommunicate certain members of the city council for the part they played in the detective work, but for this attempt of the justice and his language in the court room, Councilman Miller declares that he ought to be prosecuted.

How It Happened.

The story of the successful detective coup d'état of Special Officer Maddox, as near as can be ascertained occurred in the following manner:

Last Sunday night he stepped into Camp's West Side drug store and asked for some whiskey, telling the clerk that he was suffering from the stomach ache. At first he was refused, but while the clerk stood watching Maddox, the latter at once began to groan and double up as though he was in great bodily distress. The clerk did not wish to see the man suffer in this manner and immediately took compassion upon him and handed him a small bottle of whiskey. When Maddox had sipped the whiskey and paid for it, he assumed an erect position and displaying his star in the face of the clerk, and wearing a cynical smile placed the young man under arrest and bade him accompany him to the station.

The clerk was released on his own recognizance and cited to appear before Justice Doust for trial. He was fined $5. It was at the hearing of the case, however, where all the fun occurred. Here it was that Justice Doust proceeded with all his characteristic vindictiveness to roast the methods employed by the council to work up such cases against business men in the community.

But Maddox had also secured evidence against the Varian saloon, and The Cozy Corner, on a charge of selling liquor to minors. In these cases Maddox took a boy to the places and instructed them to buy beer. While the evidence against the saloon keepers appeared good, yet Justice Doust refused to identify the beer sold to the boy with the beer produced, and Prosecuting Attorney Wende dismissed the case against the Varian.

Maddox May Leave.

Considerable feeling has been worked up against Mr. Maddox, and it is understood that he will leave the city. Several drug dealers are said to have told Maddox never to put his foot inside their places of business, under penalty of being kicked out unceremoniously.

It is further intimated that even Mayor Lombard has been very much displeased with the work of the special committee of the city council with reference to this special detective work. Mr. Miller is chairman of the police committee.

THOMPSON IN CONTEMPT

Former Piano Man Said to Have Married Second Wife Too Soon.

It is alleged in an affidavit filed in the superior court this week that Howard F. Thompson, who last winter secured a divorce from his wife Belle C. Thompson, married a second time, and before the expiration of the six months period. The divorce decree stipulates that neither party to a suit for divorce shall marry within a period of six months from the signing of the decree by the judge.

It is alleged that Mr. Thompson is in contempt of court. He is said to have married Miss Pearl Crouch, a young woman of this city, who was formerly employed in the dining room of the Yakima hotel. The marriage ceremony was performed in Oregon this spring.

It is thought that Thompson will settle the difficulty out of court and it is intimated that the action has been taken to enforce terms of settlement by Thompson with his former wife in compliance with the stipulations of a joint agreement between them.

An Old Pioneer Dead.

John Wesley Burch, a resident of Oregon and Washington since the forties, died at the home of Purdy J. Flint Sunday, July 12, aged 89 years. He was born in Kentucky and removed to Walla Walla in 1846. He later lived at Oregon City, Colfax and for a time in Seattle. He engaged in the early Indian warfare against the Cayuses, Bannocks, Yakimas and other tribes. Mrs. Flint and Mrs. Clara Metcalf of this city were his daughters. The other children are Walter Burch and Mrs. H. E. Leavens, Gresham, Ore.; Benjamin Burch of Idaho; Mrs. John Grant, of Montana; Mrs. A. J. Walter, of Vancouver, Wash., and George Burch of Alaska.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET MONDAY

Hon. A. J. Splawn Will Announce His Candidacy for Governor on July 27--Splawn Club Urged to Attend Meeting.

A meeting of Yakima county democrats is called in this city in the farmers' room at the courthouse next Monday night at 8 o'clock. The Jack Splawn club is especially urged to turn out on this occasion as a number of important matters are to come up for consideration which will require the attention of the Jack Splawn boosters.

It is strictly a democratic meeting, however, and one of the most important questions to be discussed is that of sending a delegation from this county to confer with the state committee concerning the candidacy of Hon. A. J. Splawn for governor. The state committee will hold a meeting in Tacoma on July 27. At this time, it is understood, Mr. Splawn will announce himself a candidate for governor, and formally commence his campaign.

Great pressure has been brought to bear on the Yakima man within the last week or so by people from all sections of the state. He has been urged to come out flat-footed and make the race, and promises of strong support from unlooked for sources have had a tendency to convince Mr. Splawn of his mistake in the event of his not becoming an active candidate. It is believed now that he is ready to throw down the gauntlet and invite the closest scrutiny of the people as a full-fledged applicant for the highest honor in the gift of the citizenship of Washington.

The democrats of Yakima county and in fact the whole state have a most encouraging situation to deal with at the approaching election, and there is no reason why unusual interest should not be manifested at this time, and a hearty co-operation be effected looking to the interests of "Bryan and Kern" and Hon. Jack Splawn, for governor.

It is a democratic year.

NAT REISS IS COMING TO TOWN

Carnival King of the Pacific Coast Will Open Weeks Engagement Here Beginning Monday, July 20.

Nat Reiss always makes good—because he always does more than he promises. This engagement will be the third that Mr. Reiss has played here and never in the history of the carnival business has a carnival organization been known to play the same town more than once. This alone speaks well for Reiss' shows. With this company there are no followers or hangers-on. Nothing is tolerated on the ground or around the shows that would detract one iota from the high moral standard that Nat Reiss has set for his Mammoth and Colossal Aggregation.

The famous Nat Reiss shows is now the greatest ever. Among the showmen in the carnival business the name of Nat Reiss has the same sound as Barnum & Bailey in the circus business and the name Nat Reiss is a guarantee that goes far to prove merit and success. The good people of Yakima know the leadership of Mr. Reiss will be up to his high standard and a full week of pleasure and joy is in store for them during carnival time.

Among the old favorites that will appear is Lunette, the lady who defies the laws of gravity and nature and who flies and floats through the ambient air, dancing hither and thither without any visible support, wires or mechanical devices; science is dumbfounded, doctors are puzzled and the greatest master minds cannot understand it. Go and see it again, see how Lunette, hypnotized or mesmerized, is placed in a trance-like state and is then subjected to the control of the masterful mind of Prof. Fenn, obeying his slightest wish and complying with all of his wishes. It is a wonderful sight, mystifying and still a beautiful spectacle.

Who has not heard of Wallace, the man-eating lion? That ferocious Numidian lion whose lust for blood has led him to kill 10 keepers? Today Wallace is under control of Frank Hall, the celebrated English lion tamer, who enters the lion's den, and with nothing more than a little switch demonstrated his mastery. This terrible Wallace, the man-eater, is only one of the headliners in Nat Reiss' Big Trained Animal show.

M'CARTHY IN PRISON

Reaches Indiana State Penitentiary and Placed in Stripes.

William McCarthy, known as "Red the Bad," who left this city bound for the Indiana State penitentiary to serve a 14-year sentence for breaking parole, has arrived at Michigan City, and is now wearing prison stripes and serving out his sentence.

McCarthy has been in jail many times since he fled from Indiana, and after drifting around the country for several years, he finally dropped into North Yakima. He got into trouble here a number of times, but at last joined the Salvation Army, was converted, and then made known his identity.

He told the local authorities he was going back to finish a 14-year sentence in Indiana, but they did not believe him. He saved enough money to pay his railroad fare, and sure enough has gone back and been recognized as the man he claimed to be.

CATTLE AT STATE FAIR

Exhibit of Ayrshire Stock to Be Made by Redmond Breeder.

Yakima is to have at the state fair exhibit this fall an exhibit of Ayrshire cattle which will be probably the finest single display of that breed ever made in the United States. J. W. Clise, of Redmond, which is over toward Seattle, has long been building up a herd of Ayrshire stock. He has just received from Scotland a herd of 44 cows and heifers, the shipment comprising the largest single importation ever made to America. He has in all now over 150 head of this breed. He has gleaned Canada, Scotland and the United States for the best stock to be found. In addition he is developing a strain of Morgan horses, and hogs and poultry. He has announced his intention of following the North Pacific fair circuit this fall and his exhibit will be one of the strongest single displays to be made. Cattle men are to see an exceptionally fine display of stock this fall at the state fair and in some departments by long odds the best ever shown in the state.

Captain C. J. Jenkins of the Salvation Army has been invited to preach at the Congregational church on Sunday morning. Rev. H. A. Luckenbach, pastor of the church is on the Sound with his family and will return next week.

WANTED—Chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, fat calves, cattle, hogs, at the Fulton Market, corner Chestnut and First streets. Highest market prices paid.

STORMS HURT FRUIT CROP

Lightning and Rains Play Havoc in Some Sections But the Whole Yakima Valley is Greatly Benefitted.

While the rains of the last week have done much good throughout the Yakima valley, yet, in some sections much damage has been wrought. Lightning played havoc with several houses, knocked down horses and cattle, and severely injured a number of people. So far as reported up to the time of going to press no fatalities have occurred from lightning. The wind and hail also contributed its destructive share towards the damage done.

The Northern Pacific has probably been the heaviest loser as a result of the storms. Train service was delayed for more than 24 hours on account of washouts between here and Ellensburg.

Untold damage occurred in the fruit districts of Nob Hill and Fruitvale. The fierce wind and hail beat off tons of young peaches, pears and apples, and the rain, which fell in torrents, washed great gulleys through some of the finest orchards on the hill.

W. L. Wright, of Fruitvale, is a very heavy loser. He thinks as a result of the storms that his crop, which gave excellent promise, will now only produce about one third of what it undoubtedly would have brought forth. Other fruit ranches suffered heavily but not to compare with Mr. Wright's.

It seems that in his particular locality a destructive hail storm prevailed which was not felt in other localities.

Considerable damage was done to the track of the Yakima Valley Electric line, and transportation was held up for a day.

A small new house belonging to E. D. Treat, of the Selah valley, was washed from its foundations and blown in a heap to the ground.

In the Altatum valley a house belonging to the Ontario Land company was struck by lightning Tuesday night and burned to the ground.

The Sunnyside canal has sustained a heavy damage being washed out for several hundred feet in many places.

C. M. Harrington, a resident of Fairview, while eating dinner at noon Wednesday, with his wife and children was struck down by a bolt of lightning which split his house almost in twain. Mr. Harrington is partially paralyzed. Whether he will recover is a matter of conjecture.

The city of North Yakima was hardly shaken by the thunder and lightning storms. The scenic display in the heavens furnished plenty of cause for anxiety, but not the slightest damage was recorded in the city limits. The rain is generally considered a great blessing.

BONDS ARE PURCHASED.

State Buys $23,000 of Toppenish School Paper at Par.

The school directors of Toppenish Saturday sold their $23,000 worth of bonds to the state, the price being par and the interest 4½ per cent. The bonds were voted for at a recent election and the money is to be expended upon the erection of two new school buildings, to be constructed of concrete.

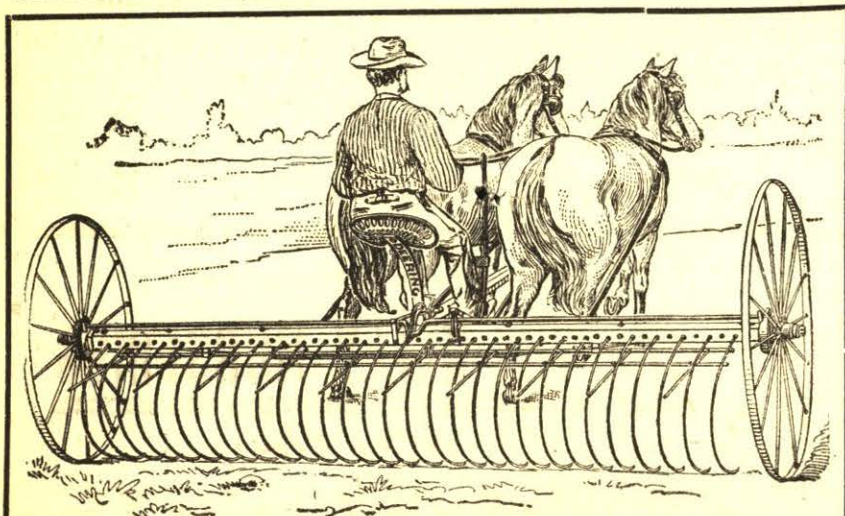

The buildings are being designed by Architect Thompson of this city. Some of the Toppenish people are inclined to the view that the buildings planned are not strong enough and are endeavoring to have changes made with a view to adding to their strength. The plans call for two-story buildings the walls of the first stories to be of concrete blocks 12 inches thick and the walls of the second stories to be 8 inches in thickness. It is claimed by those who are in favor of making the buildings stronger that the concrete walls should be not less than 16 inches thick.

WILL CALL FOR BIDS.

County Commissioners Pass Final Resolution for State Aid Roads.

The county commissioners have passed a final resolution approving the construction of the three state roads, known as the Summit View, Redman and Sunnyside roads, and the resolution has been forwarded to Olympia. The state highway commissioner has the plans and specifications drawn up and it is expected that bids will be called forthwith and the work done this summer and fall.

The portion of the road known as the Redman road to be constructed is 643 feet in length and the estimated cost is $2336.72, of which the county will pay half, $1168.36. The Summit View road is to be constructed for a fourth of a mile at an estimated cost of $2446.35 and the Sunnyside road is to be constructed for a distance of 1500 feet at an estimated cost of $2664.05, the county paying half of each of the above amounts.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW

Liberal offerings of all kinds of produce and no particular market is the North Yakima situation at present. This is with reference to the producers and the dealers. In a retail way business, as always, is good in this city. Fruits are coming stronger each day and the commission houses and the Horticultural Union are taking on increased signs of activity. There is every indication, however, that the prices of last year will not be found to prevail in any department. Some of those interested are finding it hard to realize this but such is the case and one commission man declared himself a day or two ago to the effect that North Yakima is today the best market in this part of the union, prices being better here than elsewhere.

Some Fruit Prices.

Green apples offered at the commission houses are bringing from 50 to 75 cents while peaches are selling at from 40 to 50 cents. For early pears the offering is from 1 cent to 1½ cents per pound. Cherries are about at an end, though some growers are daily bringing in the late ones from their trees. Cherries have now arrived at the stage where other fruits are crowding them out.

The hay market is a puzzling one for the grower and buyer. The Sound situation governs here and that market has not become fixed. Fresh Puget Sound hay will be on the market in the next week or 10 days and according to J. E. Galbraith, of Seattle, will be near to the average both in quantity and quality.

About An Average Crop.

Mr. Galbraith further says: "Our reports indicate that the crop will be not quite as heavy across the mountains as usual. In some districts the crop will be heavier than usual, while in others it will come somewhat short. Altogether, however, I think the crop will not be far below the average in amount. Any shortage there might otherwise be, however, will no doubt be fully met by the large amount of hay which has been carried over from last year's crop. The prices this year are undoubtedly going to be from $2 to $3 lower per ton, in my opinion, than last year."

A Word About Potatoes.

So far as potatoes are concerned California has been supplying the Sound and the situation with regard to heat and rain here has been such that no effort has been made to do anything from this end. At a cent and a quarter per pound here the local dealer could not compete on any sort of basis with the California trade and has remained out. From 1 cent to 1½ cents is offered, wholesale buying, here. The retail price is 3 cents a pound. While there is a very large local acreage in potatoes this year it is difficult to define the situation. The bearing acreage is far less than that seeded and while some fields appear beautiful others seem to be barren. Later developments may show more than an average condition.

Eggs Growing Stronger.

Eggs are going upward. Grocery quotations today to the retailer are 30 cents per dozen, which is in conformity with the developments on the Sound. The local output is steadily decreasing but eastern eggs are in heavy supply and are expected to prevent a much greater advance.

An advance is quoted today in sacked and skinned ham of 2 cents a pound, but breakfast bacon remains unchanged. The general meat market for fresh meats shows nothing doing.

With regard to butter the American Creamery says:

"Never before have the large markets attempted to take care of anything like the quantity of butter on such a high level of values. Just now stock is piling up in the storage centers at a tremendous rate, and there is increasing anxiety as to the soundness of the position. New York's receipts for the month of June have run up to 317,754 packages, against 246,334 packages for the same month last year, an increase of 71,420 packages. For June, 1906, the receipts were 291,900 packages, so that we are ahead this year 25,764 packages."

Average Butter Prices.

"Most remarkable prices were maintained in view of the unprecedented supplies that were poured into the markets. At New York the average for creamery specials was 23.81 cents and for extras 23.29 cents. The average price for June, 1907, was 23.60 cents for extras and the year before it was 20.23 cents. During the period from 1906 back to 1898 the average price was 18.58 cents."

FRUIT MEN NEED NOT FEAR OVERPRODUCTION

"You people have a wonderful country here," said W. F. Heikes, of Huntsville, Ala., who has been a guest at the Hotel Yakima. "Of course I have known of it for years but this is my first visit here. I passed through here 15 years ago but you were not then any such country as you are now." Mr. Heikes is president of the Alabama Horticultural Union and is the president of one of the largest nursery companies in that state and the secretary of a still larger one. He has been selling trees for years to nurserymen in this part of the country and while he is new to North Yakima he has been represented here by his trees for years. Mr. Heikes has been attending the session here of the nurserymen of the Pacific coast and he proposes to visit the coast cities before his return to the east.

No Fear of Over-Production.

"One thing I find here," said Mr. Heikes, "is a more or less wholesale fear of over-production. I don't see any reason for it. The fact is that your valleys are too small. You cannot over-produce. This country is growing rapidly, there is annually an enormous increase in population. As that increase manifests itself in the east the country at large will more and more turn to this great northwest for its fruit and rely upon you for it. From my experience as a nurseryman, and I am now an old man, I would say that so long as you produce fruit of the proper quality you will have no reason to fear over-production. The total of your fruit is not much more than a drop in the bucket. Georgia this year will market nearly 6000 carloads of peaches. This whole state will not have 500. What you have got in all fruits will be but the supply for a few days for the big markets. I do not think you have any need to worry about over-production.

Consumer Doesn't Know Yakima.

"Your literature that has been sent out is of course beginning to have some effect but so far as the advertising from the fruit is concerned it reaches but a limited circle. The consumer does not distinguish between Wenatchee, Yakima and Hood River. In a general way the consumer may know something about Washington fruit, or Oregon fruit but so long as he gets the quality it is a matter of indifference with him where the apple or pear is grown. I presume it is the same way with you people here about your onions. Nursery Stock Excellent.

"One other thing I would say. I have met with your nurserymen. I think them an alert, progressive lot of men. I have visited several nurseries. I went through the nursery of Mr. Ingalls in this city and I inspected the Washington Nursery company's stock at Toppenish and have looked at other nursery stock. As an old nurseryman I am prepared to say that if there is better stock anywhere right at this time I do not know where it is to be found. Your nurserymen are producing the best and your orchardists are peculiarly favored in being able to procure it right here at home."

KEEP "YAKIMA" WHERE CONSUMERS SEE IT

W. P. Sawyer Says Future of Fruit Industry Depends on Publicity.

"Advertising pays." This is the opinion of W. P. Sawyer, the well known fruit grower of Parker. Mr. Parker believes that while the Yakima valley is comparatively well known, the future of the fruit industry in this valley depends on the manner in which the name "Yakima" is kept before the markets of the world.

Mr. Sawyer said:

"Any man with common sense and ability to reason for himself, knows that the prices that will be obtained for Yakima valley fruit this year, will by no means be as large as those of last year. In the first place, the production of the middle west and east is about double that of last year. Then again there is not the demand this season that was so noticeable last season.

People who were consumers of fruit have not the money to spend for the luxury this season. While times are not hard, they are nevertheless somewhat depressed. And this is also presidential campaign year. We will, notwithstanding these hindrances, receive good remunerative prices for our products this year, I believe.

"But what I was going to say was this. We will have other times like this year. There will be times when the fruit production of the east and middle west will be much larger than it is this year. Yakima's crops will be larger other years than they are this year. In order to make a demand for Yakima fruit, we must make the whole world know what we know, and that is that the Yakima valley is the greatest fruit producing section in the world.

"When the eyes of consumers look to the Yakima valley and the consumers themselves say 'We must have only Yakima fruit', then the fruit growers of this valley need have no fear as to the prices to be received for their commodities or any fear of over-production. The fruit consumption will never lessen. It will continue to increase. But local growers must realize the importance of advertising if they expect to receive top notch prices."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. THE FINANCIAL PLANK.

The financial plank of the democratic national platform, adopted at Denver, is a good one and reads as follows:

"The panic of 1907 coming without any legitimate excuse when the republican party had for a decade been in complete control of the federal government furnishes additional proof that it is either unwilling or incompetent to protect the interests of the general public.
It has so allied the country to Wall street that the sins of the speculators are visited upon the whole people. While refusing to rescue the wealth producers from spoliation at the hands of the stock gamblers and speculators in farm products, it has deposited treasury funds without interest and without competition in favorite banks. It has used an emergency for which it is largely responsible to force through congress a bill changing the basis of the bank currency and inviting market manipulation, and has failed to give to the 15,000,000 depositors of the country protection in their savings.

"We believe that insofar as the needs of commerce require an emergency currency such currency should be issued, controlled by the federal government and loaned on adequate security to national and state banks. We pledge ourselves to legislation under which national banks shall be required to establish a guarantee fund for the prompt payment of the depositors of any insolvent national bank under an equitable system which shall be available to all banking institutions wishing to use it.

"We favor a postal savings bank if the guaranteed bank cannot be secured and that it be constituted so as to keep the deposited money in the communities where it is established. But we condemn the policy of the republican party in providing postal savings banks under a plan of conduct by which they will aggregate the deposits of rural communities and re-deposit the same while under government charge in the banks of Wall street, thus depleting the circulating medium of the producing regions and unjustly favoring the speculative markets."

ANENT COUNTY DIVISION

The Toppens Review, which is leading the agitation for county division, and is feeling rather "sore" at the Sunnyside contingent for not falling in with the scheme, delivers itself of the following:

"Don't labor under the delusion that the Review has given up the fight for county division—no more than it has its intentions of seeing Toppensish a city of 5,000 within three years from this date. Anti-division candidates who are now basking the knee like fawning sycophants to the courthouse—U. S. land office—federal patronage ring, fair warning! Feather your nests while you can. There's a day of judgment coming!
There will be the biggest surprise for some of this pap-sucking bunch that ever happened before the eyes of November roll 'round again. Mark the prediction! The editor of this paper holds a record as a true blue, Republican for 49 years, but has, and always will balk, when it comes to supporting an amber tinted canine. The Review is not a political organ for any clique, clan or cabal, and proposes to separate the sheep from the wolves, during the ensuing political campaign, regardless of political affiliations. If this be treason, let 'er go as she looks."

IT WAS A GREAT CONVENTION

The Denver convention has proved to be the most harmonious national council of the democratic party that has assembled during a period covering the past 20 years. No matter what its partisan critics may say it was a great gathering that showed itself to be thoroughly representative of the modern democratic party. It came fresh from the people, from the rank and file, and it carried out its instructions from the people to the very letter.

It was a most enthusiastic convention. It was not only animated with a purpose but a determination to win in the present campaign. It was enthusiastic and demonstrative. It did not go about its business in the dogged and sullen way that the Convention did, unwillingly carrying out the orders of the big boss with his big stick.

The convention has given to the party a pair of candidates and a platform that it is justly proud of, and which the party feels that it can win with. Nine-tenths of the party wanted Mr. Bryan for the nominee and so instructed the delegates, and they have got their choice. They insisted upon a platform that the nominee would endorse. They have been given that. The selection of a nominee for vice president was left to the discretion of the convention. In the selection of John W. Kern of Indiana as the most available man for that honor the convention acted most wisely, for Mr. Kern is in all respects a worthy running mate for Mr. Bryan.

From first to last the convention acted wisely and in the best interests of the party. It deserves the thanks of every loyal democrat in the country. It will live in history as one of the greatest democratic conventions that ever assembled.

This is a democratic year.

THE DOWNFALL OF GUFFEY

Colonel Guffey and his band of political pirates, who were thrown out of the Denver convention, are entitled to no sympathy from honest men of any party.

According to the evidence laid before the committee on credentials and not denied by the Guffeyites, Col. Guffey solicited and secured the aid of the rotten republican political machine of Philadelphia to aid him in controlling the democratic primaries for the selection of delegates to Denver. Thus a small army of plug uglies took possession of the primaries in certain districts and not only voted illegally, but prevented protesting democrats from voting. It was a shameful spectacle and was brought about by Guffey in order that he might maintain his position as the democratic boss of Pennsylvania and continue to oppose the nomination and election of Mr. Bryan. Col. Guffey is a millionaire and a representative of the Standard oil interests. That he is a democrat only for the purpose of destruction, is self-evident. That he deserved to be kicked out of a democratic convention was plainly shown by the facts.

Republican newspapers have expressed a good deal of maudlin sympathy for Guffey and have exploited to the utmost his bitter and sensational attack upon Mr. Bryan. They seem to think that that is good politics. But in this they are mistaken. Under their spectacular headlines they were compelled to print the facts in the case, and no fair-minded reader after learning the merits of the case against Col. Guffey could come to any other conclusion than that he was grossly in the wrong and that he had deliberately sought to debauch the Philadelphia primaries by methods that no honest man would tolerate.

The republican editors must be pretty hard up for political capital when they seize the Guffey episode for what they want.

AGAINST ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION

The plank in the democratic platform relating to Asiatic immigration is terse and to the point. It reads as follows:

"We favor full protection by both national and state governments within their respective spheres of all foreigners residing within the United States under treaty, but we are opposed to the admission of Asiatic immigrants who cannot be amalgamated with our population, or whose presence among us would raise a race issue and involve us in diplomatic controversies with Oriental powers."

The above language is clear and specific enough for any one to understand.
It means that the democratic party stands up squarely against the policy of throwing the bars down to admit countless hordes of Chinese, Japanese and Hindus to our shores. This declaration on an issue of such tremendous importance to the people of the Pacific coast is in strong contrast to the cowardly policy of silence that the republican party has assumed on the question.
The republican platform utters not one word on this vital issue. Therefore it is only fair to assume that Mr. Taft and the republican leaders are not opposed to Japanese immigration.

This question will be a burning issue on the Pacific slope this year and the democrats of this section of the country may congratulate themselves that their party has taken a definite and proper stand on the question.

It is a righteous stand and will help the party immeasurably in the coast states.

OFFENSIVE PARTISANSHIP.

The veteran editor of the Post-Intelligencer, we fear, is rapidly degenerating into a common scold. He seems to have reached that point where he can see absolutely nothing good in a political enemy. Normally an able and entertaining writer in the discussion of most subjects it seems unaccountable that he should inject so much venomous spleen in his editorial work that has to do with the democratic party and its national leaders. He refuses to be satisfied no matter whether the record made be good or bad, for he insists that it shall be bad anyway.

An unsophisticated reader might think from the tone of Col. Brainerd's editorials that the Denver convention was attempting to wilfully murder the reputation of the late President Cleveland and he refused to be comforted by the resolutions of respect passed by that body. Since when has the Post-Intelligencer become the custodian of the honor and fair name of Grover Cleveland?

If Editor Brainerd will carefully go over the old files of that great metropolitan journal he would doubtless find that it had printed more mean things regarding the now dead statesman during the past twenty-four years than most any great newspaper in the country, unless it be the vitriolic New York Sun.

Very likely, too, when Mr. Bryan shall have passed from earth the ever virtuous P.-I. will have ceased abusing the great Nebraskan and will insist upon regarding him as one of the Lord's anointed and in giving him a most respectable place in history. He will then be, as seen through the peculiar lens of the Brainerd spectacles, a great patriot and statesman, instead of what he now is—a cheap and low-down political boss who is forcing a great party to honor him against its will.

We would respectfully advise the eminent Col. Brainerd to take something for his liver. It is a well known fact that a derangement of that organ is often responsible for a lack of clear vision.

JOHN W. KERN.

Mr. Bryan, while he exerted no pressure in behalf of any candidate for the vice presidency, expresses himself as well pleased with the selection of John W. Kern for that honor. "For years," says Mr. Bryan, "John W. Kern has been my personal as well as political friend and I regard him as in every way eligible and am pleased to have him for my running mate." On his return home from Denver Mr. Kern complied with the invitation to stop off at Lincoln for a conference with the presidential nominee. The conference, which included the plan of campaign, is reported to have resulted to the mutual satisfaction of the two nominees.

Mr. Kern, while perhaps not previously a man of national reputation, stands high in his native state of Indiana, and his friends are confident that his influence taken with that of Mr.
Bryan, will result in lining up Indiana this year in the democratic column.

Mr. Kern is by profession a lawyer of high standing at the bar of Indianapolis. In politics he has always been a straight out democrat, and as a young man was a political disciple of that great "Hoosier" statesman, Thomas A.
Hendricks, who died while holding the office of vice president in 1885.

It is fitting that John W. Kern should succeed to that high office, and he will.

DEBATABLE STATES.

The central west apparently will be the chief battle ground in the presidential campaign this year. The fight will wage fiercely in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas and the two Dakotas. Western states that the Bryan leaders are said to feel confident of carrying this year are Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado, Montana and Nevada, which aggregate 27 electoral votes. They also apparently believe a good fighting chance exists in California, Oregon and Washington, and will contest this count. While the main fight will be waged in the west, it is to be observed that Mr. Bryan will not concede New York. It is evidently his purpose to put up a stiff fight in New York, even though "the interests" that center there are uncompromisingly opposed to him. However, his election this year, considering the public temper, is easily possible without New York.

He will win. This is a democratic year!

IN A DIFFERENT WAY.

Now they say Taft intends to enforce the Roosevelt policies but in a different manner. That is, he will use smokeless powder and the new style of noiseless gun. This involves confession, of course, that all the panic and business depression was caused by the explosive methods of the owner of the republican party.
But then what policies are to be enforced by Taft, should he win? Such laws as democrats demanded from 1896 down and helped republicans enact, which constitute the only tangible policies, must be enforced by Taft because his oath of office would require it, though a man of his adjusting disposition might try to suspend some statutes unduly oppressing contributors. He can not enforce those marvelous Roosevelt policies which congress would not permit to be enacted into law. The more you study the subject the less you find in the Roosevelt policy chatter.— Pittsburg Post.

THE NATIONAL PLATFORM

The democratic platform, adopted at Denver, is an able if somewhat conservative statement of the party's position on national policies and issues of the day. It is not as sweeping and as radical a statement of party principles as were the platforms adopted for Mr.
Bryan's previous campaigns, but it nevertheless speaks plainly and in concise language of the issues of today and it takes a broadly democratic position upon all of them. The platform was prepared by a set of men well qualified for such work and they evidently aimed to keep it in line with the early traditions of democracy, but to keep it in touch with the views enunciated by the party's great standard bearer, William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Bryan cordially approves the platform throughout.

It is the duty not only of every democrat, but of every citizen, to read it carefully.

With the plutocratic press lining itself up solidly for him, Mr. Taft will have hard work convincing plain people that he is their candidate. It used to be in this country that no party could hope to succeed without the support of the plutocratic press, especially that of New York. But times have changed.
In this campaign it is most likely that the whole-souled support of the different newspapers and magazines owned by J. Pierp. Morgan, the Standard Oil crowd and others will prove the biggest handicap that Taft will have to labor under.

The public is not very well pleased with Mr. Sam Nichols, secretary of state and aspirant for re-election. The intense selfishness and rank favoritism displayed by Nichols in the matter of candidates filing their declarations in his office on opening day, July 10, would indicate that Sam must be of near kin to that famous American animal that walks on four feet and usually likes to get them all in the trough. If the republican party of this state has left any sense of the fitness of things it will eliminate Mr. Sam Nichols at the primaries.

The unseemly scramble among the office seeking element to file their declarations July 10, and thus get their names first on the primary ticket, was not a very edifying one. Some people seem to be in constant fear that they might starve if denied the right to hold office. Everything else being equal, voters should make it a point to support candidates who are so extremely anxious to get a hold on the public test.
It is a pretty reasonable guess that such men would make more acceptable officeholders.

Returning delegates from Denver seem to be almost unitedly of the opinion that the big Rocky Mountain town is an ideal convention city. Denver not only provided well for the convention and gave the delegates and visitors reasonable rates but she gave them a royal welcome and provided plenty of entertainment. They were so well treated that delegates will be glad to go back there again. For herself Denver not only got her money back but she got the full worth of it besides in advertising.

Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, declares himself well satisfied with the anti-injunction plank in the democratic platform and says most emphatically that he will support the ticket named at Denver. This decision on the part of Gompers really means that a great many thousands of union labor votes that went for Mr.
Roosevelt in the last campaign will go to Mr. Bryan in this one.

The spectacle of an alleged candidate for the office of governor going about and trying to dissuade other possible aspirants from entering the lists against him is rather a new innovation in politics and calculated to excite mirth as well as ridicule. The ambitious candidate should set at the feet of his distinguished fellow townsman, "Bill" Goodyear, and learn the ways of wisdom.

It is evident from the tone of Hearst papers, especially from the ridiculous and lying reports sent out from Denver, that "Weary Willie" has no disposition to support the ticket. Well, it really don't matter much what the yellow magnate says or does. The American people have now got Hearst's measure and they consider him pretty small potatoes.
Merely an ass masquerading in a lion's skin.

A large delegation of colored men, claiming to represent an organization that controlled 600,000 votes, waited upon W. J. Bryan at Lincoln the other day and insured him of their intention to support him in the ensuing campaign. They declared that they could not and would not support Mr. Taft.
The negro voters openly opposing the
g. o. p.! Now wouldn't that rasp you?

Altan B. Parker, who was a member of the resolutions committee, said before leaving Denver: "I confess I am not feeling enthusiastic over a portion of the platform, that portion favoring an extension of the powers of the federal government. However, I mean to loyally support the ticket, Bryan and Kern, and will do everything in my power to aid in its election."

After all the touting and boastful claims of his managers Gov. Johnson received but 46 votes to 892 for Bryan.
Gov. Johnson merely received the vote of his own state, Minnesota, and 22 from Georgia, which by the way, was the only southern state which refused to support Bryan. As a result the Georgia statesmen cut but a poor figure in the convention.

The Jones organs appear to be shocked because that "Link" Davis, professional flim-flammer and handy man for Senator Ank, kindly consented to file Rev. Lee Johnson's declaration of candidacy for congress over at Olympia. But really that is nothing, for politics, you know, makes strange bedfellows.

Mr. Taft is too much of an aristocrat to suit the plain everyday American people. He may represent the very best type of Americanism, as his managers say, but the fact remains that his ways are not the ways of the plain people.

"Let the people rule." This is the democratic slogan and a better one could not have been suggested.

Dear friend:

I like racky crackers very much. The trouble with many crackers is they wont crack. You can get nice crisp crackers in this town if you know where to go. Then your mama can buy lots of things for the table and save herself the trouble of baking. My mama does. Isn't it cheaper to buy these things than to bake
them?

Your friend,
JACOB.

MANY CANDIDATES FILE DECLARATIONS

Revenues of County Swelled by New Primary System Which Compels Candidates to Put up Bonus When Filing Application.

Close to thirty applicants for nomination to the various offices in the county have been filed with the county auditor since the morning of July 10.

As a result of the primary system the revenues of the treasurer's office have increased almost $500. Not many democrats have as yet filed their applications, but it is understood that most of the offices will be contested by democrats.

Order of Candidates.

Following are the candidates for the various offices in the order in which they filed:

E. E. Cleaver, county clerk.
Harcourt M. Taylor, prosecuting attorney.

Philip Frank, Coroner.
W. F. Meloy, commissioner First district.

Joseph H. Lancaster, sheriff.
Wm. Le May, county commissioner Third district.

J. M. Brown, county clerk.
M. G. Duncan, representative.
William Stahlhut, county commissioner, Third district.

James Seeley, school superintendent.
A. W. Curtis, school superintendent.
W. H. Cline, representative.

Frank Bond, treasurer.
L. E. Mahaffy, school superintendent.
John W. Sindall, assessor.

W. J. McIntyre, county engineer.
David Rosser, coroner.
Wilbur Crocker, auditor.

O. J. Steward, county clerk.
S. A. Dickey, school superintendent.
S. S. Busch, school superintendent.

Heman D. Hunt, justice of the peace.
John M. Edwards, sheriff.
Pat Jordan, constable.

B. D. Thompson, county commissioner,
third district.
J. Lenox Ward, prosecuting attorney.

A. W. Barr, county clerk.
Two new offices are created by the raising of the county from the eleventh to the seventh class, that of justice of the peace, as a salaried officer, the salary being $1200 per annum, and that of constable, with a salary of $720 per annum. The present justice of the peace, H. B. Doust, is expected to be in the field again. The office of justice in the past has been remunerative only through the fee system. Hereafter the fees will be turned over to the county and the justice will be paid a salary.

Fees and Salaries.

The candidates for school superintendent had to pay the highest fee, the amount being $20. The salary of the superintendent next year will be at the rate of $2000 per annum, and this will be the highest salary paid to any county officer except superior judge. The county commissioners next year will receive $800 per annum salary in the place of per diem fees and mileage. The auditor, treasurer and prosecuting attorney and engineer will receive $1900 per annum, and the candidates for these places had to put up a fee of $19 for filing their declarations. The county clerk's office under the new schedule is worth $1800 a year, the assessor will get $1500 and the coroner will be paid a salary of $800 in the place of fees.

MOXEE.

The Fourth of July celebration at the Catholic church netted $172—a snug little sum, which was much needed by the congregation.

E. Charron will resume work on his residence at once, and rush the work to a finish.

Miss Marie Luckinger of Seattle is visiting with her many Moxee friends.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Regembal left last week for a visit to relatives in Michigan and Minnesota.

Quite a number of our young people went to Yakima Saturday evening to take part in a surprise party on Mrs.

Durham, spending a very pleasant evening in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivesness of North Yakima visited in Moxee Sunday.

The hay balers are ready to start the summer and fall run. They will begin on wheat hay and by the time they get done alfalfa will be ready to bale.

As Charlie and George Labree, aged 13 and 11 years, were going down the valley Monday they came upon a coyote and with the aid of a dog succeeded in getting him in a water ditch, where Charlie got courage enough to tackle him, and after a skirmish succeeded in landing his game after making a rope of hop string. They led Mr. Coyote home for a pet, feeding him everything they can think of. They feel that they are great heroes.

Father Garren will leave Monday for the Sound on a few days vacation.

Paul Brunell was given the management of the Catholic choir with Joe Gendron assistant.

A number of our ranchers have gone to the mountains for an outing. The warm weather of last week made many more look toward the mountains with a longing eye.

FULTON MARKET BUSY

Right Out in the Street After Business These Days.

Just because a fine new stone and brick block is under construction on the site where The Fulton Market has been doing business, is no reason to suppose that The Fulton Market has temporarily closed its doors to the public.

As a matter of fact Ed Weining, the proprietor, has just simply moved his old shop out into the middle of the street, and is ready and willing to accord all customers every courtesy, as in the past.

When the new building is completed Ed will have one of the neatest and most modern meat shops in central Washington.

LOWER NACHES

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Brief Record of Local Happenings for the Week in North Yakima and Vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bull are spending their vacation at Ocean Park.

Pat Mullins, wife and son George, have gone to Lake Kachess Lodge for a summer outing.

W. F. Boyer, special land agent for this district, was here the first of the week from Spokane.

Miss Hazel Coleman, who has been the guest of Mrs. D. W. Gould, of South Fourth street, for some time, has returned to her home in Walla Walla.

Miss Avera Flint returned Thursday from a two weeks' vacation at the Log Cabin Inn on Lake Kachess. She is much improved in health.

Tuesday was motion day in the superior court. At the conclusion of the day's session Judge Preble adjourned court until the first Monday in September.

H. H. Wende is preparing to take his wife for a trip to Buffalo, N. Y., her home town, which she has not seen for two years. They probably will start at the end of the month and return in September.

Rev. F. O. Lamoreux, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, spent the week in this city on business. He is now in charge of the First Church of Ballard.

Mrs. Ruth Clark, mother of Mrs. Glenn Winslow, left today for Ritzville, Wash., where she will visit for a time, after which she will go to North Yakima.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Harry McSpadden returned this week from a pleasant outing at Lake Kachess Lodge. He says there is a jolly crowd of pleasure seekers now stopping at Captain Gale's Log Cabin Inn.

Mrs. C. H. Barnes returned Wednesday from Lake Kachess where she has been camping with Mrs. E. B. Moore. She is wearing a healthy tan color now, and will return in a short time to join the campers.

Game Warden Mullen received this week 17,000 trout fry which he distributed in the various streams of the valley. He also expects to receive another consignment of trout fry from the federal hatcheries for distribution.

The old Moran & Seigel meat market and the Columbia have consolidated. The Columbia market has moved its shop to the market room of the former and the business of both shops will be done by the one in the future.

John R. Lincks returned this week from a trip to Kentucky. While away on his trip the death of his wife occurred in Kentucky on the 13th of June. Mr. Lincks expects to spend the summer on the Sound.

Sumach park opened last Sunday under very favorable auspices. More than a thousand visitors availed themselves of the opportunity to seek the cooling shade to be found at the park, which is open to all respectable persons free of charge.

Henry H. Schott is the recipient of a visit from his cousin, Martin Schott, of Breckenridge, Minn., who arrived the first of the week to look over this valley. Mr. Schott is greatly impressed with the evidences of prosperity apparent here.

David Guillard, a former well known Yakima boy, now city engineer of Lewiston, Idaho, was in the city this week to inspect the paving work in progress here. Lewiston is about to begin a paving campaign and naturally wishes to profit by the experience of other cities.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. McNutt, cousins of Rev. F. C. Whitney, of the First Baptist church, have returned to their home in Minneapolis after having spent some time visiting at the Whitney home in North Yakima. Mr. McNutt is secretary and treasurer of Ford Bros., glass manufacturers, of Minneapolis. His visit to the west has been partly of a business nature. He will in all probability supply the new Baptist church with its windows.

S. J. Harrison, one of the candidates for senator for Yakima and Benton counties, failed to file the pledge binding him to vote for the choice of the party for United States senator, when he filed his declaration at Olympia. On his way home while glancing over a copy of the direct primary law, he noted the oversight and immediately on his arrival at North Yakima mailed his pledge to the secretary of state. Mr. Harrison wishes it understood that he believes in the direct primary law and that he will, if elected, vote on the senatorial question as the people direct.
