

SUPPLEMENT TO JOURNALISM AWARDS DIRECTORY

ADDRESS: P.O. BOX 434 RYE, NEW YORK

FARM AND GARDEN

STATUETTES
$150

ASTA AWARD

Any farm or garden writer on newspapers and magazines may be considered for the "Asta" award—a statuette and, $150 honorarium—in recognition of work that contributes most to raising the standards of technical writing in this field.

Anyone may nominate a writer for consideration. Samples of work may be one article or more, submitted before Jan. 15 to:

ASTA Award,
American Seed Trade Association,
30 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago 2, Illinois.

TUBERCULOSIS REPORTING

$250

HIGBY AWARD

As a memorial to public health workers—Ford and Valerie Higby—a cash prize of $250 is given annually, in March, for the best manuscript published during the previous calendar year on the subject of tuberculosis control and education.

The donor is:

California Tuberculosis and Health Association,
Los Angeles, Calif.

AGRICULTURE

$500

SOIL FERTILITY AND PLANT NUTRITION

A total of $500 in cash prizes is offered to Missouri newspapers for the best reporting of soil fertility improvement practices in the period from May 15 to April 15. There are daily and weekly newspaper categories with $125 first, $75 second and $50 third prizes in each. The Soil Fertility and Plant Nutrition Council of Missouri co-sponsors the contest with Missouri Press Association. Entries must be submitted by April 20.

For information write to:

Dick Balser,
500 Dwight Building, Kansas City 5, Missouri.

JUSTICE

$500

CALIFORNIA PRESS-BAR AWARD

A $500 prize is offered for the best news story, feature, editorial of series treating with the administration of justice in California. It is open to all California newspapers.

Contact:

Richard H. Miller,
California Newspaper Publishers Association,
Los Angeles, Calif.

SCHOLARSHIPS

$2,500

INTER AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP FUND

High school graduates or those from the United States or Canada who have equivalent educational training in the field of Journalism are eligible for grants up to $2,500 a year for study in a Latin American university. The same program offers similar opportunity for residents of Latin America to study in the U.S. or Canada. They must undertake a program which will enable them to return to their own countries to carry forward the work of creating better understanding, through newspapers and magazines.

Address applications to:

Scholarship Committee,
Inter American Press Association,
22 East 60th Street, New York 22, N. Y.

SPORTS WRITING

$10,000

GRANTLAND RICE SCHOLARSHIP

Sports writers around the country help to select the person who receives an annual stipend for four years while taking a Liberal Arts Course at Vanderbilt University and $500 for summer employment in some phase of thoroughbred horse racing. The basic requirements are that the nominee must be a high school graduate of top scholastic rating and intends to make sports writing a career. Candidates may be presently employed in newspaper or broadcast journalism. The total value of the scholarship given by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations of the U.S., Inc. is about $10,000.

Applications should be made to:

Department of Admissions,
Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

WRITING-PHOTOGRAPHY

$500

COLLEGE BASEBALL COMPETITION

A contest for $500 in cash prizes for the best feature and news stories and pictures relating to college baseball is open to daily newspapers. The prize is $100 in each of five divisions. For information:

American Association of College Baseball Coaches,
c/o J. Kyle Anderson, University of Chicago, Chicago 37, Ill.

FELLOWSHIP

$1,500

JAMES THOMAS CHIRURG ADVERTISING FELLOWSHIP

A stipend of $1,500 is available annually for a student at the Harvard Graduate School of Business. The donor is the Thomas Chirurg Advertising agency (122 East 42nd Street, New York). The student is selected by Harvard in cooperation with:

The Poor Richard Club,
Philadelphia, Pa.

JUSTICE

$200

TENNESSEE BAR AWARD

An award is made annually to the Tennessee newspaper and $200 is given to the newsman for the best job of reporting about the administration of justice.

Tennessee Bar Association
Third National Bank Building, Nashville, Tenn.

RADIO AND TV

GOLD MEDALS

TOP SHOW AWARDS

Radio and television stations in California are invited to submit typewritten copy and/or story boards on their "best shows" of the year to compete for three specially designed gold medals. The awards are for the best program, single or series, entertainment or public service. There are three categories: radio stations, metropolitan (100,000 or more population range) and non-metropolitan; and TV stations. Submit entries by July 15 to:

Press-Radio-TV Awards,
California State Fair & Exposition,
P. O. Box 2036, Sacramento, California.

FELLOWSHIP

$2,500

PAUL W. KESTEN MEMORIAL

An annual fellowship—$2,500 stipend—has been established at Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration in memory of Paul W. Kesten, former Columbia Broadcasting System executive. It is for a student who is preparing for a career in the fields of advertising or marketing. The fellowship is given in the first year of the two-year program leading to the degree of Master of Business Administration.

For details, write to:

CBS Foundation, Inc.
485 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N. Y.

TRAVEL STORIES

$750

CRADLE OF AMERICA TOUR AWARD

To encourage more Americans to visit their nation's capital and adjacent historic areas, the Hot Shoppes chain of restaurants is sponsoring prizes ($500 first, $250 second and other substantial awards) annually for travel editors and writers for daily newspapers and magazines of general circulation. This is a national contest and is open also to free lance writers whose entries are in published form.

Entry blanks (deadline for submission of material is January 20) may be obtained from:

J. W. Marriott Award Committee,
1917 Eye Street, NW, Washington, D. C.

PHOTOGRAPHY

$300

CANADIAN PRESS PICTURE-OF-THE-MONTH

Photographs taken for Canadian newspapers that are members of The Canadian Press may be submitted in competition for the $25 monthly prize for spot news or feature value. The cash award goes to the photographer.

The Canadian Press,
55 University Avenue, Toronto, Canada

EDITORIAL

CITATION

LINCOLN MEMORIAL

The most timely editorial on Abraham Lincoln appearing in American newspapers for February 12 is singled out for recognition and republication in Lincoln Lore, an insurance magazine published by United States Review Publishing Co.

For information write to:

Sally Schug,
Lincoln National Life Foundation,
Fort Wayne, Ind.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

A new prize of $500 has been added to the annual awards of the Overseas Press Club of America. It is the President's Award and is given to a foreign newspaperman working abroad for an American or foreign news media for "excellence in reporting involving personal, political or economic harassment."

Overseas Press Club of America,
35 East 39th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

MAGAZINE WRITING
PUBLIC SERVICE

GOLD MEDAL
$4,000

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN MAGAZINE AWARDS

Eight categories of competition for distinguished writing, editing and public service during the calendar year are open to magazines of general circulation and magazine writers, as follows:

Public Service—a gold medal and scroll to the editor.

Original reporting in which serious obstacles had to be overcome—$1,000 and a scroll to the writer.

Article or series depicting life, culture or institutions in the United States—$500 and a scroll.

Interpretation of the foreign scene or of our foreign relations—$500 and a scroll.

Article depicting a person, living or dead—$500 and a scroll.

Article on science or health—$500 and a scroll.

Short story—$500 and a scroll.

Outstanding presentation in any category not specifically covered—$500 and a scroll.

University of Illinois,
Urbana-Champaign, Illinois.

PHOTOGRAPHY

$2,500

HEIRLOOM 'BEST PHOTO'

All professional photographers are eligible to compete for 53 prizes totalling $2,500 in cash for pictures on these subjects: Children, Weddings, Portraits, Confirmations, Commencements. Dates of pictures are not required so that past as well as present photos may be entered. Releases for publication from photographed subjects should be submitted. The grand prize is $500; first award in each of four divisions is $250, second place $100, third place $50; and 10 honorable mention awards of $10. The donor is Heirloom Frames. Send entries before November 30 to:

Heirloom Bulletin,
820 North Orleans Street, Chicago 10, Ill.

LAW AND JUSTICE

SILVER PLAQUE

LOUISIANA BAR AWARD

A handsome silver plaque is presented annually for outstanding reporting and editorials that make "a meritorious contribution to a better understanding of the law."

Public Information Committee,
Louisiana State Bar Association
(Contact: Bauerlein, Inc., Hibernia Bank Building,
New Orleans, La.)

OWAA-JOHNSON CONTEST

This international awards competition designed to stimulate broader public interest in the outdoors has three categories: Newspapers, Magazines, Television Stations. There is a $1,000 prize in each division provided by Johnson Motors, outboard motor manufacturing firm. The contest is sponsored by the Outdoor Writers Association of America. Each winner also receives a miniature outboard motor with plaque. Deadline is April 15. For information, contact:

Johnson Motors News Bureau,
Waukegan, Illinois.

PHOTOGRAPHY

MERCHANDISE

CIVIL DEFENSE CONTESTS

Contest to encourage the submitting of outstanding civil defense photographs are open to press photographers on a national basis and in several civil defense districts. Entries most likely to win awards (a movie camera, a transistor-type radio, portable radio) will be pictures showing identifiable CD workers in some exercise or natural disaster. November 1 is the entry deadline. The contests are sponsored by:

National Association of Public Information Officers for Civil Defense, Battle Creek, Mich.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

CERTIFICATES

OHIO STATE AWARDS

The American Exhibition of Educational Radio and Television Programs provides public recognition for significant educational programs that are broadcast in the United States and Canada, whether they are sustaining or commercially sponsored. Awards are based on programs actually entered by stations, networks and organizations; radio entries include special one-time broadcasts; others are for series. For information, write to:

Bureau of Public Relations,
Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.

THEATRE PROMOTION

TRIP TO HOLLYWOOD
CASH PRIZES

GEORGIA MOVIE WRITERS CONTEST

News stories, editorials, features, art and advertising material are considered eligible in a contest which runs from January 1 to May 1. The purpose of the contest is to encourage members of the press to evaluate motion pictures as wholesome entertainment, especially for young people. There are two categories: Daily newspapers and all other newspapers—published in Georgia. First prize in each category is an all-expense paid trip to Hollywood for one week for two. Second prize is $250 bond.

Contact:

J. H. Thompson, President,
Motion Picture Theatre Owners & Operators of Georgia,
Hawkinsville, Georgia.

TEXAS BAR ASSOCIATION AWARD

A check for $250 is given annually to the employee of a broadcast station (radio or TV) or newspaper who contributes most to the cause of justice and in keeping the public best informed on matters of legislation and the law. A plaque is given to the winner's station or newspaper. The donor:

TEXAS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION,
Austin, Texas.

CONSERVATION WRITING

MEDAL, $100

GORDON MAC QUARRIE AWARD

An annual cash award of not less than $100 and a bronze medallion will be given for outstanding achievement in telling the story of conservation. The competition is open to Wisconsin residents working in any medium of communication. The award honors the late Gordon Mac Quarrie, outdoors writer on the Milwaukee Journal. Nominations may be made to:

Gordon Mac Quarrie Foundation, Inc.
1721 Hickory Drive, Madison 5, Wis.

STORIES

PUBLIC SERVICE

GOLD MEDALS

TOP STORY AWARDS

Separate prizes of gold medal plaques are awarded in five divisions of competition for single stories, a series, news feature or public service as follows: metropolitan daily (over 50,000 circulation), non-metropolitan daily, weekly, magazine and special interest journal. Publications are invited to submit "the best thing we published this year." Material must be published in California between June 1 and May 31 and entries sent by July 15 to:

Press-Radio-TV Awards,
California State Fair & Exposition,
P. O. Box 2036, Sacramento, California.

TRAVEL ARTICLE

PHOTOGRAPHY

$500

BROWNSVILLE-MEXICO HIGHWAY

Prizes of $250 in cash and $250 in goods and services are offered for the best article written on the new highway from Brownsville-Matamoros to Cd. Victoria in Mexico. The contest is open only to persons living outside the Rio Grande Valley.

A special prize of $25 goes for the best photograph submitted, either with the article, or by itself. Articles should be between 1,000 and 3,000 words. The contest is open until May 1958. For details write to:

International Tourist Association,
750 West Levee Street, Brownsville, Texas

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

GORDON MAC QUARRIE MEMORIAL

A graduate scholarship at the University of Wisconsin is open to young men and women who will pursue conservation-journalism as a career.

GORDON MAC QUARRIE FOUNDATION, Inc.
1721 Hickory Drive, Madison 5, Wisconsin.

FELLOWSHIP

AGRICULTURAL JOURNALISM

Four fellowships in agricultural journalism, paying $1,440 for nine months, half time work, are available in connection with the agricultural experiment station.

Oklahoma State University
Department of Technical Journalism
Stillwater, Okla.

SCHOLARSHIP

$1,520

LABOR RELATIONS REPORTING

The International Labor Press Association, an organization of trade union editors, provides a one-year scholarship worth $1,520 for a graduate student "with a good grounding in economics and an interest in labor reporting and industrial relations."

For information write to:

Dean, Graduate School of Journalism,
Columbia University, New York 27, N.Y.

FELLOWSHIPS

$1,000 to $3,000

OPPORTUNITY FELLOWSHIPS

Awards for a full year of serious work, not for incidental or temporary projects, are available in the field of Journalism; also creative writing and photography. The competition is open to any citizen of the United States (including residents of territories) who has given evidence of special ability and who has not had full opportunity to develop his talents because of arbitrary barriers, such as racial or cultural background or region of residence. The awards normally range from $1,000 to $3,000.

Address inquiries to:

Opportunity Fellowships,
John Hay Whitney Foundation,
630 Fifth Avenue, New York 20, N. Y.

FELLOWSHIP

$2,500

EUGENE F. SAXTON MEMORIAL TRUST

Fellowships up to $2,500 in any one year are given to certain talented writers to enable them to have free time in which to finish book projects in the fields of fiction, non-fiction and book-length narrative poems. About 10,000 words of manuscript must be submitted with an application. Works of pedantic scholarship or experimental research in any of the sciences will not qualify, nor will projects in any of the non-literary arts. The Memorial Trust was founded by Harper & Brothers, publishers, in memory of its chief literary editor. For information write to:

Eugene F. Saxton Memorial Trust,
49 East 33rd Street, New York 16, N. Y.

FOREIGN TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduate students in Journalism of the University of California, Los Angeles, have an opportunity to qualify for foreign travel awards on the basis of reporting assignments in foreign affairs. KLM (Royal Dutch) Airlines provides air transportation from New York to Amsterdam and other European cities and also takes care of living accommodations for the scholars.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LA GUARDIA MEMORIAL AWARD

Newspapers and newspaper men are eligible for nomination for the annual LaGuardia Award for Outstanding Achievement in Municipal Affairs. The basis of the award provided by the LaGuardia Memorial Association is recognition of contributions in the interest of vigorous, efficient municipal government and in furtherance of those ideals of local democracy and self-government exemplified by the late New York Congressman and Mayor. Nominations should be made by Sept. 1 to:

Dr. Martin B. Dworkin,
Graduate School of Public Administration,
New York University, Washington Square, New York, N. Y.

FOREIGN REPORTING

PRIX DU JOURNALISME COLONIAL

Competition for this prize is open to Belgian and foreign correspondents for outstanding reporting on Belgian achievements in the Congo. It is sponsored by the International Fair at Ghent. For information contact:

Patricia Dickerman, Inc.
34 East 51st Street, New York 22, N. Y.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORTING

PLAQUE

FRANK M. HELLER AWARD

Entries are invited from Ohio newspapers—dailies or weeklies—and press associations for the period from July 1 to May 1. The award, for the reporting of public affairs, honors a longtime Scripps-Howard reporter and executive. The names of the first place winners are inscribed on the Heller Plaque and the winners receive certificates. Closing date for entries is May 20, addressed to:

School of Journalism,
Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

FICTION

$10,000

HARPER PRIZE NOVEL CONTEST

To the author of the prize novel, as determined by a panel of judges, Harper & Brothers will pay the sum of $10,000, as follows: $2,000 as an outright prize, and $8,000 as a minimum guarantee of royalties. The contest usually runs from June to June. There are no restrictions as to setting or theme and the contest is not limited to first novels. For information write to:

Harper Prize Novel Contest,
Harper & Brothers, 49 East 33rd Street, New York 16, N. Y.

SPORTS WRITING

MEDAL

GRANTLAND RICE MEMORIAL AWARD

"An outstanding example of sports writing in the Grantland Rice tradition" is honored annually by this award, which is presented in November. The deadline for nominations is July 13, the date of Rice's death. Exhibits may be entered by the writer himself, an editor, or a reader. The competition is open to sports writers of a daily or weekly publication in the United States. Send nominations to:

Daniel Chase,
The Sportsmanship Brotherhood,
119 East 19th Street, New York 3, N. Y.