CITY DADS CONVE.

A Big Grist of Miscellaneous Business Put Through Municipal Mill—A. J. Shaw
Elected Councilman from Second Ward.

The city council met in regular session Monday night, with the mayor and all the councilmen in attendance. The clerk read the minutes of the preceding meeting and the same were approved.

A resolution, on motion of Sinclair, was passed instructing the city attorney to draft three general ordinances for the following purposes: To regulate the police powers of the city, to improve the sanitary condition of the city and to regulate the license system in its different phases.

The street and ditch committee reported in favor of accepting from Contractor McKivor the work done in grading Moxee avenue and two blocks on South First street, between Chestnut and Spruce. A protest was read from property owners on the former thoroughfare representing 1210 feet frontage against accepting the work, the same being backed up by Attorney Guthrie who appeared in behalf of the petitioners. Liggett, Reed and Sinclair, the three members of the street committee, stated that they had gone over the work in company with the city engineer and that they considered that the work was well done and according to contract, whereupon the council voted unanimously to accept the work.

Chairman Sinclair, of the cemetery committee, reported in favor of accepting the proposition of W. L. Lince to sell the city 40 acres of land adjoining the present burial ground for cemetery purposes. After some debate, the council voted to accept Mr. Lince's offer and instructed the mayor and clerk to secure title to the land.

The council then proceeded to elect a nightwatchman from the three applications read, the applicants being Messrs Wilhite, Richmond and Melhany. On a ballot being taken Wilhite received four votes to two for Richmond and was declared elected. The mayor then stated that nominations for the office of councilman from the second ward to succeed Geo. Donald, resigned, were in order. On motion of Ayers, ex councilman A. J. Shaw was elected unanimously to fill the vacant place.

Mayor Fechter stated that he and the marshal, after having made a thorough canvass, had been unable to find a suitable site for a city dumping ground and advocated the building of a furnace to consume as much of the rubbish by fire as possible, as is being done in other cities.

This proposal led to much argument for and against. P. Y. Heckman who secured the floor made a lengthy and forcible argument against the proposition. The council, however, by a majority, voted to make the experiment and authorized the expenditure of not to exceed $100 to test the matter. Under the same head Sinclair moved and the motion prevailed to instruct the street commissioner to clean up the streets and alleys of the city as soon as the furnace should be constructed.

Attorney Snyder being called upon, reiterated his opinion that the city had no authority under existing law to extend the sewer system through the formation of sub-sewer districts.

The $1000 surety bond of Street Commissioner Hauser was then read and approved.

Liggett then moved that the clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for rough lumber to the amount of $500, which would be required for street work during the year.

Dr. Frank, on behalf of the lodge of I. O. O. F., asked permission to have Yakima avenue closed between Third and Fourth streets between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. April 26, the time set for laying the corner stone of the Odd Fellow temple. Permission was granted. A resolution was then passed authorizing City Attorney Snyder to commence action against certain property owners for the collection of delinquent improvement district taxes.

Sinclair reported that Police Judge Nichols had informed him that his official duties required the most of his time and that he was unwilling to longer continue in office at the present meager salary of $20 per month. After considerable argument and over the protest of the mayor the council on motion of Sinclair fixed the police judge's salary at $50 per month.

A large list of bills including the salary and wage list for the month of March was then read. The bills having been approved by the finance committee, were ordered paid by the council. Included in the obligations were the small-pox bills which aggregated $791 for the month.

The quarterly report of City Treasurer Donovan was read. It showed that since taking office Jan. 31 up to March 31 his receipts had been $6524.80 of which included the amount turned over by his predecessor. The disbursements of the office during the same period were $3517.57, leaving a balance on hand of $3007.23.

The police judge and marshal's reports showed that $457.75 had been collected in fines during March. The city sexton reported 7 burials and $57 collected for the month. Street Commissioner Hauser made an exhaustive report of the work accomplished in his department for the past month.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids are hereby solicited for the construction of a school building, Nob Hill school district No. 28, according to the plans and specifications now on file with W. W. Felton, at his office in North Yakima, Washington. Said bids to be filed with W. C. Wimer, clerk of said district, by 12 o'clock noon, April 26, 1902. The directors reserve the right to reject any or all said bids.

FAIR COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Work Begins for the 1902 Exhibition—
September 29 to October 5.

The preliminary meeting of the State Fair commission for 1902 was held at the office of Commissioner Gunn, Monday. The commissioners present were Gunn, Splawn, Weed and Shannon. Commissioner Benson, who was unable to be present in person, was represented by proxy.

The board organized by the election of A. J. Splawn, president; Dr. T. B. Gunn, secretary, and J. E. Shannon, treasurer. Matt H. Williams was subsequently elected superintendent of grounds, as was also W. W. Browning of Ogden, Utah, judge of the poultry department. The fair this year will begin Monday, September 29 and end Saturday, October 5th.

The commission left instructions with the secretary regarding the issuance of the annual premium list, which will probably be ready for distribution in June.

The next regular meeting of the commission will be May 7.

TO PROTECT GRAZING LANDS.

Congressman Jones Introduces the Bill
Drawn by the Yakima Husbandry Association.

Congressman Jones has forwarded the Democrat a copy of the bill to protect grazing lands which was drawn by a committee of the Yakima Husbandry Association and was introduced by Mr. Jones by request. The bill follows:

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons at any time between the first day of December of any year and the thirty-first day of March following to herd or to drive any livestock for the purpose of grazing the same upon any of the public lands of the United States situated in the state of Washington and being east of the summit of the Cascade Range.

Sec. 2. That it shall be unlawful at any time between the first day of December of any year and the thirty-first day of March following for the owner or owners, lessees or, or any other person having charge or control of any livestock, to knowingly allow said livestock to be herded or driven for the purpose of grazing the same upon any of the public lands of the United States situated in the state of Washington and lying east of the summit of the Cascade Range.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the district attorney for the district of Washington, on affidavit filed with him by any citizen of the United States that the provisions of this Act have been violated, to prosecute the offender in the district court of the district of Washington.

Sec. 4. That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year for each offense.

Double Deal in Real Estate.

Mrs. E. M. Harris last week sold her business lot adjoining the Hotel Imperial to the Mennonite Brethren, the consideration being $2000. The increase in the value of the property during the less than two years that Mrs. Harris owned it enabled that lady to realize a profit of nearly 200 per cent on the investment. It is understood that the purchasers will erect a two story brick business building on the property this year.

Mrs. Harris subsequently purchased the five acre tract of Leonard Schott north of town. This deal includes a chicken hatchery plant and several hundred head of thoroughbred chicks. The price paid for the property was $3600. Mr. Schott has bought the Crory house on Sixth street and moved into town.

Must Be Money in Oil.

E. E. James is engaged in selling stock for the Charter Oil company, a new corporation with its head office at Tacoma. This company owns ten acres of land right in the heart of the Kern county fields in California, the land being adjacent to land owned by the Queen Oil company, which has one of the largest gushers in the golden state.

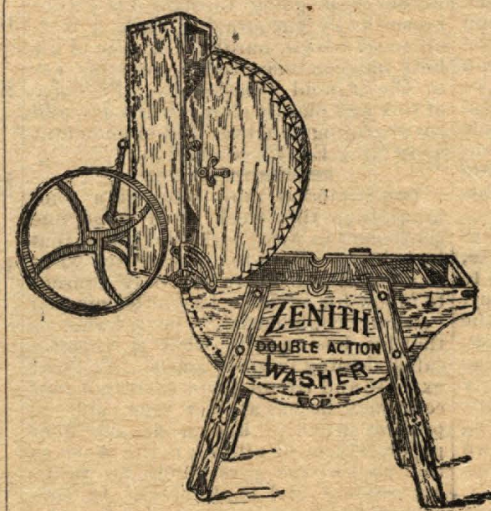

Judge Williamson of Tacoma, who has been in Yakima recently on account of his health, is secretary of the Charter company, and also a director in the Queen. Hon. Thomas Carroll of Tacoma is also identified with both corporations. Judge Williamson, while here, informed the Democrat that the rise in the value of his "Queen" stock during the past year had made him $10,000. Marcus Graves of this city, who paid $15 a year ago for 100 shares of "Queen," is said to have recently refused $150 for the same. The "Charter" was organized a month ago. Only a limited amount of treasury stock will be placed on the market.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and one and a half boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. W. E. Ayres will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

It might as well be understood now as at any other time that the Hon. George Turner will be, if he lives, a full fledged candidate to succeed himself at the end of his present term as a senator of the United States. By virtue of his position Senator Turner is now generally, and we believe rightfully, regarded as the official head of the democratic party of this state and it is safe to say that the members of that organization in this state almost to a man earnestly desire his success.

What the senator's chances for success are at this early day it is, of course, quite impossible even for an expert to foretell with any degree of accuracy. Political conditions in this state at the present time are, to say the least, badly mixed. This is especially true within the ranks of the republican party which in nearly every county in the state is split up into jealous and warring factions, each intent upon tearing down and destroying the influence and prestige enjoyed by another.

While the republicans have a seeming advantage in gaining control of the next legislature it is in reality more seeming than real. What advantage they may have in numbers is really offset by the disastrous intestine warfare that is constantly going on within their ranks which springs principally from two causes, namely, the senatorial fight and the utter impossibility to agree on a policy of legislation, particularly with reference to the railroads.

The democratic party on the other hand was never more united in this state. Distracting quarrels that once racked the party from center to circumference are now things of the past. The bitter factional fights that furnished so much cause for merriment to the enemy two and four years ago are now past and gone, have disappeared in fact with the death or retirement of some of the principal actors on the stage at that time. In place of factional warfare, peace, harmony and good feeling now exist in strong contrast with the unhappy family row that is going on in the opposition camp. This condition of things ought to and doubtless will militate greatly in Senator Turner's favor. But this is not all. A great factor in the coming contest will be the personal popularity of the democratic candidate and his strength with the people which is unquestionably greater than that of his party.

Turner is able, honest and fearless. He is the only man who has yet went to the upper house of congress from this state who measures up to the full senatorial standard. All the others have been men of but mediocre ability and have reflected little or no credit on the state in the councils of the nation. While Turner has been a minority member he has wielded a good deal of influence not only on account of his ability as a statesman, but because his personality is such that he makes friends among his associates.

The people of this state know these qualities of the senator and appreciate him accordingly. They know that he is not a misfit in his present high station and that it is for the best interests of the state to keep him there. There is also another point that will not be allowed to escape the attention of the taxpayers. And that is that in the event of a democratic legislature being chosen the senatorial succession will be settled within an hour. In case a republican legislature is selected it will take all winter to settle it if indeed it be settled at all. The result in such a case would be just as it has been before, a carnival of corruption at Olympia and almost total disregard of the people's interests or wishes. The price of electing a republican senator is too great. The people, we think, will not consent to pay it.

MAKING a virtue of necessity, the Yakima Republic has finally consented to publish the communications of real as well as alleged farmers, regarding the range question and the preservation of the Rainier forest reserve, although in the same issue, editorially, the paper endeavors to counteract the effect of the letters of Messrs Splawn and Marks.

This is perhaps not to be wondered at, for as far back as most people here can remember that paper has been the mouthpiece and official organ of the woolgrowing interest and in so far as it has dared to do so, has uniformly upheld and defended that industry, frequently to the detriment of every other interest in central Washington.

The two farmers referred to presented the case of the agricultural class fairly and frankly. While space would not permit more than a cursory presentation of their case their statement of facts and the conclusions reached ought to appeal to every reasonable man who has the welfare of this section at heart. It is to be noted too in this connection that the writers were not afraid to sign their names to their communications, not choosing to skulk under the nom de plume of "Farmer," "Observer," or any other reprehensible title by means of which they have been permitted through the Republic to covertly attack and misrepresent the conscientious motives of men who have been actuated only by what they regarded was for the public good.

The Democrat would gladly refrain from further criticism of its contemporary for its unpatriotic policy on this important question if it could discover any sign of real repentance. Unfortunately, however, there is no such evidence in sight. As we have said before, that paper is mainly responsible for the perverted ideas and misinformation touching the water supply question, that many people in this community still tenaciously cling to. For years it has preached false doctrine to the people for the sake of material gain and now that it sees that public sentiment is changing and crystallizing in determined opposition to "the petted industry" it is beginning, perhaps, to feel just a little groggy.

Erroron Dunckley of the Centralia Examiner, speculates at some length on a possible matrimonial alliance between the Kaiser's eldest son and Miss Alice Roosevelt. Of course, if the young people want to fall in love that is their business, but there does not seem to be much probability of such a union being consummated even though the young Hohenzollern prince may be clear daft through having gazed long and rapturously at the sweet girl's picture. His high mightiness, the emperor, notwithstanding his patronizing airs and amusing by plays, would never tolerate the idea of even a daughter of an American president entering the precincts of his royal household. And from the American point of view such a match would be equally as objectionable, and papa Roosevelt's feelings, too, must be considered. Does anybody suppose that even with his tendency to do freakish and unexpected things that Teddy Roosevelt is going to spoil his future prospects by encouraging such a mesalliance? Well, hardly. In spite of his lofty independence Teddy puts his ear to the ground occasionally. Evidence of this was plainly shown when he told his charming daughter that she could not go to King Eddy's coronation.

The Democrat man received a communication this week from some fine gentleman in New York who states that he is in a position to make us rich within a few months if we will only consent to follow his advice. In a letter marked "strictly confidential," he informs us that his business is what is vulgarly called dealing in green goods. At great expense and trouble, our correspondent continues, he has at last been able to procure what is known as silk fiber paper, which, he alleges, is the same as that used by the government for printing treasury and bank notes. In conclusion he, she or it warns us that as the writer is not just now on friendly terms with the government it would be useless to attempt to communicate with them by mail, but considerably encloses a telegraphic address with instructions how to send money.

We are sorry, of course, that we are not in a position to take advantage of this princely offer of our unknown friend who is so deeply interested in our welfare, but unfortunately this generous proposal comes to us at the wrong time of the year. If our would-be benefactor will kindly wait until we have harvested our crop of pumpkins perhaps we will be in shape to do business.

The spectacle of Senator Foster begging the president to give John L. Wilson's brother Harry a better job than the one he now has at the Chilean Capitol, is one that amuses all the politicians in this state. It is only a few weeks ago since the present and former senator were at each other hammer and tongs with the fleshpots of office as the stake for the winner. It must be that a treaty of peace has been signed between those two eminent statesmen—that bodes no good to the political fortunes of the luckless Ankeny. It is barely possible that our own distinguished Col. Cannon, acting in his dual capacity, has been the good angel who has patched up a peace between the two warring camps.

The Democrat acknowledges the receipt of a letter this week from R. J. Mackison, a subscriber now residing at Grand Forks, Yukon Ty, where he conducts the Gold Hill hotel. Mr. Mackison who is a well known former resident of Yakima, writes to express his unqualified disapproval of the provisions of Mr. Jones' grazing bill. For the benefit of our friend Mr. Mackison in his far-away retreat we will state that Mr. Jones' grazing bill is now dead as Julius Caesar. The Democrat killed it with its little hatchet. It was a vicious piece of proposed legislation conceived in the interest of a certain class of stockmen and therefore died a born-in when exposed to the glare of publicity.

COL. WILLIAM WISDOM ROBERSON would have us believe that his former correspondents prefer his paper as a vehicle of information on account of its stupendous circulation. There may be, of course, some warrant for this violent assumption, but we fancy that the real motive that governed the farmers in this matter was to place a diet of hard, cold facts upon the Republic's table where they might be devoured and digested by some of the colonel's benighted readers.

The republican party of this county ought to get plenty of inspiration from its local press. With an ex-democrat running its senior organ and an ex-populist in connection with the present secretary of the democratic central committee, running its junior organ, salvation ought to be free for everybody. But how do the old war horses like it?

The Portland Oregonian says that Congressman Moody was laid on the shelf because he tried to induce congress to pass a bill authorizing the leasing of public lands to stockmen. This proves what the Democrat has said right along that this range question is liable to prove to be a buzz saw to the ambitious fopes of certain gentlemen who monkey with it.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Girls Guild of St. Michael's church gave a benefit ball at the armory last night.

Messrs. Wands and Daniels have opened a real estate office in the quarters formerly occupied by Hough's bank.

The woodwork of the Bartholet hotel this week received a fresh coat of paint which much improved the external appearance of the house.

Next Tuesday April 15th, is the day set for a joint meeting of the committees representing the Cattlegrowers and the Woolgrowers associations.

Local sheepmen are pretty well satisfied with the result of the present lambing season. The average is said to be slightly if any less than 100 percent.

The ladies of the Red Cross society are planning for a grand ball to be given at the armory on the 18th. The proceeds will go into the monument fund.

The ball given Friday night of last week by the Junior orchestra was quite largely attended by the younger set. The armory was gaily decorated for the occasion.

Every train coming from the east now is loaded down apparently with home-seekers. There are not as many stopping off here, however, as might be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cary and their three daughters, Mesdames Roof and Chandler and Miss Georgia Cary, left Wednesday for DuFur, Or., to attend a family reunion.

The venerable father of Frank Horsley returned here Thursday. Since leaving here last fall Mr. Horsley has been back to Iowa, but for several weeks past has been in southern California.

It is rumored that W. W. Hare has been offered the position of supervisor of the eastern portion of the Rainier forest reserve. The place is said to carry a salary of $2000 per year.

Night Operator Turnell was relieved from further duty at the depot Wednesday morning. He received a letter of notification and the same train brought a new recruit sent here to take his place.

Self-denial week began with the Salvation Army April 6 and will close the 13th. The custom is with the membership to contribute to the general fund of the organization what saving they effect through self-denial.

The rain of Sunday started the grass and small grain to growing. The continued cool weather, however, is keeping all kinds of vegetation back. The apricot and early peaches that had begun to bloom are probably damaged in some localities by the recent frosty nights.

The organization of homesteaders under the Sunnyside canal known as the Farmers' Mutual Protective association will hold a mass meeting at Sunnyside today to consider the matter of how to procure a reduction in their water rental which this year is reported to be $3 per acre.

Mrs. Sophia Palmer, wife of George Palmer, aged 46 years, died at the family residence, 510 South Third street, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The cause of death was abscess of the liver, from which she had suffered for nearly a year past. The deceased leaves, besides a husband, nine children to mourn her loss. The family came here about two years ago from Goldendale. The funeral was held Monday afternoon.

James H. McNeely, the Indian commissioner, well known in this city, died at his home at Evansville, Ind., last Sunday after a prolonged illness. Major McNeely was an appointee of President McKinley and at the time of his death was chairman of the commission which was appointed to treat with the Yakima and Flathead Indians. In his younger days the deceased was a prominent newspaper man of Indiana, having been for a number of years editor and proprietor of the Evansville Journal.

C. J. Beach, the well known pioneer of Kennewick, and wife were in North Yakima this week. Mr. Beach says that Kennewick, under the impetus given it by the ditches being built in that vicinity, is beginning to grow and that it will undoubtedly make a prosperous town. The Improvement company is conservative, however, and shows no disposition to encourage a boom, preferring that the town should have a steady and natural growth. The company is now engaged in plating 14 blocks on the south side of the R. R. track, having concluded to abandon the old townsite entirely. Mr. Beach is himself plating an addition to the townsite which he is preparing to put on the market.

DR. GEO. A. LIBBEY, President; HON. THOMAS CARROLL, Vice-Pres. and Gen'l Manager; A. U. MILLS, Treas; HON. J. A. WILLIAMSON, Sec'y.

This company, lately organized, has ten acres of land at Sunset, California, in the very heart of the choicest oil lands in that state. At least twenty wells can be sunk on this company's lands. It adjoins the Queen Oil Co., and is within seven hundred feet of its famous gusher, and our general manager is now on the ground to arrange for putting down the wells.

For a short time the company will sell a limited amount of its stock at the low figure of 15 cents per share, reserving the right to raise the price at any time without notice. We are adjoined on all sides by companies whose prospects and financial condition a year ago were not as good as ours is, that now ask from $5 to $12 per share, and are paying good dividends on the par value of their entire stock. There is no reason why ours should not prove as good.

There has never been a well sunk in that district that is not now a prodvcer, and no well has shown the slightest decrease in output of oil.

The purchase of stock in this company has none of the elements of a venture but is a sure and safe business investment that cannot in any human probability fail to bring splendid returns.

Raving Maniac on Train.
A dispatch from Helena, Mont., dated April 6, says that James Thorp, bound from McLeod, Oklahoma, to North Yakima, was taken from the train at that point Sunday a raving maniac. The man seemed to have suddenly lost his mind and grew very violent, keeping the passengers in an uproar of excitement by his threats to carve them with a big knife which he recklessly swung about him. On being searched by the sheriff who took him in charge at Helena a letter was found on the person of the demented man from Ben and Nettie Small of this city. Thorp is presumed to have become insane on account of the death of a sister. It was found necessary to confine him in a padded cell.

MADE A HOT FIRE.
Contents of Yellow Drug Store Destroyed by Flames Early Friday Morning.

Fire broke out in the rear of the Yellow drug store early Friday morning about 4.15 a. m. or at any rate that was about the time that it was discovered by Dr. Wells who rooms in the adjoining Kershaw block.
Dr. Wells says that he was awakened by a jarring sensation, probably caused by a chemical explosion. Running to his office window he threw it up and discovered that the interior of the Janek building adjoining was in flames. He lost no time in turning in an alarm at fire headquarters in the city hall and a few minutes later the department was on the scene with the chemical engine as well as a considerable number of spectators.
The fire was the hottest in the rear of the building and here the chemical stream was applied with splendid results. The water pressure seemed slow in materializing and had it not been for the chemical engine it is doubtful if the flames could have been brought under control without working a great deal of damage not only to the Janek block but to adjoining buildings. As it was the frame building to the east owned by Chas. McEwen was scorched somewhat.
The fire department rendered a good account of itself and soon had the blaze under control as soon as an ample pressure was secured. The fire was not subdued, however, until the entire contents of the drug store was destroyed either by fire or water. The upper floor of the building was occupied by Dr. Rosser, the other front office being vacant. The rear office had been occupied by Dr. Stephenson, the dentist. Neither of these gentlemen carried much insurance on their office fixtures and the most of their property was lost.
Councilman Ayres, proprietor of the Yellow drug store, states that he has no knowledge of how the fire started. A meeting of the Druggists association was held in the back room of the store which adjourned about 10 o'clock at which time Mr. Ayres locked up and went home. He was called up by telephone about 4.30 yesterday morning and informed of the fire. Mr. Ayres informed the DEMOCRAT that he valued his stock at something over $10,000, on which he carried a little less than $10,000 of insurance. He does not know just now what he will do in the future but thinks that he will resume business as soon as his loss can be adjusted and the building repaired. The building is owned by the Janek estate and is said to have been insured to the amount of $3,000.

'Tis Easy to Feel Good.
Countless thousands have found a blessing to the body in Dr. King's New Life Pills, which positively cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Jaundice, Malaria, Fever and Ague and all Liver and Stomach troubles. Purely vegetable; never gripe or weaken. Only 25c at W. E. Ayres drug store.

Commissioners Meet.
The regular term of commissioners court is being held this week having convened Monday. It has been a busy session as there was a large accumulation of business to dispose of. A big list of bills was passed on and ordered paid.
The Yakima Furniture Co. was awarded the contract for burying paupers at $9 each. D. H. Carrell was granted a license to conduct a saloon at Zillah, he having filed a petition asking for that privilege with the name of nearly every business man and resident of the village thereon. The commissioners accepted the bid of the Yakima Republic to do the county advertising.
A good deal of the board's time has been occupied with road matters, there being several petitions for new roads to consider as well as vacancies to fill in several districts in the office of supervisor. The most difficult proposition, however, that the board has had to go against is the bridge question. The commissioners spent most of Thursday looking over the proposed road and bridge sites in the Selah. The board will doubtless come to some sort of a conclusion regarding the matter before adjournment on Saturday.

A Raging, Roaring Flood.
Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. E. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Lung troubles by W. E. Ayres. Price 50c and $1.00.

Minnesotans Meet Again.
There was a large attendance at the second meeting of the Minnesota society at the office of Dr. Wells Thursday evening and much interest manifested in the organization by those present. Dr. Wells acted as presiding officer and the following committee was named to draw up a constitution and by-laws: N. F. Brand, G. G. Drew, M. L. Matterson and Mrs. F. D. Clemmer. The next meeting will be Friday the 18th. All Minnesotans, including ladies, over 18 are eligible to membership.

Ida White, Plaintiff.
Samuel White, Defendant.

The State of Washington to the said defendant, Samuel White:
You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days of the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within sixty days after the 15th day of April, 1922, and defend the above action in the above entitled court, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff, and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned attorneys for plaintiff at the office below stated; and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which has been filed with the clerk of said court.

This is an action brought by said plaintiff against said defendant to dissolve the bonds of matrimony now existing between said plaintiff and defendant for an absolute divorce from him, on the grounds of abandonment for more than one year, and for defendant's failure to provide the common necessities of life for said plaintiff as his wife, and for his failure to make any provision for the maintenance of said plaintiff and for her costs and disbursements in said action incurred.

Doesn't It? Stand to Reason

That anyone who buys 250 Buggies from one concern and 150 Wagons at one time can sell and make a profit at the price they cost a man who buys only 20 or 30 a year?

That is what we did last fall before the raise in wagon and buggy material. We also buy in large quantities for our harness depot, enabling us to make prices which cannot be equaled. Look over our stock and get our prices.

We have now listed, and for sale, some of the best bargains in city and farm property that can be found in North Yakima and surrounding country.

We have the exclusive sale of the lands of the Yakima Valley Canal Co., situated from two to six miles west of this city. Nob Hill and the Wide Hollow are garden spots and offer the intending purchaser as good if not better value for his money than can be found elsewhere. The close proximity of these lands to North Yakima gives them a tangible and permanent value.

We have for sale at very reasonable prices a number of fine stock ranches, hay ranches and fruit farms, besides a large list of agricultural lands of all classes.

We also have a big list of improved and unimproved. If you have money to invest we have some good interest interest you.

We have, for a limited time in the shape of grazing lands Watch this space next week bargains will be offered.

Fred Yosting returned Saturday from a three-year army service in the Philippines. Mr. Yosting saw some hard service in Cuba before going to the Philippines. He will remain here for a time with his relatives and rest up after his strenuous career in the army.

Dr. C. E. White this week sold 160 acres in the Moxee, the consideration being $8975. This was desert land a few months ago, Dr. White having bought a relinquishment from the parties holding it. The doctor realized a profit of nearly $5000 on his investment.

The company which was advertised to play "Janice Meredith" here Tuesday evening did not show up. The cause of the fluke was due to the fact that Blanche Walsh, the leading lady, met with an accident Sunday through falling down on a slippery wharf at Whatcom.

Fruit Inspector Beck this week condemned a shipment of fruit trees consigned to Dan Houle of the Moxee from the Perry Nurseries of Rochester, N. Y. A good part of the stock was found to be badly infested. The discarded trees were burned. The loss falls on the nursery.

The curfew now rings regularly every night at 9 p. m. warning the youngsters off the streets. Marshal Grant says that he intends hereafter to strictly enforce the curfew ordinance and that young men under 16 must keep off the streets after that hour, otherwise they will be liable to arrest.

Willis Hackett, aged 39 years, died at the home of his father on West Yakima avenue, the cause of death being consumption. Deceased was for eight years an Adventist missionary in the West Indies, where he contracted the fatal disease. The unfortunate man came to Yakima last fall.

The hard rain of Sunday and Sunday night added to the melting snow of the foothills soon made most of the creeks of this county bank full and overflowing. Some considerable damage is said to have been caused, especially in the lower Cowlitz where the flood inundated the road and washed out some bridges.

Marshal Grant has posted placards about the city calling attention to ordinance No. 13, which forbids any person from leaving horses untied, or against hitching to shade trees. The marshal says that the enforcement of this ordinance will be no bluff hereafter, and anybody caught violating it will be arrested and fined.

Workmen are engaged this week in tearing out the old windows and enlarging the window space of the Hotel Yakima office preparatory to putting in large plate glass windows. The changes being made will certainly add much to the looks of that well-known hostelry, and give it a very metropolitan appearance.

Martin Koresky died early Sunday morning at his residence on North Fourth street, from a sudden stroke of paralysis. The funeral occurred Monday from the Catholic church. Deceased formerly lived on his ranch in Fruitvale and until the past few months was in a good state of health. He leaves a widow and several grown children.

The doctor says that now that they have discovered that Mrs. Baker's health is so much better on the Sound he has concluded to move to Everett about June 1, where he will engage in the practice of his profession. The numerous friends of doctor and Mrs. Baker and their children in this city will be sorry to learn that they have concluded to leave Yakima.

Denies Being a Swindler.

G. W. Allinger, the commission man, writes the DEMOCRAT from San Francisco under date of April 5th. He states that all at once his firm at Frisco refused to honor his demands for money, refusing to give him any reason therefore. This necessitated his making a trip there. He says that he has had no intention of bilking anybody here in Yakima and that if his firm don't put up the money to liquidate the bills he will do so himself.

Back from Medical Lake.

W. A. Cox, wife and daughter Nora, returned to Yakima Wednesday after having lived nearly five years at Medical Lake, where Mr. Cox has been engaged for that period as steward and accountant at the asylum. Their son Cody did not return, but will spend the summer at Wardner, Idaho. Their eldest daughter Miss Vernie will remain in Spokane for a month visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cox are staying with their son Carl until they can get possession of their own house on North Fourth street now occupied by Henry Schott and family. Mr. Cox does not know as yet what he will turn his attention to, but will probably engage in some line of business in this city.
