That's the theme of the 1960 Writers Conference. The program has been shaped to help YOU write YOURS.

Publishers are still saying that the material in the Pacific Northwest is practically untouched; that writers have barely scratched the surface of this rich and colorful area. Our speakers have been chosen for their interest in helping YOU to get started on that story, article or book which only YOU can write.

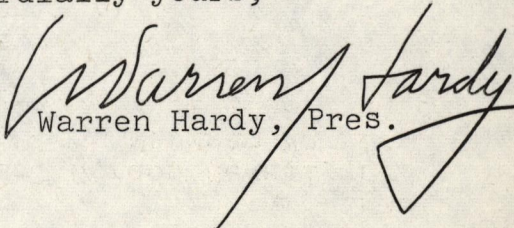

Such professional writers as Nita Lohnes Frazier, John Wesley Noble, Zoa Sherburne, Dorothy Johansen, Zola Helen Ross, Rega McCarty, Dr. Alan Nourse, Gordon Newell, Dr. Donald H. Clark, Byron and Laurie Fish, Markham Harris, Nelson Bentley, Sam and Norma Woodbury, Lucille McDonald, Lucille Vaughan Payne, Mary Jane Waldo, and many others, will moderate and staff the panels which are designed to help YOU get started. Your program will list them all.

We also have expanded our program to include two new panels: PUBLIC RELATIONS WRITING and WRITING FOR RELIGIOUS PUBLICATIONS. Since both of these have been requested at previous Conferences, we expect a large and enthusiastic attendance.

We now have members in all parts of the United States and Canada. We, the Board of Trustees, sincerely appreciate the tangible and active support of all who have thus proven that the Conference is a worth-while addition to the educational and cultural life of the Pacific Northwest.

Are YOU a member? Remember, the $2.00 membership is deductible from the cost of your Conference ticket.

Cordially yours,

Warren Hardy, Pres.
