Father Conrad Brusten, SJ who has been at Lewiston, Ida. for the past two years will again be pastor of the St Joseph's Catholic church of Yakima it was announced at the parsonage on North Fourth street this morning. Father Brusten will serve at the 9 and 10 o 'clock masses tomorrow.

Father P.J. Mahoney SJ who has been pastor at the east side church since Father Brusten's departure for Lewiston is to go to the St Joseph's church in Seattle. Father John Buscher of the University of Gonzaga will be Father Brusten's assistant pastor.

Father Joseph Bruckert who has been a sistant pastor at the local parish with Father Mahoney has been transferred to Lewiston, Ida and Father Henry BOVd@d Vrebosch who has been connected with St Joseph's has been transferred to Montana.

Father Brusten was this morning established at the parsonage on North Fourth street. The changes will come as a surprise to many of the St  $J_0$ sep, as parishbners. Father Brusten was for many years with St Joseph's befor he was transferred to Lewiston and his return is almost a home coming.

Father Brusten serv d so many years at St Joseph's to which he was called long be ore the present church property was developed that his transfer to Lewiston was a blow to the community a well as to his church flock. He has been active in many lines of civic endeavor durin his resi ence here and as some sign of the esteem in which he was held the Commercial club held a public reception in his honor. At that his numerous friends, Catholic and protestant alike wished him all good fortune in his new parish.

Three thousand dollars were made at the bazaar held in Marquette hall Thursday evening, Friday and Saturday by the women of St Joseph church and parish. The affair started at 5:30 and continued until late Saturday.

Many beautiful prizes were awarded to those who attended with the Ford touring car going to E. Kipp, athletic coach at Marquette. Mfs. H. Delude received pillow cases; Mrs. C.N. Baker, comforter; Mrs. Willa Ridgeway leather rocker; Mrs. Alex ope, center piece and buffet scarf; Jean Sickenga the record dolla; Madeline Eschbach, wool blanket; Mrs. J. Hudon of Seattle the linen luncheon set; Pete Hanses, auto robe; Hans Christenson, a Cartiss picture and Mrs. A. J. Dackerman a fudge apron.

The committee helping make it a usuccess included Mrs. A.H. Arendt, Mrs. Joseph E. Ditter, Mrs. Harry A. LaBerge, Mrs. H.H. Schott, Mrs. arry L. Schott, Mrs. J.M. Curry, Mrs. Harry L. Cahalan and members from the Young Ladies Sodality. Mrs. Regina Dietzen was chairman in charge of the chicken dinner-Yakima Republic, Nov. 17, 1924.

In the silver tea at the home of Mrs. H.L. Cahalan next Wednesday plans willbe initiated for public festivities among the Catholics of the valley in honor of the 50th anniversary commemorating the founding of St Joseph's academy.

Elaborate preparations are already being made for the program which is to be held on June 7 and 9. There are about 150 alumni, most of whom reside in the valley.

Tentative arrangements have already been made for the June program with almoni day coming on the 7th, graduation day when 18 young ladies will be graduated at the apitol theater and a guest day on the 9th when alumni with students and faculty members of the school will offer a pageant in 10 episodes which will trace the history of StJoseph's a cademy from its founding down to the present.

Songs and dances will be featured between the various settings.

St Joseph's the first school of any kind to be founded in the valley had its origin in a one-story frame building in Old own which opened its doors with an enrollment of nine pupils in the fall of 18090 1875. Its two rooms housed the pupils in a class room and the three teachers, Sisters Blendina, Dorothy and Melanie in the other.

During the day the Sisters hid their bed clothing in the attic room of the structure and at night it was drawn forth to make up the beds. All three of the Sisters have passed to their rewardlong since.

Mrs. Josephine Parker of Toppenish is one of the surviving members of that class and she still recalls vividly the scenes of those days. Her father, Joseph Dowser was one of the first settlers in the valley and his name is closely associated with Ahtanum water rights settlement now in the local comt.

The nearest church was the old Antanum mission which still stands as one of the historic relics of the valley.

Father Caruana SJ had charge of the parish. So grea was the distance between the mission and the school with the clow means of travel of the times that Father Caruana found opportunity to visit the school for serices and mass on Sundays only.

With the exodus of North Yakima the first building of the academy was erected here while the old frame building was left behind at Old Town where it still stands. Most of the present alumni graduated from the Yakima school while a sctattered few finished in theoriginal sctucture. Mrs. Alice Kelly is president of the alumni association at present.

Some of the leading members include Mrs. A.J. LeMieux, Mrs. Ray Venables, Marie Lentz, Eleanor Korth, Alice Garrecht, Mina Harringtonn Elsie Koreski, Martha Koreski and Elsie Slavin.

Among the pupils wheattended and are now teaching are included Sister Mary Claudia who teachers the eight h grade in St Joseph's; Sister Mary Esther of the Moxee high schoolfaculty; Sister Dorothy Providence of the music department at St Joseph's at Sprague, Wash., Sister Mary Theodora at Providence academy at Vancouver, Wash., Sister Margaret of Jesus, also of Vancouver; Sister Rose Nita of Great Falls, Mont. and Sister Theresa Frances who is teaching at Moxee.

The academy now has an enrollment of 425 girls with 89 girls in the high school which is accredited. Boys up to the fourth grade are also enrolled. The faculty includes 16 sisters and thr3e lay teachers. Sister Superior Mary Veronica who has taught in the school for six years, was appointed to take charge of the school last fall as Sister Superior and is now head of the school—The Yakima Tep blic, Feb. 7, 1925.

Catholics from all parts of the valley will make a pilgrimage to Sunnyside next Sunday to participate in the dedication services to be held for the new $8,000 church which has just been completed under the leadership of Father J.F. Conway.

This is the first Catholic church to be erected in the strongest church community of the Yakima valley. Local caravans will start from various places in the morning, more than 50 Knights of Columbus from Yakima having signed to go. Plans are to leave here at 10 o'clock.

Dedication services are scheduled to begin at 12 o'clock noon with a solemn high mass at the new church. at the Conway will be the celebrant at the service with Father O.J. Sullivan and Father Robert Armstrong assisting.

Father Conway has dedicated the church of Granger over which he presides besides the missions at Grandview and Mabton.

Following the solemn high mass the Ladies Aid of Sunnyside will serve a chicken dinner. A joint council meeting of all Knights of Columbus present is to convene after the dinner.

The committee in charge of entertainment consists of Mike Congan, P.A. Gaul and E.R. Sandmeyer.

The church is built of brick with atile front and is of the mission type of architecture. Its seating capacity is a bout 300 people. W.M. Yeaman of Yakima built the church and Palmer and Maddney, Yakima architects, drew the plans.

Mabton is the only one of the four lower valley Catholic missions which now has no church building--The Yakima Daily Republic, Saturday, March 7, 1925.

Marquette high school will blossom forth next fall with all the athletic equipment necessary for a first class high school if the plans that are now under way are completed.

Marquette will ask for admittance into the Yakima Valley High school Athletic association and begin with football to carry its sports program through to the spring basketball, baseball and track.

coach E. Kppp has been two years in working for a regular athletic program for the school and this year has made more advanced toward his goal. He took over the coaching sat Marquette where there has been no regular sport program. The basket all team next year will have its own gym in the Marquette high school. The complete sport program from early fall prliminary football practice to baseball in the spring will be handled on the Marquette grounds. The gym, which is to be what is now the Marquette assembly hall is one of the largest floors in the city—The yakima Republic, Match 19, 1925.

A court of Catholic Daughters of America will be formed in Yakima tomorrow afternoon starting at 1 o'clock in the Woman's club house.

This is a national organization with a membership of about 300,000 in the United States and Canada.

The local groups are called courts. It was formerly known as the Daughters of Isabella and there are a number of women in Yakima who have been members in other localities. The ceremonies are to be conducted under the direction of (copy, line missing)

Construction of a new St Paul's Roman Catholic church costing $100,000 is planned this year by the building committee of the church to take care of the growing needs of the parish, the Rev. Robert Armstrong, pastor and E.E. Whalen, committeemember announced today.

The ediffice will occupy the tennis court site on the church property fronting hestnut street between welfth and Thirteenth avenues. It will be build in Spanish architectural styzey of eitherbrick or tile covered with warm colored stucco and will seat at least 800 worshippers according to plans. There are 400 families resident in the parish. A finance campaign will be held in the early fall and the building of the structure undertaken as soon thereafter as possible.

"We have needed a new church for some time, as the parochial school, the second story of which is devoted to church use is congested, "Whalen said.

"With a new church we will be able to remodel the second story of the school into four class rooms. here are now 270 children attending. As the west side district grows the school will be even mome crowded."

Serving with Whalen on the building committee are "ev. B rrows, J.P. Kohls, J.W. Brislawn, W.E. Praper, Fred Moore, Richard Mc Peak, Jacob Lentz and Frank artholet -- The Yakima Republic, March 21, 1925.

The first school taught by the Sisters and the teaching among te Indians by the priests were shown in the background as the pageant proceeded.....

Among the special guests at the performances were M ther Eugene of Everett and Sister F orence of Portland, both of whom taught in the early schools of the valle. M ther Eugene came here first in 1877 just 1001-20 one and one-half years after the first school was started. Sister Florenc arrived to begin her work in 1901. A special section for the Sisters of the school was reserved in the balcony-The Yakima Republic, June 19, 1925.

Two progressive steps have been taken by the Catholic schools of the city preparatory to the opening of St Joseph's, St Paul's and Marquette on August 31 for registration.

As one of the parish activities a school nurse, Mrs. Alice

Garrecht has been employed to make a health survey of the two

Yakima parishes and to make bi-monthly inspections at the three schools.

Mrs. Garrecht is a 1922 graduate of St Elizabeth's training school as Miss Straub.

It is the plan to have a preliminary health survey made at once so as to ward off any possibility of an epidemic among the school pupils. After that each parochial pupil will be given a detailed physical examination and the report is entered upon regular record cards similar to those used in the Yakima public school health work.

After these tests have been completed the nurse will make her bi-monthly inspections and tests.

as another forward step, girls of St Joseph's from the seventh grade onward will after October 1 be required to wear the school uniform which has been adopted in conformity with the system used in the best of the private schools.

The uniform is navy blue with sufficient variation allowed to provide a becoming dress for any girl, whatever her build and will have detachable white colors and cuffs--The Yakima Daily Republic, August 27, 1925.
