Dear Fellow Writers:

Time your visit to Seattle's World's Fair with the Seventh Annual Meeting of the Pacific Northwest International Writers Conference, July 26, 27, 28 at the University of Washington.

Those of you who attended other conferences will recall the high calibre of our speakers; among them, Irving Stone, Justice William O. Douglas, Martin Flavin, James Warner Bellah and J. Donald Adams. This year a feature attraction will be Marquis Childs, internationally known commentator and columnist, whose recent book, "The Peacemakers," was a Saturday Evening Post serial and best-selling novel. Eastern editors, agents, Northwest headliners and many other prominent writers will certainly be with us. Watch your writers' magazines for future Conference notices.

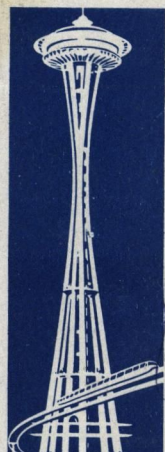

A new feature, the Editors Panel Awards, will be offered to encourage high standards of quality in writing, to recognize merit and to bring it to the attention of appropriate editors and publishers. Awards of $25 will be given in four categories; articles, short stories, poems and juvenile stories or articles. Write us for complete rules and qualifications.

Plan to send in your membership dues early. Join with us and help our Conference once more offer inspiration for beginners, technique for craftsmen and reunion for professionals.

Sincerely yours,

Zola H. Ross
Zola H. Ross,
President.

*** "BETWEEN THE BOOKENDS" -- To bring the Conference to the attention of the public, we are holding a Fashion Show and Luncheon at the Olympic Hotel, April 9. Northwest books and authors will be honored. Fashions will be presented by Littler. Reservations may be made by mailing your check for $4.25 to Conference Secretary or by telephoning PA 2-2108 or VA 2-7273.
