SUPERIOR COURT, CHAMBERS.
WILLIAM G. EWING, JUDGE.

My dear Burnett.

You are always doing something to make some other fellow happy. Many thanks for the Woburn permit to travel. You may now tell Mrs. Bloodgett that I have the means of of meeting any engagement in which I can aid her efforts in the help of "Sinner-Charity."

Of course we will see you when you come to Chicago. Maria had a delightful letter from Mrs Ponker the day you started west, in which she gave a diagram in words of her new house.

I can assure you that the E.F. would enjoy nothing more than a visit with the quiet - demure little non talkative woman who represents with consummate tact and grace the <sup>Western branch</sup> Western branch of the "Apostolic" (I will tell you the story when you come up) combination. Love us all to Mr and Mrs Ponker when you write and remember me kindly to Colonel Blundgett.

Sincerely yr friend
— W. G. Ewing

I return herewith my last year's Certificate of Moral Character. Somewhat disfigured - is
