Treasury Department,

SECOND COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

Washington, D. C., Oct 23, 1883.

Agm.

J. H. Wilbur. Esq.
Malla Malla. Washington Territory

Sir:

Your cash accounts as Indian Agent, under bond dated Feb 14, 1881, have been examined, leaving an outstanding balance of $ 1236.01. A statement of differences will be furnished you by the Second Auditor.

All explanations and additional evidence you desire to have considered must be filed within ninety days with 2<sup>d</sup> Auditor for, when said accounts are again taken up, they will be settled on the evidence then presented, and whatever balance remains must be refunded without delay. Any additional statements presented as evidence should be under oath.

Very respectfully,

James Delano
Comptroller.
