

PROBE RECALLS OLD SCANDAL

Investigation Started in Senate Committee Brings Up Asser-
tions Concerning Deal

CONGRESS INFLUENCED BY A BRIBERY DEAL

Allegations That the "Hanna Minority Report" Was Brought About and the Fight Made for Panama Route

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The relationship of William Nelson Cromwell to the proceedings through which the United States paid forty million dollars for the French rights to the Panama canal route was discussed by the house committee on foreign affairs today by Henry N. Hall, of the New York World, who charged that Cromwell had influenced congress in 1909 to reject the Nicaraguan route after it was practically selected. Acting for the new Panama Canal Co.
which had acquired the rights of the French builders, Cromwell undertook,
said Hall, to influence the new Walker Commission, then appointed and commit it to the purchase of the Panama property.

Contributes to Campaign
"Cromwell persuaded Senator Hanna," said Hall, to permit him to amend the republican national platform in 1906 in the interest of the Panama route. The words "an isthmian canal" were substituted for words "the Nicaraguan canal" but only after Cromwell had contributed $50,- 000 to the republican national committee of which Hanna was chairman. This sixty thousands Cromwell later charged up to the new Panama Canal Company as a necessary expense."

Hall said that a few months before,
Hanna had been publicly attacked by a representative of the Panama Canal Company as attempting to "interfere with legislation."

Argue for Panama Route
Hanna thereafter, said Hall, took an active part in advocating the Panama route in the senate.

Cromwell, Hall said, prepared the completed draft of the report he wanted made to the senate upon the Panama route and submitted it to Hanna who was a member of the committee that passed on the legislation. Cromwell's draft was corrected, adopted and signed by the minority and became famous as the "Hanna minority report" and was the text book on the Panama side during debates which followed in the senate.
Most formidable and carefully prepared speeches in favor of Panama were made by Senators Hanna, Kittredge, Gallinger, Cullom. Cromwell wrote Hanna's speeches if not in their entirety at least in great part.

Truce in the Tong War
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—The Hop Sing tong and their allied enemies the Sun Sui tong and Hip Sings, tacitly agreed today to a truce in the local tong war to extend over the Chinese New Year.

Where They Turn Down Teddy
DENVER, Feb. 12.—Adherents of Taft overwhelmingly controlled the meeting of the republican state central committee here today, endorsed Taft for renomination by 303 to 10. A proposition to endorse Roosevelt was rejected by the same vote.

COUNTRY'S BUSINESS HAS NOTHING TO FEAR

Woodrow Wilson Says That the Progressives Can Administer
Affairs Safely

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Expressing
an opinion that the country's business had nothing to fear from the application of progressive politics in the administration of public affairs, Governor Woodrow Wilson opened his campaign for the democratic presidential nomination in an address before the Tro-quels club today at the Lincoln's birthday luncheon, where he was a guest at dinner.

"The republican party," he said, "is sadly broken, it has lost its way, apparently it is not bound for an accommodating haven. It has been the business man's party in so many personally conducted campaigns that many believe nobody else knows anything about prosperity.

"America is a business country and business must be taken care of. I believe the ill from which we suffer
can be cured without harm to sound business. I have no feeling of pity about any political doctrine except the one that gives equal rights to all."

FRIENDS FEAR FOR JOHN HAYS HAMMOND, WHO IS IN MEXICO

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Friends of John Hays Hammond are becoming anxious for his safety. Mr. Hammond went into the state of Morelos ten days ago to look after an irrigation project, and nothing has been heard from him in the last few days.
His project is in the heart of the revolutionary district.

NO MORE MIXED MARRIAGES

German Government Forbids Whites and Natives to Marry in Samoa

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—Dr. Solt, new secretary of state for the colonies has made an order forbidding for the future all marriages between whites and the natives of the two Samoan islands belonging to Germany. The children of marriages heretofore legally contracted will be regarded as of white birth but the offspring of other unions customary in islands will be classed among the colored or native population.

The order comes as culmination of a long agitation against the mixed situation now regarded as a danger to the German prestige in the islands and a menace to the future of the colony.

BIG FINE FOR CUDAHY CO.

Packing Company Was Trafficking in Oleomargarine

ATLANTA, Feb. 12.—To sell $4 or $5 worth of oleomargarine a day in Atlanta the Cudahy Packing Co. has laid itself open to a fine of $132,500 according to an indictment returned against the company in the United States court.

This unusual punishment, so the government charges has been invited by petty illegal trafficking that in all could have profited the packers not more than one thousand dollars.

PAPER BAG MEALS PROVING POPULAR

Manager Schroeder of the Yakima
Says He Has Been Serving
Them for Months

Paper bag cookery has met with considerable popularity in North Yakima with the result that two or three of the stores are now carrying the bags in order to meet the demands of customers. Many housewives have been trying that method and they like it for the very finest of the flavors are retained and the articles of food meet with a greater appreciation in consequence.

"Oh yes," said Manager Schroeder of the Yakima Hotel when asked if he had had any paper bag meals served. "We have been setting bag cooking banquets here since last September and have had many parties to sample that kind of food and one and all they have been well pleased.
Some of the parties served have numbered as high as fifteen people. The plan is daily becoming more popular and some of the stores are now carrying the bags. One merchant who has them for sale is very alert in catching on to a new idea when it is suggested to him but when he was first asked about the bags he said, "What are you trying to give us? You had better try it along." He is now keeping a good supply of the bags and hand and finds the housewives are taking them in increasing quantities.

FIFTY-FOUR WILL BE ARRESTED

All Persons are Implicated in the Alleged Dynamite Conspiracy

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 12.—It is reported that 54 persons will be arrested, probably tomorrow in connection with the indictments on the alleged dynamite conspiracy. It is said that no individuals west of Salt Lake not heretofore mentioned in connection with the alleged conspiracy are involved.

DETAILS GIVEN ABOUT LANDS

Public Notice Received From Washington With Regard to the Tieton Acreage

NO WATER FOR THE SOIL
UNTIL CHARGES ARE PAID

Petition Is Forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior Asking That Land Owner May Have Optional Payment

Public notice with reference to the lands under the Tieton unit of the Yakima project, as issued by Secretary of the Interior Fisher will be found, in full, in another column of this paper. Water it is announced, will be furnished for the irrigation season of 1912 for the irrigable lands in the third section in private ownership, including state and railroad lands, for lands heretofore entered and for lands filed upon under preference rights of entry.

Preference right claims are to be filed within thirty days and these entries must be accompanied by water right applications and 160 acres is the maximum limit of area for which water right application may be made for lands in private ownership.

Pay or No Water

The regulations with regard to the water rights are published and the fact is announced as established that no water will be furnished in any year until all operation and maintenance charges levied for that year and for prior years shall have been paid in full. It is announced also that failure to pay any two installments of the charges when due shall render the entries and the corresponding water right applications or the water right applications for any lands subject to cancellation with the forfeiture of all rights and the monies paid.

Must Pay Back Charges

Preference right claimants and other entries made under notices hereafter to be issued call for the payment of $27.90 as the first instalment of the charges for building and it is also announced in connection with lands in private ownership that water right applications filed in 1913
and subsequent years must be accompanied by payment of all installments for building, operation and maintenance, due and unpaid for prior years.
Water right charges all installments for charges against the lands, whether privately owned or not, shall accumulate whether water right application is made therefor or water used thereon.

The amount of water to be furnished shall be until further notice
not to exceed 2.17 acre feet per acre per annum.

Tieton Water Users

Members of the Tieton Water Users association have forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior their petition which was outlined in The Herald a few weeks ago. The petition asks that the land holder under the Tieton have the option of paying the building charge, exclusive of maintenance, as follows: The first four payments at the rate of $2.50 per acre year; the fifth and sixth payments at the rate of $9.30 per acre per annum, and the last four payments in annual instalments of $15.80 each.

FINE TOOL CHESTS FOR SKILL BY BOYS

State Fair Is Offered Two Splendid Prizes for Manual Training Excellence

Two fine tool chests are to be given as prizes at the state fair this fall, one by the Cascade Lumber company and the other by the Valley Hardware company. They are given in the manual training department of the state educational exhibit and one will be for the best workmanship by any boy in the high school manual training departments respectively. The prizes were announced after consultation between the state fair management, the donors and Prof. LeVeconte of the high school manual training department.

It is the intention of the state fair management to greatly strengthen this fall the juvenile department of the educational exhibit and just what appreciation the movement meets with is indicated in the readiness with which leading industries or business houses come to the front and give encouragement. President Kloeber, Secretary Averill and others of the fair have been in conference with State Superintendent Dewey, County
Superintendent Busch, Superintendent Sterling and other educators and the result is the increased interest in the work of the school children which will be manifested in other ways to be announced later.

DEATH TAKES AGED PIONEER

Mrs. Virinda Longmire Was Last
Woman Survivor of First Party to Cross the Naches

HAD LIVED IN STATE
NEARLY SIXTY YEARS

Was Founder of the Largest Family in Washington or Oregon of the Party Settlers in This Section

Mrs. Virinda Longmire, aged 82 years, widow of James Longmire,
died in North Yakima Monday about 4 o'clock p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Talitha Kandle, 113
South Seventh street. Mrs. Longmire
was a member of the first party of white people who ever passed through this valley and was probably the last lady surviving of that original train.
In September and October of 1853
she and her husband, together with 153 others, the wagon train consisting of thirty-five ox wagons, passed through this valley, up through the Wenas and over the Naches to Longmire
Springs in Thurston county where Mrs. Longmire and her husband made their home. Later her son David Longmire returned to this valley and made his home on the property in the Wenas where the party had camped on its way through. He has been a resident here for forty years and one after the other other
years and one after the other, other

Only one fall was required, the Italian being unable to go to the mat for the second bout. The fall was won in 54 minutes and 52 seconds.

MINING EXPERTS ARE MISSING

It Is Believed That They Were Carried to Sea in a Launch

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 12.—Z. Wirt, of Milford, Ills. who introduced the system of shorthand of that name and H. G. Patterson, a mining expert representing the Rothschild interests from London, are missing on the coast of Lower California.
They left here three weeks ago on the sea-going launch Fortuna with Captain Oakley Hall to examine some mining properties near Santa Rosalia.
Ten days ago the launch was reported this side of San Quentin disabled. It was the last heard of her. There has been rough weather and its believed the boat with her crew are carried to sea.

Why Do We Wait

Why do most persons wait until a friend is dead before they load him up with flowers?
When a man is lying sick abed
he would appreciate all those little floral tributes, while he is alive to enjoy them; but what does he care for flowers after the undertaker has got through with him? Verily, we have some abominable customs in this country.

James J. Hill, Who Is Now Before the Committee That Is Making Steel Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—James J.
Hill, the well known railroad owner,
is a witness before the Stanley steel committee this week. Representative A. O. Stanley, chairman of the committee, plans to ask Mr. Hill about the relations between Hill railroads and the United States Steel corporation. He will also be asked about the lease by which the steel corporation acquired possession of the Hill iron ore properties in the northwest.

It is rumored that the name of J.
Pierpont Morgan will figure promi-nently in the examination of Mr. Hill and that the members of the committee will seek to discover whether or not Mr. Morgan got a big commission for negotiating the ore land lease.

MANCHU DYNASTY CLOSES ITS REIGN

The Throne Has Abdicated in China and the Republic Will Be Established on Ruins

PEKING, Feb. 12.—After occupying the throne of China for nearly three centuries the Manchu dynasty represented by the child emperor Pu Yi added today. The Peking authorities are taking military precautions but there has been no disorders at the capital. It is expected, however, disorders will occur in the interior.
The imperial army after sacking Su Chow Fu have for the most part dispersed laden with loot carrying off their arms and ammunition. The United States cruiser Cincinnati has gone from Shanghai to Ten Chow Fu at the request of American missionaries who fear depredation by the republicans. The legations consider the first phase of the revolution to have been concluded, but they fear the second may prove more disastrous. The legations will deal unofficially with the republican government until it is recognized.

NEW INVESTIGATION IS NOW PROPOSED FOR ALLEGED MONEY TRUST

Joint Committee of Both House and Senate Now Contemplated

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The proposed congressional investigation of the "money trust" received an unlooked for impetus today when Senator Kenyon, a progressive republican and Senator Lea, a progressive democrat, joined in the framing of a proposal for an investigation by a committee of six to be drawn from both houses.
This is expected to be introduced in the house.

With the house investigation well on its way to the banking and currency committee the house rules committee got together today to discuss a procedure for the banking and currency committee.

Demented Man Packs Dynamite

NEWARK, Feb. 12.—William Meyers, who is believed to be demented was arrested after the president visited here tonight. He boasted that the boxes he carried contained dynamite.
The police found the boxes contained two dry cell batteries and many envelopes.

Knox Leaves on Trip

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Secretary
Knox left tonight for Palm Beach where next week he will embark on the cruiser Washington to begin his diplomatic visit to Central America, South America and the West Indies.

LINCOLN DAY CELEBRATION

Birthday of Great President Honored by Big Reunion of Illinois Club

TRIBUTES PAID TO GREAT MENT OF STATE

Lincoln, Grant, and Oglesby Eulogized by Former Residents of the Sucker State, and General Good Time Enjoyed by All

"And here's a hand, my trusty friend,
"And gie's a hand o' thine;
"We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
"For auld lang syne."

Never before in the history of the Yakima County Illinois club was there such a turnout of former residents of the Prairie State as came together Monday night at the Young Men's Christian Association, the event being the fifth annual reunion of that organization. They filled the auditorium and flowed out into the hall and adjoining rooms, and notwithstanding the crowd there was the utmost good humor, which was somewhat tested by the long wait in getting refreshments to everybody.

A splendid cafeteria supper was served and it took two hours to get the last dish out of the way, but this was not the fault of the ladies of the Congregational church who served the repast and who had orders to prepare for a less number. Days in advance double postal cards were sent to the address of every former Illinoisian known to be living in the vicinity of North Yakima, with instructions to everybody to let the committee know by return card if they were coming.
Less than one hundred and fifty of these returns were received by the committee, but the ladies prepared refreshments for more than two hundred and had to send out even then for more victuals to fill up the three-hundred table.

The supper a success and said the same of the program, which followed and kept the audience in the building until nearly the last car. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: C. E. Uell, president; Mrs.
Alfred Henry, vice-president; L. B.
Kelley, secretary and treasurer; Mrs.
E. B. Moore, Mr. Conant and Mrs. C.
A. Davis, members of the executive committee.

Plenty of Music

There was plenty of music, much of it being such that everybody could join in, and when given an opportunity they did so with a will, showing that the people of Illinois were rated good singers in addition to all their other accomplishments. President M. N. Richards called the assemblage to order from a stage decorated with flags and palms and all joined in the well known song, "Illinois, Illinois," by C. H. Chamberlain. Miss Gertrude Miller, pleasantly rendered the solo, "Yakima Apples," adapted from the Chimes of Normandy, in which she took part. The accompaniment was by Curtis Gilbert on the violin and Miss Florence Miller on the piano.

The first address was by Mrs. Nona Marquis Snyder, who spoke of the

HILL TELLS COMMITTEE OF LAKE SUPERIOR DEAL

Bought Properties for $4,000,000
That Have Ore Bodies Worth
More Than $500,000,000

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—James J.
Hill, chairman of the board of Great Northern told the Stanley Steel Trust investigating committee today how he bought properties for more than four million dollars, turned them over for that amount to the Lake Superior company, Limited, as trustee for the railroad stockholders and presented the stockholders with pro rata certificates for the increased value of the property which accumulated rapidly and amounted to millions.

The railroad magnate was questioned at length regarding the lease these ore lands to the United States Steel Corporation for development a lease which the corporation recently decided to cancel January 1, 1915. In this land there is estimated to about 500,- 000,000 tons of ore of which the steel corporation values at $1 a ton. Hill said he would not take one dollar a ton for the ore. The corporation worked mines on royalty basis.

Entertain Governor and Mrs. Hay
Governor Marion E. Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Adjutant and Mrs. Fred Llewellyn will be guests of honor at a dinner given tomorrow evening by the officers of companies E and C of the Washington National Guard at the Yakima grill.
Besides the guests of honor there will be present Captain L. O. Meigs, regimental commissary, and Mrs. Meigs; Captain L. L. Bolles of Company E and Mrs. Bolles; Captain Robert N. Denham of Company C and Mrs. Denham; First Lieutenant Robert Webster of Company C and Mrs. Webster; First Lieutenant L. M. Hatfield; Second Lieutenant E. A. Cleman of Company C and Mrs. Cleman and Second Lieutenant F. E. Barbour of Company E and Mrs. Barbour.

New Home Dedicated
B. F. Snyder and wife have erected a beautiful and spacious home on their ranch on the hillside a little beyond the terminus of the Fruitvale street car line. Sunday afternoon a happy company of their friends assembled there, and Reverend Thomas E. Webb presented an improvised dedicatory ritual and prayer, consecrating the place as a Christian home to be occupied by a Christian family, in harmony with the will of the recognized Giver. Reverend W. H. Sellack made a consecratory and congratulatory address. Some 25 were present to enjoy the occasion and to congratulate the host and hostess on their acquisition of so splendid a home all complete. This seems to be a new departure and one to be commended as altogether fitting for all Christians on entering a new home.

Fraternal Meetings Tuesday
Fraternal Order of Eagles—Aerie No. 289, meets in Eagles' Hall.
Independent Order of Odd Fellows—Yakima Lodge No. 22, meets in I. O. O. F. hall.

Art Class to Organize
It is desired to organize a class in china painting at the Y. W. C. A. this afternoon, for the spring term, and any who care to take up the work should be at the association rooms at 1 p. m. If a sufficient number desire instruction in water colors a class will be organized in that branch of art. Miss Mary Remy will have charge of these classes.

Health Committee Meeting
At a meeting of the health committee which is composed of three delegates from each of the women's clubs of the city, held Saturday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, it was decided to hold an open meeting in the near future at which subjects of sanitation will be discussed and it is hoped to have prominent speakers present to take part. The committee will urge the use of Effner fly traps this summer.

Civic Educational Union
The Civic Educational Union will hold a meeting Thursday evening at the high school auditorium. It was through the efforts of this society that Governor Hay was induced to come to our city this week, and at this meeting he is to lecture. Mayor Spilman, Ex-Senator Meigs and H. M. Gilbert will speak and Mrs. C. G. Plummer has consented to sing "The Flag Without a Stain." The club extends a cordial invitation to all to attend the meeting and remain to shake hands with the governor at the conclusion of the program.

Mr. Boyle Goes to Los Angeles
Mrs. J. G. Boyle and her two young sons leave the city in a few days for an extended visit in Southern California. Mrs. Boyle has been a resident of this city for many years and has always been prominent in church, musical and club circles, and will be greatly missed. She is a charter member of the Ladies Musical club and the Womans' club and is at present an active member of both, and is a member of the program committee of the first named club. While in the south Mrs. Boyle will spend the time in Los Angeles, where her sister Mrs. Mrs. Mackison resides and in Pasadena where two of her daughters are living at present.

A Complete Surprise
A complete surprise was that given by forty-five of Mrs. F. B. Shallow's friends Friday evening of last week with well laden baskets they came in a crowd to her home to celebrate with her her birthday. When they arrived the members of the Shallow household were enjoying a quiet game of bridge, which they interrupted by ringing the door bell, which the hostess answered, expecting to find at the threshold a neighbor, but instead, half a hundred happy faces awaited a hospitable greeting which, upon sufficient recovery of the hostess, they received.

The evening was spent at ten high tables and the prize of the evening was captured by Mr. Clyde Wright. Mrs. Shallow was presented with a very handsome hand painted china violet bowl.

At the conclusion of the games an elegant luncheon, from the baskets brought by the guests was served by the Mesdames Metzger, McGee and Barber.

Golden Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherman of Garfield, Washington, who are spending the winter in this city with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hanks, of the Monterey apartments celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday afternoon surrounded by all their children except one. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman were married in Galesburg, Ill., on February 6, 1862 but the celebration was postponed until yesterday that the children might be present.

Reverend H. P. James who had officiated at the marriage of one of their daughters' weddings officiated at the wedding of this fifty-year happy couple in rooms decorated in pink and white carnations. Dr. H. A. Drechsler played the wedding march. The happy bride is almost 69 and the proud groom is 72 years of age, and both are enjoying excellent health.

At the wedding dinner were seated Mrs. Fred Hudson and son of Hatton, Wash.; Mrs. A. P. Johnson of Garfield, Wash.; Mrs. N. A. Roberts and Mrs. A. M. Hathaway of Spokane; Carl Sherman of Harris, Ia., the oldest son; Clarence Sherman of Newport, Wash.; Harry Sherman of Spokane, and Chester Sherman of Hatton, Wash.; Reverend and Mrs. H. P. James and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hanks of this city. Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Hanks are sisters.

The table on which the elaborate meal was served was decorated in yellow daffodils. The wedding cake occupied a prominent place on the table also.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in the pleasures of conversation.

Good Riddance to Knockers
Do you know what we think is the best story in the bible? It may surprise you, but 'tis that one about Noah and the flood, says an exchange. We say this even in the face of educated folks who turn up their noses and declare the flood story is a fake. You remember that Noah had to work a long time on the ark. It was uphill business, too, at best, to go on sweating and toiling day after day under the hot sun, out there on dry land, while the hammer and anvil club sat spitting tobacco juice on his boards, whittling up his soft pine with old jack-knives and telling him what a fool he was to expect a big rain in a country that was too dry to grow alfalfa. But he kept at it; finally the flood came and every mother's son of the croakers was drowned. This is the only instance we know of either in sacred or profane history where the knocker got exactly what was coming to him.

THE INWARDNESS OF PILES

MY LADY GLEAMS AND GLITTERS IN HER NEW COSTUMES

Though touches of gold and silver are kept rather subdued in tone by veillings of chiffon, or by a tarnished finish that is extremely fashionable, diamante embroideries and trimmings, and beaded effects make the new gowns very brilliant. This gown of sea green chiffon over white satin is embroidered with rhinestones and pearl beads, and the muff, cravat and small hat which accompany it for restaurant wear, are of gold tissue braided with sea green and gold cord, and trimmed with skunk fur. Gold lace and gold tassels add extra richness to the hat. These huge restaurant muffs are effective—and an affectation. With them long silk gloves are worn, these gloves being of pale green silk embroidered in self color to match the frock.

tion and music. Among the musical numbers were solos by Dr. Hunstein and Mr. Rae Harkness of the Majestic theatre.

Mrs. Ira Cardiff of Topeka, Kansas, the only member of the family not present, will have sent to her a piece of the wedding cake and some of the decorations used.

O. E. S. Social Evening
The young lady members of the Eastern Star entertained in their chapter rooms in the Masonic temple. The program was composed of several unique numbers suggestive of either St. Valentine's Day or of leap year. Each of them very amusing. A farce was also given and Miss Knerr rendered several instrumental numbers. At a 10 o'clock hour the jolly evening was concluded with the serving of light refreshments.

NO INDIGESTION OR SICK, UPSET STOMACH

Diapiesin Stops Fermentation
and Ends Worst Case of Dyspepsia in Five Minutes

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pope's Diapiesin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas or eruptions of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pope's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take gas from stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapiesin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all stomach misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapiesin. Tell your druggist that you want Pope's Diapiesin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

S.S.S. BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

S. S. S. is the best treatment for Catarrh because it is a perfect blood purifier. It is the only medicine that is able to get down into the circulation and entirely remove the catarrhal matter and impurities which produce the trouble. As long as the mucous membranes and tissues are kept inflamed and irritated by this impure and infected condition of the blood Catarrh will remain. Its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, of ringing noises in the ears, mucus dropping back into the throat, headaches, watery eyes, difficult breathing, and even stomach disorders and weakened health, cannot be permanently relieved until the blood is purified. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It goes down to the very root of the trouble, and removes every particle of the catarrhal matter from the blood and enriches this vital fluid so that all the mucous surfaces are supplied with nutritive, healthful qualities, instead of being constantly irritated and inflamed by impurities in the circulation. Then the symptoms begin to pass away and when S. S. S. has entirely purified the blood, Catarrh is permanently cured and the general health greatly built up. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

How Old Was Ann?
This is a popular puzzle over the state just now, says an exchange. A banker going home to dinner saw a $10 bill on the curbstone. He picked it up, noticed the number and went home to dinner. While at dinner his wife remarked that the butcher had sent a bill amounting to $10. The only money he had was the bill he had found, which he gave her and she paid the butcher. The butcher paid it to a farmer for a calf, the farmer to the merchant, who paid it to a washer, and she, owing the banker a note for $10, went to the bank and paid the note. The banker recognized the bill as the one he had found, and which had paid $50 worth of debts. On careful examination he found the bill to be counterfeit. Now what was lost in the transaction and by whom?

GROWING APPRECIATION FOR LINCOLN

The nation has observed with fitting memorials and ceremonies another anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. No one of the national heroes has a place in the hearts of the whole people so much as the Martyred President. It is a noticeable thing that he is growing year by year in the appreciation of the people. He has already come to that place where more than any other he holds first place in the hearts of the common people, the great common people whom Lincoln said the Lord most love because he made so many of them.

Lincoln was pre-eminently the man of the people. He sprang from the soil so near to nature's heart and grew from youth to manhood in the borderland of civilization. He absorbed at first hand the elements of the pioneer that was engaged in the conquest of a continent. It was bone of his bone, flesh of his flesh, spirit of his spirit. He grew up with the bone and sinew of the typical American and he has been fittingly called the "First Great American."

But the appreciation of Lincoln is not confined to any one class of his fellow citizens nor is it bounded to national lines. He is a world figure and worthy of a niche in the National Hall of Fame. Men of all classes and conditions vie with each other in honoring his name not only in this, his native land, but everywhere that our history is known and its great men venerated. Lincoln as a national figure looms larger and larger on the national horizon. Men of his own times were willing to give him the credit that he modestly denied himself, and Lincoln, a martyred hero, is still growing and stands today pre-eminently before the people. No man is more dear to the national heart and no man more nearly represents the idealism of the "Great American."

There is a significant fact in the announcement that the horse market is the best known in many years. Dealers are reported to be scouring the country for draft horses of the better type. This is an encouraging note from the breeders standpoint and pointers in other lines of livestock show that there is a revival of demand along all lines for stock of the improved type. The stock breeders of the Pacific northwest have never had a brighter outlook than is now presented by the increased market demand for the stock they are producing. It is an encouragement for the building up of a business that has an assured future for those engaged in it promising ample returns for those who use judgment and produce animals of a superior type.

The St. Louis school board has arranged for surgical operation at the expense of the district to remove adenoids from the throats of all the afflicted children. Other schools have arranged for medical examinations for the teeth, eyes and ears and for treatment when the children are found defective. The question of what the state owes the child in the matter of educating him to become an American citizen to make the fullest use of his powers and capabilities is becoming more and more a serious question and broadening its scope as time progresses.

If the easterners who are planning to join the colonist movement this spring could only get fixed in their minds the contrast their zero weather would make with a Yakima valley's balmy days they would never buy return tickets but come without looking backward.

You doubtless know that it was a "Jim Crow" decision that caused Judge Hook to get the hook. You cannot be too careful in making decisions.

PROPOSED COUNTY DIVISION

Some of the papers in the southern end of the county has renewed the agitation for a division of Yakima county and it is to be presumed that the matter in one form or another will be brought before the people from now until election time and made an issue before the legislature. As far as North Yakima and the residents of the northern end of the county are concerned it does not seem that there will be any serious objection to division which is one of those inevitable things certain to come where a county is growing populous and prosperous. The only point at issue is whether or not this is an opportune time for the division. The residents of the lower end of the county should take into consideration that they are not escaping any of the burdens when they propose division and that they are adding to them largely in the financing of a new county. They must assume their proportionate share of the bonded indebtedness of the present county and take on the additional burden of supporting the new county government.

Conceding that there are some advantages in launching a new county in the way of nearness to the county seat and better facilities for reaching it, if such conditions would be met by the proposed change, there is still a question whether or not the advantages to be gained are worth the additional expenditures that would be necessary if the new county is created. The whole question as the Herald views it is merely a matter of expediency for the residents of the southern end of the county to decide. While the residents in this end of the county are loth to see them go there will be no serious objection and certainly no attempt to fight the proposition coming from this part of the county.

China has joined the sisterhood of republics. The unexpected has happened. Precedents and tradition have been swept away and the form of government for over 400,000,000 people changed from the worst of despotisms to a republic. It will be better to say that it has turned from despotism and is facing toward individual freedom for it is hardly to be expected that highest good will be attained without a struggle. The individual in China has depressed and suppressed for centuries but he will have an opportunity and a future. It will be worth something to the rest of the civilized world to see how rapidly will be the rise of the individual.

Bryan has been insistent that the democratic party should begin a probe of the money trust and a recent utterance of his may give the reason for his persistency. He says, "Wall street caused the democratic party to lose a million and a quarter votes by running the democratic convention in 1904." But confine the trouble of 1904, the democratic party has been several millions shy of having enough votes ever since Cleveland was last elected. Has Wall street been running the democratic party all that time?

The Chicago wife that managed the household expenses for a family of five so that her husband's income of $10 a week supported them frugally and left $2 per week for building and loan association for a period of 6 1/2 years ought to be in demand as a lecturer and demonstrator for any one of a hundred societies that are organized to discover ways and means for reducing the high cost of living.

A political forecast says that Taft will win the nomination on the first ballot. This is cold comfort to the men who are figuring to be listed with the "also rans." But then the place where a political prophet is recognized is yet to be found. It is not in his own country of any other country at least until after election.

Ex-Governor Joseph Folk has given Champ Clark the Missouri delegation but asks the speaker to show him what he is going to do with it now that he has got it, and it does look as if Champ had more of a problem on his hands than he had in explaining his Canadian annexation speech.

A woman prisoner in the Walla Walla jail attempted suicide with a towel and was not successful. If it had been a printing office towel there would be no question about the fatality.

The woman author and lecturer who was eloquent on the subject of the "Family Beautiful" has recently filed a suit for a divorce. The "Family Beautiful" will now be a house divided against itself.

They have put "The Middleman" on the stage and it is a fine drawing card. Of course the villain is in the title roll and the audiences are pleased in seeing him get his just deserts.

CURRENT PRESS COMMENT

Knox to Germany

Secretary Knox writes a diplomatic note to the German Ambassador which, in essentials, is a note to six other leading powers concerning their international duty toward China. The high import of that note seems to run to this effect, namely, that the United States takes the initiative of a "hands off" policy, so far as China is concerned. We are to consider the moral effect of this note as a crystallizing of diplomatic action which will hold in check acquisitive ambition in the Orient.

Russia is one of the powers to join in the agreement which the American note invites. From recent reports and occurrences we are apt to judge of Russia's heartiness of participation with scant charity. There may be the suspicion also that Japan might have been pleased with a more free-for-all arrangement than the American initiative seeks to bring about.

There is much to lead the layman in diplomacy to believe that these overtures respecting the safeguarding of Chinese interests, as instituted by the American Secretary of State, will be morally effective to the prevention of ugly entanglements. It denotes that the United States is a world power in the highest meaning of that term.

The Game of Politics

The average politician is afraid of his shadow. If he talks loud and vigorously, it is in the direction in which he thinks the crowd is running. Then some people say he is a brave man. The newspapers make cowards out of the politicians. They praise them when they do not deserve it. All goes as a matter of whim. There would seem to be room at the present time for a little more candor from the politician. There would seem to be room for a little less trucking. But, after all, it is a great game!—Des Moines Capital.

Lincoln's Memorial

While the authorities are wrangling over the question what and where the Lincoln memorial shall be, Lincoln goes without his memorial. But somehow the various projects, and the unworthiness of the controversy over them, suggest the reflection that Lincoln already has his monument, and that bricks and stones and bronze piled up to his name are a mere impertinence. It does not add to the sun's splendor to hold an electric light against it.—New York Mail.

Greatest Fake of All Ages

Shakespeare wrote Shakespeare. But let the Baconians rave. The obscure person who started the Baconian theory set going the greatest joke of the ages, and we may well believe that the spirit of this unrivaled humorist is so convulsed with laughter at the fools that follow after that her wings are featherless.—Knickerbocker Press.

IN THE ORCHESTRA

Why heed the neighbor's bray
Of cornet or trombone?
No matter what you play
Your bit of score's your's own.

For every player yields
Some movement at the glance
Of Time, who wisely yields
The baton some call chance.

Each he commands afresh—
The stars, the tides, the flowers,
The womb of earth and flesh,
The music of the hours,

And vast as is Time's dream
His humblest instrument
In some so-little theme
A humble place is lent.

Triangle? Is that all?
No matter! Watch old Time,
And at his baton's fall—
In with your little chime!

And lost although it seems Mid harmonies that float,
No doubt the maestro schemes
Perfection from that note!

DEDICATE DEVICE TO PUBLIC

Appliance That Safeguards Operations in the Thorax
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Dedicated to the public are the patents which have just been issued to Dr. Willy Meyer and Dr. Julius Meyer of this city, for one of the most valuable appliances in modern surgery.

It is a cabinet in which surgeons and patient may be when an operation is performed on organs of the thorax. The progress of surgery of the abdominal cavity in recent years has been remarkable. No so much headway has been made in operations in the chest cavity, because of the constant danger of the lungs of the patient collapsing under the ordinary pressure of the atmosphere, which is 14 pounds to the square inch. The dangerous or fatal consequences of thoracic operations conducted under ordinary conditions are obviated by this new apparatus, which has been used at several hospitals in this city. This invention consists of a device for producing, maintaining and regulating different air pressures in air-tight chambers. It is further improved by constructing separate air-tight chambers, in one of which will be the head of the patient and in the other the body. He then thus breathe easily while under the influence of the anesthetic, while his exposed lungs are surrounded by air condensed or rarified as the circumstances warrant. It is set forth in the papers that the Meyer apparatus overcomes all the difficulties of the thoracic operations. Before the patent was granted an instrument was filed in the patent office in which the inventors transferred all their rights to the public.

This appliance is one which will greatly increase the chances of life of persons who may have to undergo dangerous thoracic operations. Physicians are not in the habit of patenting appliances for ethical reasons. The Scientific American compares this action of the inventors with that of the Diamond Match company, which made public its formula for the manufacture of matches without the use of phosphorus. The periodical raises the question as to whether or not the government is justified in accepting fees from public spirited citizens who place their inventions at the disposition of their fellow men without cost.

BABY SIX FEET TALL

He is a Giraffe and the Second Born in Captivity in United States
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Feb. 12.—Bridgeport's population was increased by the arrival of a baby. That happens quite often, but not such a baby as this—six feet tall and weighing 100 pounds. He is a giraffe, and his advent at the Barnum circus winter quarters caused a furore in the animal world.

Mary is the name of his proud mother and Tom the father. Mary and Tom have one other offspring, Bambrino, born Jan. 16, 1910. Bambrino is now with the Ringling circus and is the first giraffe born in captivity in America and the second in the world.

REAL WINTER

That the backbone of winter is often decried by people who huddle around the fireside; whenever old Boreas kicks up his heels they send up a package of lachrymose spiels and sigh for a country where snow isn't found, where roses and lilies will bloom the year round. But I love a country with all kinds of snows, where winter has whiskers clear down to his toes, where blizzards cavort and the icicles cling all over your features till thawed in the spring. For cold is a tonic that braces you up and makes you as gay as an unlicensed pup; it fills you with ardor to do hefty things; the heathy man likes it and dances and sings. A wind whooping down from the white Greenland hills is better than any one's cottonwood pills, while langorous zephyrs will fill you with bile and make it hard labor to burble and smile. There's energy, health and solace in cold! The backbone of winter is better than gold!

YAKIMA HARDWARE CO.

Incubators That Hatch

Have you seen the mechanism by which the moisture is taken into a Petaluma Incubator?

It is novel and sure.

The water pan is situated just above the lamp, the moisture and the heated air mixing at that point and circulating with the air. You are sure of obtaining just as much or as little moisture as you wish. This is very important at hatching time. We can furnish Incubators and Brooders that will do the work.

NURSERY STOCK SOLD TO EXPERT VISITOR

Former Instructor in Horticulture at Leading Institution Comes to Yakima for His Trees

A. G. Craig of Deer Park, near Spokane, was a visitor in North Yakima Monday but left last evening to return to his home. He purchased while in this valley a carload of nursery stock from the Washington Nursery company and a carload from the Northwest company. This makes the fourth carload he has purchased here as last year he took two carloads from the Washington Nursery company. Mr. Craig, who was an instructor in horticulture at one time in the University of Michigan and later with the State college at Pullman in this state, is now horticulturist in charge of the acreage of the Arcadia Orchard company of Deer Park.

Planting Large Acreage

The Arcadia Orchard Company is planting trees at the rate of 250,000 per year and at the close of this season's plantings will have 6,400 acres set to fruit, the bulk of the plantings being Rome Beauty, Jonathan and Wagener. Mr. Craig is an expert on potatoes and tomatoes and has been carrying along a number of garden and field experiments to determine suitable crops to occupy the ground while the trees are young and until the ground is completely shaded. He comes to the Yakima valley at least once a year and has each year for several seasons past and is much interested in the development of this country. The Yakima valley, when the farmers who are here, get down to making the best use of the conditions instead of doing what cannot be well done here, will be a great valley according to Mr. Craig.

Met Former Students

Mr. Craig while here was the guest of T. O. Morrison, deputy horticultural commissioner, who was one of his students at Pullman. Another of his former students whom he met here was B. B. Pratt of Washington, D. C., now in charge of the pre-cooling experiments, whom he taught at Ann Arbor.

Mr. Craig while here was looking at potatoes as he proposes to plant three hundred acres to that crop this spring.

WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS

In Real Estate, Loans and Insurance

We have been in the real estate business for only one year, although most members of our company have lived here five years. In the past year our business has showed a steady gain every month. The month of January showed a business better than twice that of any month of 1911—and February will show even better yet.

We Are Not Surprised at the Increase

As we transact our business in a way that can't help but please you. WE WILL ADVERTISE ONLY GOOD VALUES AND BARGAINS.

Now We Want Your Support

And in time we will get it. We will prove to you that we are entitled to your business—and when we do we want it.

We Make a Business of Renting Houses

More than 20 rented last week. If you have a house to rent let us rent it for you. If you want to rent a home see us. Our charge for renting is very low, so don't let your place stand idle. If you expect to be away this next summer we will look after your place for you and do it right.

References furnished if desired.

Do You Own City Property

that you would like to exchange for ranch property—or do you own ranch property that you would like to exchange for city property? Let us know your wants in this line and we can help you.

Fires! Fires! Fires!

Did you ever have one? We hope you never did and also hope you never will—but, you never can tell. Some of the best protected buildings in the city have burned to the ground. You may be the next. Insurance costs very little for the protection it gives you. We will give sixty days time on payment for any fire insurance you may wish to take out. We want your business in this line and have three strong fire insurance companies with which we can take care of your needs.

What Do You Know About This?

A man was in our office yesterday who wanted to sell his property and move away, as he knew values were too high, etc., and—well, he was simply a knocker for fair. Ten to 1 that man will die young and will never have the money again that he has now. Be a booster—it will pay you.

$500 Cash

and balance to suit—$15 to $25 per month—will give you the possession of a 5-room house on Roosevelt Ave., only about three lots from the North 6th Ave. car line. House and two lots—we own and therefore no commissions to pay. All we care for is interest on the investment. Price $2000 for house and two lots.

Here Is a Bargain

in a 5-room house and 1/2 acre on South Eighth St., just a little way off Yakima avenue; bearing fruit trees on place. The owner has to leave Yakima March 1, and while he has been holding his place at $3500 he has instructed us to sell at $2775—$1575 cash and assume $1200 mortgage. This place, we feel sure, is being sold from $500 to $700 less than the owner paid. Remember it must be March 1.

We can use one or two more good honest, sober salesmen to help in our business. Will pay part cash salary and commission. References required.

MISTAKE MADE BY FARMERS

Former State College Professor Believes That Price of Potatoes Will Drop

APPLES ARE LOADED OUT FOR SOUND CUSTOMERS

Arrivals of California Beef in Portland Have Put the Prices Down in This Field a Point or Two

"These farmers are making a mistake, I fear, in holding on to their potatoes the way they are. Unless they unload in a short time they will unload at a loss. At least that is the way I have figured out. I have been making some inquiries in an effort to purchase seed stock and I find none of them willing to sell. I find also that the farmers have been out buying from neighbors and that they are holding a large aggregate of potatoes. I do not speak with reference to the Yakima valley merely but of other sections of the state as well. Now I will admit that I have not studied the market this year. Every year except this for the past six or seven I have studied it closely. This year I did not have the time but in a general way I think that the farmer is making a mistake this year by the manner in which he is holding."

Opinion of An Expert
The foregoing is the expression of opinion of Prof. A. G. Craig, formerly of the Washington State college and who this year proposes to plant three hundred acres to potatoes at Deer Park near Spokane. The price paid for spuds right now is slightly above what the market justifies but is due to the fact that the roads have been bad and teaming has been difficult. A carload of apples was loaded out from Yakima Saturday by the Pacific Fruit & Produce company, which expects to get out another carload this week, both for the west side. The same company received Monday a carload of cabbage from the Sound for consumption in this valley. There has been a slight advance in onions, some buyers paying $23 or thereabouts. Many of the Yakima onions are frosted, however, and the price paid the grower is less because of that fact, the market therefore being limited.

Lemons Are Advancing
Lemons are advancing, because of the cold weather and while the retail price has not as yet been affected the fact is that the aggregate of the advances of the past ten days has added another dollar to the cost per crate. Eggs are retreating towards a lower figure and are now retailing at 35 cents, the local supply being considerably heavier than it has been.

There is a slight downward tendency in meats, cattle in particular. There have been heavy shipments from California to Portland which have come north this year a month or so in advance of the time they usually arrive. This fact has reacted on the price here. There has been a slight decrease in hams and bacon.

General Report
The general market is as follows:
Kalspell-hard wheat flour, sack $1.65
Dutch mill, sack $1.25
Yakima Best flour, per sack $1.30
Prosser flour, per sack $1.35

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play and when it sulks drowsily or cries you may depend on it something physical is the matter. If you see no evidences of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

tiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning. After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

All classes of good American people keep it in the home for ills of the stomach, liver and bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Mrs. G. A. Bates, 246 E. 6th St., Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. T. E. Hickman, Tennant, Colo. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of the remedy before buying it in the regular way or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Soft Molasses Cookies

(Recipe by Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln)
The children—and the grown-ups, too—will enjoy these cookies. Try some next baking day.

Scaled one cup molasses, pour it over one-fourth cup Cottole, add one-half cup sugar, one-half level teaspoon salt, and one level tablespoon ginger, or a mixture of other spices if preferred. Dissolve one-half level teaspoon soda in one-fourth cup cold water, add to the cooled molasses, then stir in from three to four cups flour, making a soft dough to drop and spread in a pan, or a stiff dough to be rolled and cut. Bake in moderate oven.

The use of Cottole as a shortening insures cooking that is both palatable and easy to digest.

PROF. JOS. K. HART OF STATE UNIVERSITY TALKS ON MOVEMENT

The Christian church was made the headquarters for the Men and Religion Forward Movement, where Joseph K. Hart of the University of Washington talked on the Bible and the needs of a better understanding of it. He said in part that "the Bible was not written by professional religious teachers but by men who lived what they wrote and wrote what they lived; they lived and preached justice between man and man, the same problem that still confronts us."

"The strove for the chance to live and enjoy the privilege which they knew were theirs by right, but which through greed and misrule had been kept from them and humanity as a whole."

"The only religion that ever had a place in the world or has now, is the one that solves the problems that stand in the way of a better life; it is the one which makes it possible for men and women, boys and girls to live better lives."

This is the work of the Men and Religion Forward Movement to rally all force for good to accomplish the same results that the world has always been working for.

A Warning Against Wet Feet
Wet and chilled feet usually affect the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs, and la grippe, bronchitis and pneumonia may result. Watch carefully, particularly the children, and for the racking stubborn cough give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It soothes the inflamed membranes, and heals the cough quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Swagel, Kroh, Wis., says: "I always give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to my children. It cures their coughs and colds and they like to take it." North Yakima Drug Store.

Notable Women of Illinois. She mentioned Frances Willard as standing at the head of the long list of notables and Jane Addams among the list of those called to the minds of their former friends.

Written for Occasion
A song specially written for the occasion by Marion Richey Gilbert, entitled, "Illinois and Washington," was then sung to the tune of "Nancy Lee" by the assemblage. Mr. Gilbert leading with his strong voice. The words are as follows:

Of all the states where corn does grow,
'Tis so, you know, you know 'tis so,
Old Illinois is the best we know,
'Tis so, you know, 'tis so.

From Chicago to Cairo, where'er you go
They plant the corn, they plow the corn,
They husk the corn, they eat the corn,
They drink Old Crow,
'Tis so, you know, 'tis so.

Chorus—
Old home, old home, the state still dear to me,
The home so full of memory;
Old home, old home, the state still dear to me.

In Washington we think of thee.
But when the life at home is done,
'Tis so, you know, you know 'tis so,
The place to come is Washington,
'Tis so, you know, 'tis so.

The great Northwest presents the best to man and maid
To those who work, who will not shirk nor be afraid,
There's health and wealth, love and success to the undismayed,
'Tis so, you know, 'tis so.

Chorus—
The West, the West, the glorious West for me,
The land of Opportunity;
The West, the West, the glorious West for me,
The promised land by the sunset sea.

First Chorus—
Old home, old home, the state still dear to me,
The home so full of memory;
Old home, old home, the state still dear to me.

In Washington we think of thee.
The whistling solo by Miss Griffin, who accompanied herself on the piano, was encored and then the president introduced former Congressman Charles McGavin, of Chicago, who has made his home in North Yakima and is practicing law here.

Oglesby was the subject of Mr. McGavin's address, which he opened with a tribute to Illinois and its human products. He told of the political attainments of Richard Oglesby, who was elected governor of Illinois three times and who served in the United States senate; who entered the army at the lowest rank and came out a brigadier general at the close of his service in the civil war. He said, in part:

"When one reads of the lives of Lincoln and Oglesby he is instantly struck by the personal characteristics so common to each. Both alike were as pleasing in manner as they were simple in their tastes. Both natures abounded in subtle humor and sympathetic thought. Like all great men, they lived the lives of the people, and made the people's interests their own. In personal appearance they were the antithesis of each other—one tall, gaunt and ungainly—the other stout, florid, handsome and graceful. Both were men of moods. At times their spirits were buoyant, and their smiles and laughter contagious, and again, their faces were as sad as sullied innocence, and their voices as melancholy as the tolling of a funeral knell. Both had the keenest sense of humor, yet their eyes were quickly moistened at the sight of distress. Both having lived in the same day and age, the older naturally shed an influence on the other. The great Emancipator once said to young Oglesby: "Dick, remember to keep close to the people, they are always right and will never mislead you." Oglesby followed that advice to the end of his days.

"The life of Oglesby like that of Lincoln and other great men of the country, was one of privation and hardship, a continuous struggle against seemingly insurmountable obstacles, and yet, few men have reached a higher plane in point of political honors, or a more lasting place in the affection of their fellows."

Sidelights on Grant
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spinner rendered two duets and were then followed by Rev. Granville Ross Pike, who gave some sidelights on "Grant as a Humorist." He spoke of this side of the grim soldier's character so little appreciated by the general public. This was a side, the speaker said, that Grant's biographers failed to make much if any mention of; but those associated with him during the war and later as president saw it crop out in numerous ways. Among the numerous instances mentioned was one out at Vancouver, Washington, where Grant had been as a subaltern in the early days. It was on his return from the notable trip around the world when he was approaching his old post, which was then commanded by General O. O. Howard, well known for his Christian uprightness and temperance principles. Observing a large building on the outskirts of Vancouver, General Grant asked General Howard what it was. He was informed that it was a brewery. Turning to his wife, General Grant said: "Julia, that must have been built for General Howard, for it wasn't there when I was serving here." And another time, just previous, when their boat was approaching Portland, where great crowds were on hand to greet him, the general said to Mrs. Grant: "Julia, you must be the cause of this crowd, for when I was here there were only three or four people living in Portland."

The Heart of Lincoln
A piano solo by Miss Gertrude Miller was enjoyed when all joined in singing, "Here's to Illinois," written by Marion Richey Gilbert. W. G. McMoran then read a paper the subject of which was "The Heart of Lincoln," a tribute to the man in all his greatness. Following the singing of "The Flag Without a Stain," by Mrs. Anna Colburn-Plummer, a veritable love feast followed. Mrs. Henry Rossiter and Mrs. Gilbert led in the singing of "The Home Land," written by the former and sung to the air of "Clementine." Between each verse, and there were seven of them, somebody was called on for a word about the home state. The words of this song follow:

1. In Chicago, or in Freeport, or in Cairo, Illinois,
There's a hearthstone, there's a hearthstone bidding us our tongues employ.
Chorus—
Oh, the home land, oh, the home land, oh, the home land, Illinois!

Thou art far, but not forgotten, oh, thou dear land, Illinois.

2. There are memories immortal of our life in Illinois,
Some there may be hinting sorrow—
We remember those of joy.

3. Golden prairies, golden rivers, golden gold in Illinois!
Golden corn, and golden harvests cleared by Time of all alloy.

4. They are lucky, they are happy who were born in Illinois!

Next to this state, better that state for to raise your girl and boy.

5. There's a name, the name of Lincoln, name of names in Illinois; Here's to him, our friend and hero, toasts of toasts that never cloy.

6. Here's to mothers dear and fathers who have stayed in Illinois, Who are loath to leave the home land, who are wise to our decoy.

7. Here's to us, the sons and daughters of our honored Illinois; Here's to love that naught can alter, time and change can not destroy.

The report of the nominating committee was then made and the officers already noted were elected and the meeting adjourned after the singing of "Home, Sweet Home" and "America."

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

PRE-COOLING TESTS TO BE MADE HERE

Government Experts Will Come to Yakima to Make Experiments During Season

Peach pre-cooling experiments are to be made here this season by the federal government experts who operated last year at Puyallup in connection with the berry business there. They have their own plant, which cools in carload lots and they will make pretty exhaustive experiments here in connection with the peach business.

B. B. Pratt, of Washington, D. C., of the federal service, who was here last year to ascertain whether the plant was wanted at that time, is here again as a result of a request from leading fruit men. He says that he and his pre-cooling plant will come here this summer from Puyallup after the berry business there has been handled.

The berry cold storage warehouse and the plant of the Artificial Ice & Cold Storage Co. are now provided with pre-cooling apparatus and as the Perry plant has very large rooms, the ice plant a number of small rooms and the government portable plant is of car size, the opportunity presents itself for some interesting experiments.

Better Conditions This Year
Last year the peach crop conditions generally were not of a magnitude to give the interest to the experiments that is likely to attach to them this year and one reason for this is that the Yakima peach this year, if all reports are correct, will be distributed over a much wider area than ever before because of the peach failures in various other parts of the United States.

Various advice has been given to the people of this valley with regard to the peach fruit, but a number of the expert fruit men who have visited here have argued that the peach is a good thing and that in future years good money will be made from that fruit. While they have not given any advice as regards the planting or orchards, they have advised that those planted be permitted to develop, saying that the future would justify their advice.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS

Many North Yakima people have chronic appendicitis (which is not very painful) and think it is just bowel or stomach trouble. Some have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, sour stomach or constipation and Fry's Pharmacy states if they will try simple bulkthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-I-Ka, the German appendicitis remedy, they will be surprised at the QUICK benefit. A SINGLE DOSE stops these troubles INSTANTLY.

Superintendent of Schools, desires to state to the parents of all prospective students, that no beginners will be received for this semester after the present week.

A Boston woman was stricken speechless while shopping. Probably saw a hat marked "98 cents" just like the one she paid $10 for a few weeks ago.

ALL ARE FOR PURE FOOD

Unless Co-Operation Is Complete the Desired Result Will Not Be Attained

CITY ORDINANCES ARE SUFFICIENT

City Health Authorities Ask That Consumer, Producer and Merchant Become Acquainted With Law and See to It Enforced

There is no reason why the food that is consumed by the residents of North Yakima should not be the best and purest in the land, if every one, including the producer and merchant, as well as the consumer, will co-operate with the health authorities in seeing to it that the provisions of the pure food and milk inspection ordinances are rigidly enforced and lived up to. The provisions of these ordinances are sweeping enough to obtain the ends sought for, but unless the co-operation mentioned is had the work of the health officials will only be partly successful. Dr. Thomas Tetreau, the city health officer, in an interview with the Herald, had this to say of the situation locally:

"The bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture is at present engaged in gathering statistics on municipal milk supplies and the precautions exercised in maintaining a high standard of purity. At the request of the department a copy of the North Yakima milk ordinance was forwarded to Washington, as well as a copy of the rules governing dairies in use here, which are identical with those of the bureau of animal industry.

"These rules, as well as the provisions of the milk inspection ordinance, are to be enforced wherever milk is produced for sale, whether it be from the family cow or the large dairy herd. Copies of the ordinance will be ready for distribution in a few days, so that every cow owner may have a copy and familiarize himself with its provisions. There are very few cities of any importance which in the past few years have failed to pass stringent ordinances with the object in view of raising the standard of their milk supply.

"In most cases, as in North Yakima, the score card system of inspection recommended by the Bureau of Animal Industry has been adopted. This provides for the inspection of cows, stables, surroundings, utensils, cooling and aerating equipment which, if perfect, are allowed a score of 40 points.

"That methods are more important than equipment in maintaining the purity of milk is shown by the fact that cleanliness in cows, stables, milk room, attendants and transportation combined with prompt and efficient cooling are rewarded by 60 points—100 being a perfect score. Any fifty condition found to exist limits the score to 40 points or less, while if the water used be exposed to contamination, or there be dangerous disease in animals or attendants, the score must be 0.

"Every city which has rigidly enforced this inspection has witnessed a most remarkable decrease in infantile diarrhoeal diseases and infant mortality. From the supervision of dairies and their products to supervision of other food producing industries and their products was but a simple step and there is scarcely a city in the country which has not passed ordinances providing for such supervision.

"Here, too, the fact has been generally recognized that a food product originally pure and wholesome may by careless methods of handling become a most important factor in the production of disease, and as in the case of milk inspection special attention is given to supervising and improving the methods of preservation and preparation of storing, of displaying and of handling in order to guard against unnecessary contamination."

others with them were the first party to cross the range north of The Dalles, all their predecessors having gone by way of the Columbia river. Other members of the party were George H. Hines, now secretary of the Oregon Historical society and also of the Oregon Pioneers association, and Mr. Gilstrap of Tacoma, of the Washington Historical society. These two gentlemen, with George Longmire, whom they frequently visit, a couple of years ago went over the old route and hope some day to mark it with monuments.

To Mr. and Mrs. Longmire belongs the honor of having founded in Washington a family which now numbers over 100 members and which is larger than that of any other family of the pioneers in Washington or Oregon with one Oregon exception.

Nine Children Survive

James Longmire, who had served several times in the territorial legislature and who had held various county offices in Thurston county, died in August, 1897 and Mrs. Longmire, for the past eleven months, had been in Yakima visiting various of her children who live here. She was in ill health when she came and her death resulted from the physical weakness due to old age. The children who survive her are Elcaine Longmire, who lives at Longmire Springs; David of Yakima; Mrs. Talatha Kandle of this city; Mrs. Laura Longmire of Sequim; John Longmire and Mrs. Melissa Rice of Yelm. Robert, who is sheriff of Pierce county and Frank of Tacoma and George of Yakima. Two children are dead. Mrs. Longmire was a member of the Christian church and her body will be buried at Yelm, alongside that of her husband according to the rites of that church.

The news of the death of Mrs. Longmire will be heard with deep regret by scores of acquaintances in all parts of the country who had met her at Longmire Springs and by hundreds of others who, though they had never met her, had read of her in the histories of Washington in which she figured as a pioneer.

All of Mrs. Longmire's children had been here to visit her during her illness and all but Frank and Robert of Tacoma were with her at the time of her death.

Bee-Keeping Pointers

Provide plenty of water so it is easily accessible. The health of the colony depends upon it.

Let each hive have not less than fifteen pounds of sealed comb to brave the trials of an uncertain winter.

Provide hives that are proof against moisture and extremes of cold and heat. Especially make them proof against very sudden changes of the weather.

Don't overlook the necessity of making your hives in a manner that will facilitate the bee's construction of the comb, and to allow your inspection of the honey without disturbance, or to be easily removed if necessary.

It is a great advantage to have at your disposal a number of fertile queens.

Dysentery among the colonies is caused from dampness, too close confinement, insufficient ventilation or from a neglect of sanitary rules. Guard against it; the disease often works great damage to a hive.

Make provision for a hive that may be threatened by famine, else a weaker or queenless one may be the forfeit to supply that which is needed—food.

Remember that after the second swarm the swarms, though relatively smaller than the first ones, succeed each other quicker. Be prepared for them.

After the second breeding season the fertility of the queen decreases, and she ought to be replaced every third year.

Be sure each colony has its queen, else it may fall victim to robbers. A queenless stock rarely or never makes a very effective defense of its stores.

Save your bees the trouble of thoroughly cleaning out a new hive by doing this yourself, though you may not be able always to do it exactly as they would like it.

Berl H. Wilke.

How Cold Affects the Kidneys

Avoid taking cold if your kidneys are sensitive. Cold congests the kidneys, throws too much work upon them, and weakens their action. Serious kidney trouble and even Bright's disease may result. Strengthen your kidneys, get rid of the pain and soreness, build them up by the timely use of Foley's Kidney Pills. They will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. North Yakima Drug Store.

LOCAL NEWS

Gospel Meetings Continue

The meetings in the Gospel tent on South Front street will continue every night this week.

Body Is Taken Away

The body of Marie LaChance, aged three years, daughter of Joseph LaChance, was forwarded from North Yakima last evening by the Flint Shaw company to Red Lake Falls, Minn., to be interred there. The child died of bronchial pneumonia.

Knew About Lincoln

There is one little North Yakima tot who knows history. She knows about Lincoln. She was asked Monday if she knew why the flags were displayed and answered correctly. She was then asked if she knew who Lincoln was and replied: "I guess he was the man who got the 'Teddy bear'."

One Marriage License

One couple broke into the county auditor's office Monday despite the fact that it was a holiday and everything supposed to be closed up tight, and obtained a marriage license. They were Charles E. Winston and Louise Waggener, both of North Yakima.

Are Lights Out

During most of Monday night are lights all over the city except on Yakima avenue, were out and the city with the exception of the principal thoroughfare was in darkness. The Pacific Power and Light company reported the reason for the lack of light as due to trouble with the generating plant, which could not be fixed before another day.

Called Home by Illness

H. C. Davis of Granger, who left the valley a week or so ago to make purchases of Holstein cattle in various sections where those animals are produced was called home by the serious illness of his little boy who had pneumonia, but who is now recovering. Mr. Davis had gone to Omaha to attend a large sale there but was forced to return before the sale was called. He will return east when his son has recovered.

Goes to White Bluffs

Manager Robbins of the Yakima Valley Fruit Growers association will go today to Pasco to take steamer for White Bluffs and Hanford to meet with the fruit growers there to talk organization with them, the matter having previously been up between the Columbia river people and E. M. Sly at Kennewick. The Columbia river people raise the earliest peaches on the market and must have marketing facilities.

Flew Silk Flag

Governor S. J. Lowe was one of the few citizens who commemorated Lincoln day by displaying an American flag at his residence. The governor had a silk flag on display on North First street which recalled to the memory of old timers that he is one of the residents of the city who always remembered these days. Another flag was always seen was missed Monday, Dr. Philip Frank having passed to the great beyond.

Gets a Prize Bird

Milton Morton is the latest of the poultry fanciers of Yakima to import classy stock, as he has just received from H. Ringhouse, of Clackamas, Oregon, a white Wyandotte cockerel, which he thinks, as do those who have seen it, is a fine specimen of the breed. The bird was the first prize winner in his class at the recent Walla Walla show and scored 95 points in contest under Judge Gimlin.

New Automobiles Arrive

It is apparent that many residents of the Yakima valley are to have new automobiles this year, as the cars are beginning to arrive and be distributed. Both railroads are bringing them in from the east and the machines on the whole, are a finer lot than have come here hitherto, being larger and stronger. It appears also that there is a good local market for the second-hand machines that the purchasers of the new machines are discarding.

Water in Ahtanum

Sunday's heat was such that officials of the Yakima Valley Transportation Company became a little nervous over the likelihood of trouble in the Ahtanum and an interruption to their service there. The heat brought the water from the hills in quantities and the waterways had all they could carry for a time. A motor was ordered out early Monday morning, in fact shortly after midnight Sunday, to be ready in emergency, but it was not needed.

Tells of New Bridge

Nels Short, deputy United States marshal, was at Perry, Franklin county, Sunday, and saw much there to interest him. Perry is a new town on the Snake river side of Franklin and consists now of very few houses. It is the point at which the North Coast crosses the Snake and a bridge is under construction there. This bridge will be over 4000 feet long and 281 feet above the level of the river at low water. There are two concrete piers in the river to assist in upholding the structure. Mr. Short says there is a great piece of work in progress there.

Son of Captain Thomas Honored

Mr. James B. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Captain Thomas of this city, and brother of Mrs. Walter Granger, has been honored by being promoted to head grade engineer in Seattle. Mr. Thomas will be remembered as a graduate of our public schools twelve years ago, and after two years work on the Sunnyside canal, accepted a position in the engineers office in Seattle. Starting at the foot of the ladder, he has steadily made his way upward to his present position.

Spraying Season Here

The spraying season of 1912 has about arrived. In fact it is manifestly here so far as the orchards of the lower valley are concerned, and soon the sound of the sprayer may be heard in this portion of the land. Saffron-colored horses will be a frequent sight on the streets until the lime and sulphur stage of the spring has passed. Those connected with the fruit business, directly or indirectly, are making their plans for the season and preparing for the handling of the spray material and the sale and distribution of the apparatus by which it is applied.

LEAP YEAR BALL BIG SOCIAL EVENT

City Beautiful Is Planning to Raise a Fund for Encouragement of Rose Culture

One of the social events of leap year, with its special privileges and its extra day, will be the City Beautiful ball, to be held March 6 under the auspices of the art committee of the women's clubs. While the women are prepared to make leap year concessions to the extent of asking the men to dance, they expect the men to come forward nobly as in ordinary years and buy tickets to the ball, since the money thus raised is to be spent in the cause of art and city improvement.

The commissioners have decided on the Teplitz rose as the official flower and the clubwomen will undertake a rose planting here similar to the popular custom in Portland and Seattle, and there seems no reason why, with encouragement of this sort, North Yakima may not in time put forth claims as a rival rose city. Roses do not grow here as easily as on the west side, but when given the necessary care, produce blossoms which take a back seat for none.

To Plant Red Roses
The art committee will hold the ball to raise funds to encourage a general planting of the red rose of Yakima on school grounds, about public buildings and on home grounds. Six hundred Teplitz bushes have been ordered through a local green house, which are to be one-year plants done up in bundles of three, which the committee can sell at an extremely low price. Some of the bushes will be given away to the different schools and the price kept so low that they will be within the reach of all. For those whose favorite red rose is not the Teplitz the committee will act as purchasing agent, establishing business relations with some outside nurseryman. It is the hope of the committee that all who are planning to buy roses this spring will buy through it, in order that it may have the benefit of the commission to help carry on its general beautification scheme.

Will Have Patrons
Plans for the ball are not complete as yet, but it is likely that the Commercial club and the Business Men's organizations will be asked to act as patrons of the affair, that some of the old-fashioned dances, such as the lancers and the quadrille will be on the program, and that the entertainment will be socially delightful and civically well attended.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health
Is not for those suffering from kidney ailments and irregularities. The prompt use of Foley Kidney Pills will dispel backache and rheumatism, heal and strengthen sore, weak and ailing kidneys, restore normal action, and with it health and strength. Mrs. M. P. Spaulsberry, Sterling, Ill., says "I suffered great pain in my back and kidneys, could not sleep at night, and could not raise my hands over my head. But two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me. Foley Kidney Pills have my heartiest endorsement." North Yakima Drug Store.
