Union Gap to See Library Facilities

Union Gap, Aug. 24.—A levy for the anticipated branch of the new county library will be considered at the regular September meeting of the Union Gap city council when the 1945 budget will also be considered, it has been announced.

A two mill levy on city valuation has been proposed for the support of library facilities. This is the regular amount set for the county levy. The Union Gap Welfare association hopes to be able to provide quarters for the housing of books, while 1000 volumes with a part-time librarian would be furnished through the county library.
