Miss Emily E. Johnson,
The Pacific Northwest Quarterly,
University of Washington,
Seattle 5, Wash.

Dear Miss Johnson:

I am enclosing postal note for $2.40 covering:

$1.25 for October, 1947 Quarterly.

$1.05 which I assume is amount yet due on quarterly, April, 1936.
I sent money order in payment for invoice 37963 for $2.75, in the amount of $3.20. I don't believe I sent the remainder due when ordering a second copy that was forwarded to a friend.

I believe this friend, Mr. Leland Yost, room 2129 Dept. of Justice Building, Washington, 25, D.C. may have accidentally intercepted invoice in the copy I forwarded to him, unopened, and may have sent you a personal check. If so, would it be possible to intercept it and return it to him

The remainder, 10 cents, is for mailing costs you may incur.

Sorry to be such trouble, but I appreciate your help.

Sincerely
