Dear Mr. Relander:

Mr. D. E. Warren of Moscow, Idaho, has given me your name, thinking perhaps you may be able to help me in a proposed writing project.

Mr. Warren has suggested that I collect and write the folk tales of the Yakima, Umatilla and Nez Perce Indians. I know little about them, but have a copy of the diary of Mr. J. M. Cornelison, who was a missionary to the Indians. I am hoping that I can find enough stories to compile a book of Indian tales for children. Have you any suggestions? Of course, I should never attempt anything of this kind without a visit or several visits to the Indians themselves.

For a sample of the kind of thing I do, may I refer you to JAMBO, SUNGURA, "Tales of East Africa"; W. W. Norton.

Any help you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

Very sincerely,

Eleanor B. Heady
