Reservation Clerk,
The Davenport Hotel,
Spokane, Wash.

Dear Sir:

Last May I stopped at the Davenport during the Pacific Northwest Historical Conference.

I am coming to Spokane for another overnight stop, and am writing for a reservation for Saturday night, Feb. 18.

The needs of Mrs. Relander and myself can be served by room and bath, double or single beds in a medium price range.

I will drive to Spokane this time and expect to arrive by 3:30 or 4 o'clock that afternoon, and will check out Sunday, mid-morning.

In event that some convention is on in Spokane with which I am not familiar, I would appreciate it if some other suitable reservation could be made.
