NORTH YAKIMA A CITY OF LIGHTS

Enterprising Merchants Spend Large Sums In Unique Electrical Advertising Devices—Business District of the City Brilliantly Illuminated.

That North Yakima merchants and business men spend more money on electric signs, and that the city itself is the most brilliantly illuminated in its business district because of this advertising enterprise, is said by travelling men, who visit all the towns and cities in the United States, to be an irrefutable fact.

To stand on Nob Hill and look down Yakima avenue at night reminds one of a street fair in some great city. It has a most metropolitan appearance and businesslike activity, which might be expected of a city of ten times the population.

Nearly every business house of any importance on Yakima avenue has its front adorned with some electrical advertising design, and even on the side streets in the business section hundreds of dollars have been expended in this class of advertising.

Such enterprise on the part of North Yakima's business men is indicative of the prosperity which has characterized this city for the past six years. Tourists say that without a single exception this is the best lighted city of its size in the whole country.

YAKIMA COUNTY AT APPLE SHOW

Business Men's Association and Commercial Club Make Strenuous and Successful Efforts to Display Fruit at the National Apple Show.

Through the combined efforts of the Commercial club and the North Yakima Business Men's association, Yakima county is to have a creditable display of apples at the National Apple Show soon to be held in Spokane.

Fruit growers from every section of the Yakima valley were asked to contribute their aid towards the scheme, and enough have responded to warrant the statement that one of the finest apple displays ever prepared by this county for exhibition will adorn a conspicuous section of the Spokane pavilion at the big apple show.

In addition to this exhibit Manager C. H. Barnes, of the Barnes-Woodfin company here, has announced that he received a letter from Spokane several days ago stating that if apples were furnished the Palace store on Riverside avenue would have its show windows displayed with Yakima valley fruit. Mr. Barnes hustled around in his characteristic manner and secured the apples.

H. M. Gilbert is also making a personal exhibit, and the indications are that the Yakima valley will be pretty well represented in Spokane during the National Apple Show.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Harold J. Doolittle and Miss Mary Erwin to Wed December 31.

Mrs. Verdie A. Erwin, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Williamson, at her home on North Naches avenue, announced on last Monday evening the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Erwin, to Harold J. Doolittle, of the United States Reclamation Service. In honor of the occasion a few of the most intimate girl friends of the prospective bride were present by invitation.

Both young people are well known in this city and were popular in the younger society set. Mr. Doolittle was only recently transferred to a government project in Oregon. The wedding day has been set for December 31.

The guests present at the announcement party included Misses Laura and Lucile James, Nita Foster, Ida Sharkey, Jessie Snively, Gladys Barbour, Laura Burbank, Marjorie Moran and Clara Graham.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

Mr. Bryan recently received from a prominent citizen of Butte, Mont., a letter from which the following is taken:

"While reading your speech at Des Moines, in which you so strongly show up the iniquities of the present tariff, it occurred to me that I could give you from an experience of my own, a pertinent illustration of the infamous robbery perpetrated upon the American people by the millionaire beneficiaries of said tariff. In 1893 I bought from the Singer Sewing Machine company a sewing machine for which I paid $65. In 1904 I went to South America and located at Montevideo, the capital of the republic of Uruguay, a city of 250,000 inhabitants, where I found in the principal stores the same identical Singer sewing machine with all the latest attachments and improvements, all brand new and just received from the Singer factory. I inquired the price and was told it was $35. I bought one, and thinking the price astonishingly low, inquired at the other stores and found the price the same, and had I so desired I could have purchased a dozen at that price. Now these merchants had paid freight for 5000 miles and a heavy import duty on those machines, and yet could sell them at a profit for $35."

Died Peacefully.

Mrs. Levi Thrall, aged 84 years, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. B. Woodcock, on the Ahtanum, some time Tuesday night. The aged lady apparently died most peacefully, the fact of her death being unknown to the family until the following morning.

Deceased had lived in the state of Connecticut during most of her life and came to Yakima two years ago to live with her sister, Mrs. Woodcock. The remains were shipped to Riverside, Conn., where a son resides.

Keep Sweet.

Don't be foolish and get sour when things don't just come your way—
Don't be a pampered baby and declare, "Now I won't play!"
Just go grinning on and bear it;
Have you heartache? Millions share it;
If you earn a crown you'll wear it—
Keep sweet.

Don't go handing out your troubles to your busy fellow men—
If you whine around they'll try to keep from meeting you again—
Don't declare the world's "agin" you,
Don't let pessimism win you,
Prove there's lots of good stuff in you
Keep sweet.

If your dearest hopes seem blighted and despair looms into view,
Set your jaw and whisper grimly,
"Though they're false, yet I'll be true."
Never let your heart grow bitter;
With your ear to Hope's transmitter,
Hear love's songbirds bravely twitter,
"Keep sweet."

Bless your heart this world's a good one and will always help a man,
Hate, misanthropy and malice have no place in Nature's plan.
Help your brother there who's sighing,
Keep his flag of courage flying;
Help him try—'twill keep you trying—
Keep sweet.
—Baltimore American.

Charles A. Marks and family, of the Ahtanum, left here last Monday for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend a few months. Mr. Marks has not been in the best of health for the past year and hopes to be benefitted by the change.

A NEW WATER SYSTEM CERTAIN

Jesse H. Rose and Associates Prepare to Install Artesian Water Works that Will Cover the Entire City and All Additions to North Yakima.

That North Yakima is to have the advantage of a competitive water system in the near future has practically been decided upon by Jesse H. Rose, president of the Rose Artesian Water company, and his associates in the project in question. The promoters of the undertaking have been working on the plans for several weeks with the object in view of commencing at an early date upon the actual construction of the water system. That all plans are sufficiently advanced to permit of the definite announcement and the outline of contemplated lines of procedure is a matter of news in which the citizens of this community are vastly interested.

Mr. Rose announces that it is the intention of his company to start work next month, and with that end in view he has been consulting with engineers concerning the undertaking, and has even gone so far as to order material for the preliminary work.

It is also understood, though not positively announced, that E. M. Kenly, chief engineer of the Yakima Valley Transportation company, will have the supervision of installing the water system.

The plans contemplate a group of large water mains completely covering the entire city and of sufficient capacity to answer the demands of a city much larger than North Yakima at the present time. The chief problem now confronting President Rose and his associate advisors is the question of determining whether the company shall have an immense standpipe on Capitol Hill, capable of supplying water throughout that section without further pressure, or shall a huge reservoir be constructed on Nob Hill. If the latter is built it will have a capacity of 3,000,000 gallons and will be entirely covered by a concrete roof to prevent contamination of any character. In any event the ultimate object of the company will be to give the city an adequate water supply of pure artesian water, not only for domestic uses, but for commercial and fire purposes, if necessary, as well.

As a matter of fact it has been known from the very beginning of Mr. Rose's artesian well enterprise that, should he be successful and strike a full, never-failing flow of water, it was his intention to install a competitive water system here. Recent criticism of the Northwest Light & Water Co. has undoubtedly had its influence in causing Mr. Rose to rush to a successful conclusion these contemplated plans. That his enterprise will prove all that he desires and expects is the wish of the majority of the people living in North Yakima.

COLLINS MAY GO TO STATE PRISON

Jury is Now Deliberating on the Case of the Man Charged with Attempting to Take the Life of Pleas A. Bounds.

The trial of John A. Collins, charged with an attempt upon the life of Pleas Bounds, has occupied the entire time of the superior court this week. The case went to the jury Friday afternoon and at the time of going to press the jury had not returned a verdict.

The defense of Collins has been comparatively strong and he has been ably defended by Attorney Abrams, the leading criminal lawyer of Bellingham, and the law firm of McAulay & Meigs, of this city. Mr. McAulay represents the local firm.

Bounds maintains that Collins shot to kill him, the first bullet taking effect. That he then fell into lateral C and while floating down the canal that Collins continued to fire upon him at close range.

Collins' contention is that while Bounds was advancing upon him in a threatening manner with a shovel on his shoulder that he (Collins) told him to halt, then shot into the ground, again into the air, and was finally compelled to shoot at Bounds in self-defense. His testimony is corroborated by W. H. Riley, who was present at the time of the shooting.

The difficulty occurred on the reservation last summer. The dispute arose over water rights. Public sentiment is divided on the merits of the case.

HELP WANT WAGES.

Ask That Sheriff Pay Them Out of Pacific Hotel Proceeds.

A notice has been filed on John M. Edwards, sheriff of Yakima county, demanding that he pay to Josie Tomm, Alice O'Rourke, Minnie Walters Ray K. French and Mary Yosting the wages due to them out of the proceeds of the sale of the personal property of the Pacific hotel. The claimants were employed about the hotel prior to its sale by the sheriff.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bull, who left here about 10 days ago, are now located in Los Angeles, where they will remain for the winter.

SHEEP RANCH IS ROBBED

Two Young Men Arrested Here
Charged With an Offense in Kittitas County.

The sheriff's office of this county has rounded up a couple of men believed to have broken into a house on the sheep ranch of Samuel J. Cameron in the Burbank canyon in Kittitas county and stolen a number of articles. The men arrested are Richard Jenkins of this city and Arthur Quigby of the Moxee.

The place was broken into several days ago and the burglars made themselves at home. They cooked several meals, using the food found in the place, and when they were ready to leave took with them a couple of sacks of flour, a ham, an overcoat, blankets, boots and numerous other articles, such as are found in a sheep ranch house.

The sheriff of this county was notified and went out on a hunt, with the result that the two men named were arrested. Most of the articles stolen were also recovered. The men will be taken to Kittitas county this evening for a hearing.

TAXES ARE DUE.

Last Half on Real Estate Must Be Paid
By November 30.

The county treasurer's office is beginning to be pretty busy in the collection of the last half of the real estate taxes for last year. The time in which these taxes may be paid expires on November 30, and if not paid by that time interest from June 1, 1908, attaches. The interest rate is 7½ per cent, so that where the taxes are of any considerable amount the interest is worthy of consideration. Taxpayers should make the payments as soon as possible so that there will not be the rush in the office on the last days.

The Toppenish Review says the crying need of that town is more dwelling houses, as there is not an empty residence in the burg. People are inquiring there for houses every day.

PAVING JOB IS FINISHED

Estimated that More Than 3,700,000 Bricks Were Used—First Brick Laid at 1 p. m., June 23, and Last One Laid at 4:55 p. m. Tues., Nov. 10.

The George Milton Savage company, of Tacoma, has completed its work of paving the business district of North Yakima. The last brick was laid on West Yakima avenue at 4:55 p. m. Tuesday.

Contractor Anderson, who has had charge of the work for the Tacoma company, has proved to be a successful handler of laborers and in this connection he has been ably assisted by subcontractor McKivor, who had charge of the preliminary work.

In view of the fact that since the commencement of the work, which required just 154 days, two strikes occurred, its early completion is considered nothing short of miraculous, and could not possibly have been brought about but for the fact that the weather conditions have been ideal.

It is estimated that 3,700,000 bricks were used in paving the Yakima streets. The first brick was laid at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of June 23.

It is now up to the city to make its final payment of $20,000, which will be done when the council committee and city engineer have passed upon the entire job.

MEIGS WOULD BE SPEAKER

Popular Yakima Attorney Aspires to High Position and Indications Are That He Will Be Successful.

L. O. Meigs, representative elect from Yakima county, is a candidate for the speakership of the lower house at Olympia, and to a casual observer of the situation it appears that the Yakima man has much the best of the race at its inception. So far he is the only east side man who has announced his candidacy, while west of the mountains Pierce and Thurston counties have come forward with candidates in the persons of Representative-elect Slayden and Representative-elect Carlyton respectively.

There is every indication, therefore, that the east side legislators will give Mr. Meigs their combined support against the divided strength of the two west side candidates, and this situation in the outset lends encouraging color to the popular Yakima lawyer's aspirations.

Mr. Meigs has served in the legislature as clerk during several sessions of the lower house, and two years ago he was chief clerk of that body. This experience and his state wide acquaintance as a result of it fits him amply for the position he desires and at once makes him a logical candidate.

Progress on Milwaukee Work.

Jacobson & Lindstrom have practically completed their 1 mile contract on the Milwaukee between the Johnson summit and the Columbia river, and only finishing work remains to be done. They will be able to break all camps by the end of this month.

Four spans of the gigantic steel bridge over the Columbia river are now in place and the work is being pushed with great vigor. Material is steadily arriving from the east and the great structure, it is expected, will be completed early in the spring. The season has been most favorable for all kinds of work over there and the contractors have made the most of the opportunity, with the result that a splendid showing of work has been accomplished.—Ellensburg Capital.

Engineers Go to Kennewick.

A meeting of the county engineers of the state has been called by Allan R. Scott, of Spokane county, who is secretary of the association, to meet at Kennewick on November 21. The meeting has been called, following a custom of the County Engineers' association, to hold a special meeting at the close of the annual good roads convention, and the convention will close this November 20 at Kennewick.

SPORTSMEN OPPOSE GAME LAW CHANGES

Want Administration of Regulations Left in the Hands of Yakima County.

Sportsmen of Yakima county are to meet at an early date and take under consideration the matter of legislation probable this winter in the matter of game protection. Local sportsmen as a rule favor the present system of county protection. They do not think that there is any especial advantage in having the game law administered by the state. They are particularly anxious to retain to Yakima county the money acquired from licenses that it may be used for the propagation of game in this portion of the state and not divided with other sections where game protection is a farce and where interest in fish, birds and animals is purely selfish. Yakima county now has a fund in excess of $1000 for game protection or propagation. There were $500 at the beginning of the present season and already this year 900 licenses have been issued and there are more to come. The time and place of the proposed meeting have not been determined but will be announced at an early date.

Petition in Circulation.

A petition, in form as follows, is in circulation among local sportsmen:

"To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives Representing Yakima County in the Washington Legislature:

"We the undersigned sportsmen and friends of game protection herewith respectfully petition your honorable body to use your influence against the passage of the bill (number unknown) which provides for a state game system to take the place of the present county game system.

"We are unqualifiedly and earnestly opposed to the passage of this above bill for the reason that it is detrimental to the best interests of game protection and that it is a measure that is not necessary for the best protection of the game and is likely to arouse a hostile sentiment towards all game protective measures in the future.

Satisfied With Present System.

"We are perfectly satisfied with the present system of county home rule with regard to the disposal of all money derived from hunters' licenses and furthermore are satisfied with the present license system and do not want it changed.

"We also suggest the prompt passing of a law prohibiting the killing of Chinese, English, Golden, Reeves, Mongolian, Silver, Blackneck and Japanese pheasants or any other pheasants which may be released to covert, for a period of two years in the state of Washington and that a proper penalty for killing the same shall be made."

INCORPORATION PAPERS FOR WHITE BLUFFS BANK

New Institution Will Open Business Soon With a Capital of $10,000.

City Attorney Forsyth has been retained by promoters of the new bank at White Bluffs to draw up the incorporation papers for that institution. This he is doing now. The new bank will start off with a capital of $10,000, which will probably be increased shortly. A new building will be built in which the new establishment will do business. The building will be of brick and will be modern in every respect. The bank of White Bluffs will be the first bank in the new up-river country. Its future appears to be a bright one. Many new people, including many North Yakima people, are moving to that country to make homes. White Bluffs promises to be a lively business center and the new institution should have its share of business.

SCHOOL BOARD CONTEST

Interest Appears to Have Fallen Off Since Women Retired from Fight.

Interest in the approaching school election is falling off. Instead of four or five candidates, as at one time appeared likely, it is probable there will be but two, those whose petitions have already been filed, Fred L. Janeck and J. A. Adams. These two are certain as their petitions have been filed and there is no way, under the school law, by which a petition can be withdrawn even supposing the candidate wanted to withdraw. It is not likely that the women of the district will have a candidate of their sex for membership on the board. Such appears to be the situation at present.

Registration Is Small.

Registration at the office of Secretary Kumlur shows, to date, that 69 people, many of them women, have registered for the contest. In addition to these there are the 2000 names of city voters already registered at the office of City Clerk Brooker, who are entitled to participate. The registration for the district outside of the city, since women are included, should run into the hundreds. That it will does not appear to be likely.

Hours of Registration.

Beginning Thursday, November 19, the office of Clerk Kumlur will remain open for registration from 9 o'clock a. m. until 7 o'clock p. m. each day up to and including November 28. At that time the books will be closed. The last day on which petitions may be filed is November 25. The election will be on Saturday, December 5.

LOT BRINGS $12,000

Yakima Avenue Property Disposed of to B. W. Pickett, Who Will Build.

The lot on Yakima avenue on which is located the small brick building containing the Moore Bros. cigar store and McPhail's tailoring establishment, has been sold to B. W. Pickett, formerly a resident of this city and now a heavy property holder here. The property belonged to Sam Chung, Chinese capitalist. The consideration is $12,000. Considering the fact that the building is old, small and of little value generally, the price paid for the property is a good one.

Erect Business Building

Before Mr. Pickett left North Yakima he announced his intention of building a modern business building on the property he has acquired. The leases expire about a year from this time and the new building will be erected following that time. Mr. Pickett believes this city a safe place to invest his money and he is doing so accordingly. He owns the building on Yakima avenue on which is located the Pastime cigar store besides other properties, some of which are in the residence sections.

MARKET FOR FRUIT

CONTINUES STRONG

Seattle Is Making a Strong Demand for the Best Quality of Apples Obtainable.

It still remains easy to sell apples. There is a good demand almost everywhere throughout the country and prices are fair in all places and excellent in some. There is no trouble to market. The shipping business from this section shows little signs of abatement and there will be another strong month of work on the part of the local operators. It is estimated that already this season some 600 cars of apples have been shipped from North Yakima and that some 300 more are yet to come. The fruit is going to all parts of the union and some is for export. Just at present in Seattle prices are higher than they have been at any time during the season.

Good Quality Is Demanded.

Seattle reports two conditions. One is a scarcity of inferior stuff to pull down the general prices and the other is a more general demand for high grade fruit than has ever before been felt there. Portland has reported an oversupply of apples for several days past but these reports have had no effect in changing the quotations in the Sound cities. A good Thanksgiving and Christmas trade is looked for by all the students of the conditions throughout the country.

Uncertainty As to Potatoes.

Conditions with regard to the other things which Yakima has for sale remain practically unchanged at present. Potatoes are reviving somewhat from the slump of a couple of weeks ago, but there is not a great deal of present hope held out by those who are trying to keep in touch with the market. Local sales have been made within the past few days at prices ranging all the way from $12 to $15 a ton. Many think the situation one in which it is good to keep hands off.

Turkeys Are Plentiful.

Cities on the Sound and in Oregon report a likelihood of plenty of turkeys for the Thanksgiving trade and dealers declare that because of the probabilities of large supplies they will cull closely. Seattle buying quotations, delivered, are 20 and 21 cents per pound for dressed turkeys and the same report declares that a carload from Prosser and another carload of frozen stock from Texas had arrived that day. The Texas stock will keep the price down. The birds are small and none too attractive in appearance, but they serve to offer competition to the luscious birds grown on this side of the mountains.

Eggs Again Go Up.

Eggs have gone up another notch and 50 cents per dozen is now offered. A local dealer sized up the situation with regard to strictly fresh eggs by declaring that the advance makes little difference from the point of view of the person who wants the strictly fresh article, regardless of cost, it being as hard to get the kind of eggs desired at 50 cents as it is at 45, there being an insufficiency in the supply.

Sugar has gone off again 20 cents for all kinds and the prices are now $6 and $6.20 to the retailer. The likelihood is of a marked decline in the price of sugar within the next few months. There is talk of a war, which is not improbable. In the meantime, on a declining market, the wholesalers are having the time of their lives to do business.

At Rest.

At her home on Cherry street, surrounded by her relatives and friends, Donna Rey Caseres, aged 18 years, 2 months and 20 days, passed from this life into eternal rest. Donna had been a sufferer for several years and confined to her home for months with the dread disease, consumption. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. S. J. Kennedy of the Presbyterian church, at the home of her mother, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A solo, "I Am a Pilgrim," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Frank Clemmer, and "Blest Be the Tie," was sung by Mrs. Milly French, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Harter and Miss Fanny Beardsley. Donna Caseres was born in North Yakima and spent all her life here. The many beautiful floral designs contributed testified to the warm love and esteem in which she was held in this community. She was the beloved daughter of Mrs. Nellie Caseres, and leaves to mourn her loss, beside her mother, one brother, Arthur L. Caseres, and three uncles, all of this city.

She was laid to rest in Tahoma cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Herman Crawford, Virgil Dudley, Joe Bartholet, Albert Arendt, David Redfield and John Detloff.

Dr. N. H. Goodenow, eye, ear, nose and throat, and the fitting of glasses... Removed from the Mullins Building to 304-305 Miller Building. Office phone, 4286; residence phone, 2266.

RUEF TRIAL PROCEEDS

Attorneys of Opposing Sides

Indulge in Many Clashes Over Methods.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—The trial of Abe Ruef was resumed this morning. James L. Gallagher, former supervisor and agent of Ruef in the alleged bribery transactions, was on the stand. The defense cross-examined Gallagher at length and the methods caused several clashes with the attorneys of the prosecution, who objected to questions asked of the witness.

A strong force of police and detectives is on duty in the courtroom, the corridors and in front of the building. Only about 200 persons had access to the courtroom.

Judge Lawler today issued instructions that any and every person whom Ruef or his counsel desired in the courtroom, be admitted. The court also admonished the jury that it must utterly disregard Friday's shooting and confine its deliberations solely to the evidence in the case.

Comfort and Economy

The Wilson responds so accurately and unfailingly to its dampers that when the room is once warmed, by opening the draft wide you can set the dampers and maintain an absolutely even and healthful temperature.

With a WILSON WOOD HEATER

it is just as comfortable in the farthest corner of the room as it is within a few feet of the heater. This means health and comfort.

The patent Hot Blast Down-Draft, found only in the Wilson, consumes every particle of burnable elements in the wood, thus giving greater heat with one-half the fuel.

THE BATTLE ONLY BEGUN.

The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents, but the principles for which our party stands, the policies for which our party contends—these are not dead. A good proposition is not made lad by rejection at the polls; a needed reform is not made unnecessary by an adverse vote. The legislation asked for by the democratic party in its last national platform was not of a temporary character—it was legislation which will be of permanent advantage when it is secured.

Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit secrecy as to campaign contributions? Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted, as it is now, by the election of senators through legislatures? Does anyone believe that the trusts will be permitted to permanently exploit the masses? Does anyone believe that the consumer will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of that tariff? Does anyone believe that the public will permanently tolerate estrangement between labor and capital? Does anyone believe that the fifteen millions of depositors will forever permit their savings to be jeopardized as at present? Does anyone believe that the extravagance of the government will go on forever unchecked? Does anyone believe that our republic will permanently consent to a colonial policy with its humiliations and financial burdens? There must be a party representing the people's protest against wrong in high places, against corruption in politics and against the oppression of the struggling masses; and the democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party.

During the last twelve years the democratic party has accomplished more than the republican party has accomplished in office, and this is a sufficient reward for those who fight for a righteous cause. It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy democrats with official positions, but the most worthy of the democrats are not looking for official positions, they are looking for good government, and they labor unselfishly for the promotion of good government. They will neither be discouraged nor dismayed by defeat. They can not cease to be interested in the government, for indifference would only invite worse abuses than those from which we now suffer. The fight must be continued because a good government is the richest legacy that a parent can leave to a child.

As for myself, let no one worry about my future. The holding of office is a mere incident in the life of those who are devoted to reforms. The reform is the essential thing. If one can advance reforms by holding office then the holding of office is justifiable; if one can best advance reforms as a private citizen, then the holding of office is undesirable. The world owes me nothing; I have been abundantly compensated for what I have been able to do. My life will not be long enough to repay the people for their support, and for the confidence which they have expressed. My gratitude to those with whom I have labored surpasses language and the days of the future will be devoted to work in the interest of the people as I understand that interest, and in behalf of those reforms which seem to me to be the best. I invite the co-operation of those who approve, and I shall not be deterred by the criticism of those who disapprove. With an abiding faith in the triumphs of the truth and an unflinching confidence in the righteousness of our cause, I speak this word of encouragement to those who call themselves friends. I shall keep step with them and march on. The measure of our work can not be taken in a day. If we are right, as I believe we are, it will vindicate us; if we contribute, as I believe we are contributing, to a cause that is founded on justice, our efforts will weigh in the final victory.

"Yea, though thou lie upon the dust,
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,

Another hand the standard wave,
Till from the trumpets mouth is pealed,
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave."
—W. J. Bryan.

THE CODE DUELLO

A peculiar idea of honor still obtains in the south, a sort of feudal sentiment handed down from ante-bellum days. This spirit was well exemplified at Nashville, Tenn., last week when Cooper shot and killed former Senator Edward W. Carmack in a street duel. The cause that led to the duel is supposed to have been an editorial attack made by Carmack in his paper, The Tennessean, upon the elder Cooper, father of the man who did the shooting. Later developments in the case lend color to the suspicion that the killing was premeditated on the part of the Coopers and it is not impossible that father and son may be forced to stand trial for murder.

Senator Carmack was regarded as one of the most brilliant men of the south in public life. He was a close student of public questions, an orator of great power and a newspaper and magazine writer of recognized ability. In his one term of service in the national senate he so distinguished himself that he gained a national reputation. But his political enemies at home undermined him, succeeding in defeating him for re-election to the senate two years ago and for election as governor of Tennessee during the present year, an inferior man being elected over him in each case. The two successive defeats in his home state seem to have greatly embittered Carmack and being a master of sarcasm and invective he is said to have lashed his enemies mercilessly both with tongue and pen. In order to fight the controlling faction the more effectively he abandoned the practice of law and assumed the editorship of a Nashville newspaper. It was his vengeful spirit apparently that brought about his untimely death.

Probably no similar event has so stirred the people of Tennessee since the memorable duel fought by Andrew Jackson and his old enemy, Dickinson, in which the latter lost his life. As is well known the cause of that famous duel was a passing insult addressed by Dickinson to General Jackson's wife. Dickinson was regarded as the best shot in Tennessee and it was supposed that he purposely insulted Mrs. Jackson in order to thus draw her distinguished husband into a duel that he might dispose of him on the field of honor. But Dickinson himself died on the field and Andrew Jackson lived to become president of the United States.

FRUIT GROWERS SHOULD ORGANIZE.

The coming winter should witness a strong effort made in the direction of getting an organization effected of the fruit growers of Yakima county.

Every grower of commercial fruit should now realize the necessity that exists for close and effective organization. The purpose of organization is not alone to secure better prices for the grower, although the question of markets, of course, is the main consideration. But there are many other benefits to be derived by intelligent organization and co-operation, among which are cultivation and spraying, selection of varieties, purchase of packing material, the question of securing help in harvesting and many other things that pertain to the welfare and continued prosperity of the fruit growing business of this section.

Each and every one of the different fruit growing localities of the valley, such as Naches, Fruitvale, Nob Hill, Ahtanum, Selah, Fairview, Parker, Zillah, Wapato and others should organize at once a local horticultural society or union, each of which should be auxiliary to a central or county organization in this city. It ought to be done now in order that something definite along certain lines may be accomplished during the coming winter, the only time of the year that the average fruit grower has any leisure.

Yakima county fruit men are lamentably weak in the way of organization and the present condition of the industry shows it. And yet, Yakima county boasts of being the leading fruit growing section of the northwest, which is, of course, a fact. But yet we have no organization of growers here that is worthy of the name. We ship from five to ten times as much fruit as either Wenatchee or Hood River—yet those communities have strong and effective organizations that are always at work, and the result is that they get better prices for their fruit than we get for ours.

The prosperity of this community, present and prospective, is now largely dependent on the welfare of our fruit growing industry. A man who cannot see that fact must be blind. It therefore behooves us to put the industry on the highest plane possible, unless we shall be content to occupy a back seat eventually. It is not only useless but foolish for each grower to attempt to fight his battle alone.

Organize! Gentlemen, organize! and then get to work!

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION.

Township organization carried the day at the recent election both in Spokane and Stevens counties. The question was pretty well threshed out by the voters there and the majority evidently consider the change a desirable one. The Democrat is strongly inclined to believe that the township system would work well in an agricultural district like this county. The claim is made against the township organization plan that it is expensive and more cumbersome than the present system of precinct organization with a central board of three county commissioners. Well, as to it being more expensive, that probably all depends on conditions.

In most of the states where township organization is in vogue the county legislature is made up of a supervisor from each township, each supervisor being responsible for all expenditures of county funds in his own township. In pro-rating the funds for public road and bridge work, for instance, each township secures its proportionate share according to the amount of taxes paid. Thus each portion of the county is practically sure of getting a square deal in the way of public improvement. As it is now under our present system of county government by a board of three commissioners the distribution of certain funds for public work is apt to be, and often is, haphazard, with the result that much complaint and often intense bitterness is aroused by the feeling that exists that certain favored sections get more than their share, while others feel that they are slighted and denied their rights. That such a feeling exists in certain districts of Yakima county at the present time it would be useless to deny.

Yakima county being mainly agricultural in its interests one of the most important problems that we have to face is the building and maintenance of roads. That such a work could be done more effectively under township organization seems reasonable. At any rate it is a proposition that merits discussion.

TO ADVANCE FREIGHT RATES.

Now that the elections are out of the way, railroad men are organizing for a vigorous campaign to force an advance of freight rates, says the New York World. Their argument is that unless this be done, wages will have to be reduced. It is said they stand ready to discharge thousands of employees to make a bad situation worse if the public refuses to countenance their extravagant demand for higher rates. Responsible railroad managers are acting like a lot of cry-babies. They are pretending that they have been abused more than any other class of business men, when everybody knows perfectly well that their claim is absurd.

Railroads are not doing so much business as in the past, but that is not for the reason that they have been abused, but because there has been a panic, and it might also be said that it cannot cause one, either, for panics are a natural development of growth. They are to the business world what growing pains are to children. The panic which has caused all the suffering will be over in a year, and business is already on the move. The really important railroad men know this perfectly well, but under cover of a pretended belief that something must be done to save the railroads, they are attempting to fasten on the public a schedule of rates that will justify the enormous prices to which railroad securities have been manipulated.

Away down south in Dixie an editor, it seems, must be careful what he says in print about people, lest he be shot down in the street. In Indiana the other day an editor was pelted with rotten hen fruit for offending somebody in print. Here in Yakima a still different idea of proper punishment for offending editors seems to prevail. In our own experience an open threat of a suit for criminal libel and a notice by mail from an anonymous correspondent of his intention to "lick the stuffin'" out of us the first time he caught us out, were the most conspicuous evidences of displeasure with our editorial policy that we can now recall. But by good fortune we neither got licked nor had to defend a suit for libel.

The old "Thunderer" at Portland and the Times of Seattle are both carrying on campaigns to induce legislators of two states to violate their pledges on the U. S. senatorship, with the object of defeating Chamberlain, a democrat, in Oregon, and Jones, a republican, in this state. It is a dirty piece of business to be engaged in and those papers only discredit themselves in engaging in it. Any legislator who breaks his pledge deserves to be tarred and feathered by his constituents.

Attorney Francis J. Heney the well known graft prosecutor of San Francisco, has the sympathy of all right-minded people and the wish is general that he may recover from his wounds. The shooting of Heney in public by a half crazed man shows the risks that a fearless man like Heney takes in his tireless effort to clean out a nest of thieves and send the guilty to the penitentiary.

The past week records the demise of the old dowager empress of China as well as the young emperor of that country, who was a ruler only in name. But the aged empress, who ruled China with a rod of iron for 47 years, will live in history, even though she was a barbarous and bloodthirsty old woman. It seems probable now that the new regent will give China a much more liberal government.

The National Apple Show, to be held at Spokane early in December, is a coming event that the apple growers of the Yakima valley ought to be interested in, especially as the promoters of the show are offering most liberal inducements in the way of prizes for the best exhibits. The Yakima valley is now in the front rank in apple production and it should and must maintain its place.

"Outlook," the New York publication that "Teddy, the Terror," proposes to edit after next March, is said to be owned principally by James Stillman, banker for the Standard Oil crowd. But that fact probably won't make any difference to Teddy, in fact it might be taken as a guaranty that he will draw his salary regular.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN YEAR

More Alert, More Thorough and More Fearless Than Ever.

READ IN EVERY ENGLISH-SPEAKING COUNTRY

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man whom he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World will tell you every step and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-A-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is subscribe to the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer his unequalled newspaper and THE DEMOCRAT together for one year for $2.15.

It's a Real Thanksgiving for the family with a Monarch Range

With a Monarch Range in the Kitchen there will be true thanksgiving in the hearts of cook and guest alike. A woman's pleasure in using this perfect range quite equals her pride in serving the family and guests with the delicious food it prepares.

Why not make THIS a Genuine Thanksgiving in YOUR home? Whatever your cooking arrangements may be, you can improve them—and you OUGHT to do it. It's not as though it were an extravagance to buy the "best range possible"—as a matter of fact you can't AFFORD to use anything else! The Monarch actually does its work with so little fuel that it soon PAYS BACK ITS COST in REAL MONEY.

THE THINGS THAT THE MAN WITH A MONARCH RANGE IN HIS KITCHEN HAS TO BE THANKFUL FOR.

It Pleases His Wife Thoroughly

A woman who uses a Monarch Range is more than merely satisfied. She is pleased—enthusiastic about it. She appreciates that she has a range far superior in every respect to the so-called "Steel Ranges" that her friends are using.

Cooks his meals promptly and perfectly

No unexpected delay because "the oven wouldn't heat." No spoiled meals that are usually blamed on the cook when the range is really at fault.

Uses so little fuel it pays for itself

Here's the important thing. This makes the Monarch the range for poor and rich alike. It saves its own cost in a short time and continues to save, year after year. It's an investment that yields big returns regularly long after the principal has been paid back.

SOME FEATURES OF THE MONARCH RANGE THAT MAKE THE WOMAN WHO USES ONE TRULY THANKFUL—

The Polished Top

Never requires any stove blacking—yet is always in perfect condition—clean and shiny.

Wellsville Steel Body

Always retains its splendid finish without the use of stove blacking or paint. Most lasting material known for range bodies.

The Duplex Draft

A device found on the Monarch alone which does away with sitting ashes and keeps the oven uniformly heated.

An Air-Tight Oven

With patent non-warping bottom. Seams can never open up to admit drafts, ashes and dust as in a so-called "Steel Range." Assures PERFECT baking which can be done only in an air-tight oven.

Lower Warming Closet

A convenient storage compartment underneath the oven. With the door open it heats the kitchen like a base burner and can't interfere at all with the baking oven.

A TACTLESS NURSE.

The Creepy Manner in Which She "Entertained" a Patient.

Nurses are, as a class, a most excellent body of young women, but, as in the case of doctors, one occasionally comes across specimens who are so deficient in tact and sympathy with the sick as to be positively, though unintentionally, brutal. That seems to be the fate of the writer of the following letter:

"Late one night, when I was in considerable pain and unable to sleep, my nurse, in order to provide cheerful diversion, proposed to show me a few of her photographs. So a candle was brought to the bedside and the pictures were held before my eyes as I lay on my back. Producing the first with much gusto, the nurse explained that it was a very pretty picture. It was. It showed 'our mortuary chapel,' and the nurse pointed out the coffins and a row of shrouds hanging up in the corner, explaining that 'we keep all sizes in stock.' The next picture was 'our operating theater,' with the nurse and the doctor 'just ready to begin,' and my tormentor was specially proud of it because the nurse depicted was herself. When she pointed out, however, that galoshes were worn by the butcher and his assistant, I endeavored to pass on as quickly as possible to the next picture. It was not long, however, before we came to the portrait of 'Mary, our hospital skeleton.' Nurse explained that Mary was 'cloaked,' but at lectures a string could be pulled and the cloak fell off. In point of fact, the photographer had caught it at the moment of falling, and the figure and features of Mary remained indelibly printed on my memory. I do not say anything against Mary as a skeleton, but she was hardly an apparition to bring comfort or sleep to a poor fevered wretch whose life was hanging in the balance. Yet that nurse held the highest possible credentials in every department of her calling.—London Truth.

No Compromise.

"I'm very sorry my people have given offense," said the savage ruler, "and I'm ready to apologize."
"Apologize?" said the European envoy indignantly. "But my country will accept no apology. This insult can be wiped out only in real estate."—New York Press.

More Than Beauty Needed.

"You are beautiful enough to be wooed by an emperor."
"Am I beautiful enough to be wooed by a duke?"
"Yes, indeed; but not rich enough."—Houston Post.

Every duty which we omit obscures some truth which we should have known.—Buskin.

PAINTING THE WORLD.

Indian Legend of the Way Spring Came into Existence.

Once, long before there were men in the world, all the earth was covered with snow and ice.

White and frozen lay the rivers and the seas; white and frozen lay the plains. The mountains stood tall and dead, like ghosts in white gowns. There was no color except white in all the world except in the sky, and it was almost black. At night the stars looked through it like angry eyes.

Then God sent the spring down into the world—the spring with red lips and curling yellow hair.

In his arms he bore sprays of apple blossoms and the first flowers—crocuses, anemones and violets, red, pink, blue, purple, violet and yellow.

The first animal to greet the spring was the white rabbit. The spring dropped a red crocus on his head, and ever since then all white rabbits have red eyes.

Then the spring dropped a blue violet on a white bird, the first bird to greet the spring, and that is the way the bluebird was made. Ever since then it is the first bird to arrive when the spring comes down from heaven.

So the spring went through the world. Wherever he tossed the leaves from his fragrant burden the earth became green. He tossed the blossoms on the frozen seas, and the ice melted, and the fish became painted with all the tint of his flowers. That is the way the trout and the minnows and the salmon became gaudy.

Only the high mountains would not bow to the spring. So their summits remain white and dead, for they would let the spring paint only the sides.

The snow owls and the white geese and the polar bears fled from the spring, so they, too, remain white to this day.

Lowell's Motto.

In a eulogy which appeared in the Century Magazine just after Lowell's death are these words: "This is Lowell's legacy as a patriot, not the sentiment, 'My country, right or wrong,' but 'My country—it shall never be wrong if I can help it.'"

No Disguise.

Husband (admiringly)—There's no use trying to disguise the fact that you are smarter than I am, my dear. Wife (complacently)—The fact, my love, has never been in disguise among those who know us.

Diaries.

If the people who keep diaries are wise they never put into them the things that would make them most interesting to other people in the years to come.—Boston Globe.

No man likes to be surpassed by men of his own level.—Livy.

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Brief Record of Local Happenings for the Week in North Yakima and Vicinity.

Mrs. Elva Brown, a daughter of Mrs. J. M. Baxter, of Fairview, has moved into the city for the winter and is keeping house with Miss Lucy Nichols, corner of North Third and C streets.

John A. Balmer, the well known florist, of Cle Elum, and Miss Gladys Fell, daughter of Editor Chas. S. Fell, of the Cle Elum Echo, were married last week. The parties are all well known in this city.

The recent municipal primary at Roslyn was the warmest in the history of the town. Simon Justham won out for mayor over John G. Green by a plurality of 44 votes. Mr. Justham is the present mayor.

The Milwaukee road has finally concluded to locate its last division point at South Cle Elum, and the people of Ellensburg, who had long hoped to have the round house and shops located there, naturally feel much disappointed.

A party of nine of ten hunters went out from Finley across the river above Wallula and killed 272 rabbits, 18 ducks and three geese Monday of this week. Messrs. Taylor, Cooper, Retzlaff, and two visitors from Summer, Wash., and four from Hover made up the party.—Kennewick Courier.

A fruit growers' association was organized recently at Prosser, nearly all the fruit growers of that vicinity joining the organization, being dissatisfied with the prices obtained for their fruit this year. Fruit Inspector J. M. Brown, of this city, was present at the meeting and gave the growers the benefit of his advice.

According to a custom of long standing in this county Sheriff John Edwards has prepared to give the prisoners at the county jail a good substantial and appetizing dinner on Thanksgiving day. The prisoners will be served with turkey, and if Sheriff Edwards decides that Col. Ed. Parker will not take exception to the extra expense incurred, he may also serve cranberry sauce with the turkey.

DOCKET FOR FEDERAL COURT IS RECEIVED

There are seven cases set to be heard before the United States circuit and district courts for the Eastern district of Washington, Southern division, which will convene at North Yakima on Monday, November 23. This is indicated by the trial and motion docket which has just been received by Deputy Clerk Cleaver of this city.

The first case is that of James Wright vs. Great Northern Railway company. This is pending on motion to dismiss. H. J. Snively appears for the plaintiff and B. J. Gordon, C. A. Murray and

ANOTHER HOLD-UP CASE

Thugs Are Busy These Nice Autumn Nights Making Hauls.

Another case of hold-up and robbery was reported to the police last Tuesday night by a laborer who gives his name as Ole Hagen.

Ole declares that while in company with a companion named Basket he was pounced upon by thugs on the west side of the track near the Northern Pacific ice house, knocked senseless and robbed of $22 in cash, the extent of his worldly belongings.

His general appearance indicates that there is more truth than poetry in what he relates concerning the circumstances of the hold-up. His companion, Basket, also appears rather worse for the wear and the police are busily engaged in an effort to get some trace of the bandits who appear to be working their little hold-up game successfully on the unsuspecting public of North Yakima.

PROPOSITION

It has not been our plan to offer discounts in our business at this time, we have

CHANGED OUR PLANS

We have concluded it would be wise to make it somewhat of an inducement to encourage you to BUY IN NOVEMBER.

It is the habit of thousands of people to wait until the last week to do their Christmas shopping, which always results in a rush and clamor. We wish to give everyone our personal attention in the selection of your gifts and we feel it is worth something to us, as well as to our customers to buy during these last days of November. Therefore we make

THE FOLLOWING PROPOSITION

On all purchases of goods for the Holidays from NOW UNTIL DECEMBER 1st we will offer

A TEN PER CENT DISCOUNT

The above not only saves you money, but it will give you the FIRST SELECTION, which amounts to considerable. It may be some would prefer to come in and make a deposit and have their merchandise laid away and make payments on same each week. We will say this will be entirely satisfactory to us. This, however, does not entitle you to the cash discount.

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

The second case is on the foreclosure of a mortgage. It is brought by the Alliance Trust company, represented by Bronaugh & Bronaugh, against Adalor Perrault et al., represented by Hamilton & Linn, Boyle & McGregor and Lee C. Delle. Exceptions of complainant to defendant's answer.

The third case is pending on motion to remand. It is the case of Fountain O. Chezum, John C. Stallcup, attorney, vs. the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company of Washington, E. E. Field, G. W. Korte and E. E. Wagner, attorneys.

The fourth case is that of Eugene C. McGlauffin vs. Cascade Lumber company. The attorneys for the plaintiff are Morgan & Brewer, and McAulay & Meigs, and the attorney for the defendant is Fred Parker. The attorneys will stipulate.

The remaining three cases are at issue. They are as follows:

Otis Elevator company, Fred Parker, attorney, vs. Pat Mullins, William M. Thompson, attorney; E. D. Powell, W. D. Schutt, attorney, vs. Northern Pacific Railway company et al., E. J. Cannon and A. B. Lee, attorneys; Frank A. Seifert, Bennett & Sinnott, attorneys, vs. George Olney, A. C. Avery, attorney.

It is believed that the most of the docket will be disposed of quickly and that the term of court here will be brief.

PROMISE BY MILWAUKEE

New York, Nov. 18.—Denial is made today by Ross Miller, chairman of the board of directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway of the rumored intention to merge the various companies in South Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Washington which are building the Milwaukee's extension to the Pacific coast and issue bonds against this new line and its equipment. According to the company's officials the new line will be opened and running to Puget Sound for freight business before July 1st next.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube be restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
