Dear Friend Click:

Congratulations on the book, set in wood type to boot. Quigley is a great painter, we had his exhibit in our gallery a couple of years ago. His horse pictures are great. I'll be looking forward to the book when it comes out. If there's anything we can do here for the cause, don't be bashful although I imagine you have everything under control.

The bound volumes should be ready very soon, they've been in the bindery for several weeks.
Unfortunately, the margin on them is so close that I'm afraid the price will not include delivery. All are spoken for.

Glad you're going to Helena. It's a great disappointment to me that I can't make it. I don't dare take a chance on it. Yesterday walked a block, the longest for months, so I'm coming along but on the slow side.

Fraternally

CHAPIN D. FOSTER, Director
