A BEET SUGAR FACTORY.

E. D. Comings, the Seattle Promoter Said to Have a Scheme to Start one on the Reservation.

E. D. Comings, the beet sugar promoter of Seattle, stopped off Wednesday for a few hours while enroute home from a visit of several weeks at New York and Washington.

Mr. Comings stated to the DEMOCRAT Thursday morning that he was still working full time on his proposition to establish a beet sugar factory in this vicinity and the fact that a sugar making plant is to be established at Prosser will in no way interfere with his plans as there is plenty of room for two. He thought the would have some information to impart to the people regarding the building of a mill here. Had it not been for Gov. McBride's veto of the sugar bounty bill, Mr. Comings said, a factory would now be under construction or near this city.

Through other parties the DEMOCRAT learned this week that Mr. Comings while in Washington succeeded in interesting Secretary Hitchcock of the interior department in his proposition. The secretary, it is said, agreed that if such a policy was not incompatible with the welfare of the Indians that he would consent to the leasing of 10,000 acres of reservation land for a period of 10 years, the land to be used for the cultivation of beets for the proposed factory. The most of the land desired for the purpose will be under the big canal which the department is undertaking to build across the reservation.

In consideration of securing the needed concessions from the interior department, Mr. Comings has assurance from New York capitalists that they will equip a factory with a capacity of 2000 tons of beets per day.

The Glorious Fourth!

The Fourth of July celebrations this year at Sunnyside and Prosser are reported to have passed off very satisfactory. Rain that fell in the morning threatened for a time to interfere with the program of the day but the sun soon came out and the weather proved to be all that could be desired.

C. E. Woods delivered the oration at Sunnyside after the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Miss Marian Marble. The procession was headed by the band, followed by 45 young ladies on horseback, representing the different states. After the company of beautiful girls came the floats of the business houses, that of Coffin Bros. capturing the first prize. The celebration at Sunnyside was a great success in every way.

At Prosser a large crowd assembled and everybody enjoyed the celebration.
A beef was roasted and an old fashioned barbecue was held. A very interesting program of sports was pulled off with a display of fireworks in the evening.

The people of the Upper Natches gave a very pleasant picnic at Clark's grove, a number of people attending from this city. Hon. E. B. Preble delivered the oration. Judge Preble's address is said to have been a very masterful one and called forth much congratulation from those who heard it.

At Tampico rain in the forenoon interfered with the picnic and program. In the afternoon a large crowd gathered to witness the ball game between the Tampico club and the Grammar school nine from this city which resulted in a victory for the latter. In the evening a ball was held in the public hall at Tampico.

Checked on Imaginary Funds.

J. R. Clayton, the whilom partner of M. Probach the tailor, who skipped out two weeks ago, was apprehended last Sunday at Billings, Mont. Sheriff Grant left here Monday to bring the prisoner back. The complaint that led to Clayton's arrest was sworn to by F.
B. Shallow to whom Clayton had passed a $5 check on the Yakima National bank without having a cent in that institution.

H. J. Emery, while busy celebrating the glorious Fourth, unfortunately ran out of money and drew checks on an imaginary fund in a local bank. Several saloon men took his checks. One of his victims, however, became suspicious and 'phoned to J. D. Cornett of the Yakima National. On learning that Emery had no funds there a warrant was sworn out for his arrest and he now lingers in durance vile.

Heppner is Grateful.

The DEMOCRAT is in receipt of a letter from Mayor Gilliam of Heppner, Ore. regarding the contribution sent from here for the benefit of the flood sufferers of that stricken town. The letter is self-explanatory and is as follows:

HEPPNER, Or., July 6, 1903.
MR. J. D. MEDILL, Editor DEMOCRAT, North Yakima, Wash.,

Dear Sir—We are in receipt of your letter of June 30th enclosing draft of $455 for the benefit of the Heppner sufferers.
Please accept our sincere thanks for yourself and convey same to your good people for their kindness and generosity towards us in this time of need.

Very respectfully,
FRANK GILLIAM,
Mayor of Heppner.

Commissioners in Session.

The board of county commissioners met Monday and was in session until yesterday. Dr. P. Frank was elected county coroner to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Heliker two months ago. The appointment of Dr. Frank, it is thought will give general satisfaction.
The time of the commissioners has been occupied mostly with consideration of the finances of the county, the 30th of June having been the end of the fiscal year. Petitions for a number of new roads were also considered. The question of building a new court house was not taken up.

Superior Court Notes.

The cases disposed of in the Superior court this week are as follows:

St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Co. vs P.
P. Olson. Verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $187.50.

The case of C. E. Jones vs J. M. Perry for salary alleged to be due, was decided in favor of the plaintiff who sued for $187.50 and received a verdict for $167. Thompson & Allen represented plaintiff and H. J. Snively defendant.

The case of B. L. Chaney vs F. Groschen for false imprisonment, was a bitterly contested case. The jury after being out for several hours brought in a verdict for the defendant. Thompson & Allen and H. J. Snively appeared for the plaintiff and Whitson & Parker for the defendant.

In the case of J. P. Mayer vs H. P.
Smull, a suit to collect a real estate commission, the jury found for defendant.

In the case of the County of Yakima vs Fred Mansfield, a suit to condemn right of way for a public road, the jury gave defendant a verdict for $238.30.

The suit of the Yakima Valley bank vs Chas. McAllister was being tried as this paper went to press.

It is not believed that the jury term will be finished before the middle of next week as there some four or five cases yet to be heard.

Death of N. S. Johnson.

Norval S. Johnson, proprietor of the Hotel Yakima, died at 1:30 p. m. Thursday after an illness lasting nearly a month, from pleuro-pneumonia.

For several days Mr. Johnson's condition had been regarded as critical, but the first of this week a change was noted for the better and the attending physician is said to have held out strong hopes of his recovery. During Wednesday night, however, the patient suddenly took a change for the worse. Other physicians were hastily called in and a consultation held and everything possible done to help the suffering man but without avail.

The funeral will be held from the Hotel Yakima, Sunday, at 2:00 p. m. under the auspices of the Elks of which order he had been a member.

Deceased was born in the state of Virginia and was in the 46th year of his age. He was a man well known all over the northwest having been in the hotel business in different cities of this state and spent several years on the road as a traveling representative of the Simmons Hardware company. He was a man who had a host of friends who will doubtless be pained to learn of his untimely death. Mr. Johnson leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss.

Was ne Taking French Leave.

R. S. Currier, a house builder and contractor, who came here about a year ago, was arrested Monday night by Sheriff Grant on the east bound train while latter was enroute to Montana. Currier was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Mc-Neil at Prosser who brought the prisoner to this city and lodged him in the county jail where he still is.

Currier was arrested on a warrant sworn out by J. A. Orchard, the grocery-man of this city with whom Currier was under contract to build a house.
Mr. Orchard says that he had paid Currier $1000 on account and that the latter had neither finished his contract or paid his workmen or material bills. Mr. Orchard had good reason to think that Currier was leaving the town for good.

Currier had also received a contract from A. D. Sloan to remodel the latter's residence on North Third street and Mr.
Sloan had paid him the sum of $700.
The men employed on this job had not received their pay, neither had the men who furnished the material.

Currier flagged the passenger train at Yakima City. He got on and walked right into the arms of the sheriff who had just went through the train to see if he was aboard. At the jail since his arrest he has been receiving about 25 callers a day.

Brome Grass a Success.

Such people as own dry ranches in the Yakima valley might do well to turn their attention to brome grass. This grass has been experimented with quite successfully in the Ritzville and Lind districts and is proving a source of considerable profit to a few farmers who have given it a fair trial. In referring to this subject in a recent issue the Lind Leader had the following to say:

"Every farmer in this county who is interested in growing grasses that are adapted to this soil and climate should visit B. F. Berry's ranch and see the results accomplished in growing grass.
Mr. Berry has a small field of grass, ten or twelve acres, which was sown two years ago. It was pastured very close last year, so close, in fact, that it was impossible to see any of it last fall. Now the field is beautiful to behold. There is a splendid sod of excellent grass which, in all probability, will furnish as much pasture as a similar number of acres in tame grass in the Mississippi valley. All the farmers in this section realize the necessity of finding a good grass to take the place of the bunch grass, which is not profitable as it furnishes so little feed to the acre. The trouble seems to be that the average farmer thinks he has no time to experiment and grass growing has been neglected. Now, Mr. Berry, who is one of the most progressive farmers in the county, was one of the first to see the necessity of grass growing and decided to give the brome grass a trial. The results obtained are certainly all that could have been hoped for. This spring Mr. Berry sowed something like a hundred acres more to brome grass and we may expect to hear some fine reports from that later."

and Mrs. Jesse Hewes, of the Natches, a

THE YAKIMA DEMOCRAT,

JOHN DAVID MEDILL,

Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the North Yakima Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

One Dollar Per Year—In Advance.

Published every Saturday morning at the Democrat Printing House on First Street, North Yakima, Washington.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

On general principles the DEMOCRAT is opposed to issuing bonds, but still we are not opposed to bonds in all cases. Occasions arise sometimes when to vote bonds becomes a public necessity and therefore a public duty. Such is the case today in school district No. 7.

This city and its suburbs, which comprise school district No. 7, has more than doubled in population since three years ago. The result is, naturally enough, that we are long on pupils and short on school houses. The only remedy therefore is to provide more school room. Even if the $22,000 worth of bonds, asked for by the board, is granted at today's election and eight new school rooms are added to what we have the board will still be puzzled to know what to do to provide adequate facilities, for 16 additional rooms is really what is needed at the present time in order to provide properly for what pupils we now have in this district who number not less than 2000.

The policy of the school board under the direction of the citizen's meeting, held recently, in case that the bonds carry today, is to erect a four room building of brick or stone on the bench below Nob Hill, also a four room annex to the Columbia school building. Because that it is proposed to put both the new buildings on the west side some people are inclined to object on the ground that such a course is not fair to the east side. It may seem so at first glance but an analysis of the situation shows the matter in a different light.

Everyone, perhaps, will concede that the school buildings to be erected should be of a permanent character. At present there is a marked congestion of pupils in both sections of the district. It is impossible to relieve this congestion altogether this year by means of new building, even if such a plan is financially possible which it is not. Such being the case is it not better to relieve the congestion permanently in one section than to attempt to relieve it temporarily in both sections? The east side wants a new school house too, some people say. That is true enough, but it will be impossible to get it this year. Under present plans however, a new eight room school house can be built on the east side in 1904, which is as soon as anything can be done, for the district cannot legally secure the money to erect such a building this year. It is possible to find temporary quarters for school purposes on the east side in order to take care of the overflow, but it is impossible to find any such place on the west side.

It is to be hoped that our people will turn out today and vote in favor of this issue of bonds and the DEMOCRAT believes that they will. A great many of us, of course, hate the idea of voting more bonds, but how can it be avoided with justice to the school children? Let us take our medicine therefore and look pleasant.

It should be remembered that we all have a duty to perform to the rising generation and that is to give every child an opportunity to secure an education. In education lies the only hope of a republic; in fact of civilization itself.

The possibilities of vast political power in the rural free delivery will be better understood by a glance at the following appropriations to this branch of the postal service. The World's Washington correspondent points out that in 1897 the amount was $10,000; 1898, $50,000; 1899, $150,000; 1900, $450,000; 1901, $1,750,000; 1902, $3,993,740; 1903, $1,000,000; with a deficiency appropriation of $500,000 added; 1904, $12,000,000. The estimated cost of the service when it is completed as now planned will be $24,000,000 a year. This high government official is quoted by the World as authority for the charge that while the creation of the rural free delivery bureau found its inspiration in the demand of the farmers for increased mail facilities it was later transformed into a perfectly organized factional machine representing nearly 100,000 votes and was intended to be used as a club by members of the national republican committee and their aids who were secretly working against Mr. Roosevelt's nomination. It seems also to be admitted that the investigation was originally made for the purpose of destroying this political conspiracy and the World's correspondent, speaking on the authority of the high government official, says that in the uncovering of this conspiracy "the present investigators incidentally disclosed a system of graft in several branches of the postal service."

HARPER'S WEEKLY SAYS: Suppose it could be shown that Mr. Cleveland did not vote at all on those occasions (1896 and 1900). Must an ex-president's omission to vote be counted a betrayal of his party? The Omaha Bee retorts: "But we apprehend that it will take a bigger crevice than that to get Mr. Cleveland through the fence, although the question suggests a possible loophole by which the claim to party regularity may be set up. Omission to vote for president once might be ascribed to accident, but accidental omission to vote in two successive presidential years would look too gauzy."—Commoner.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT will doubtless make himself solid with the Jews as the outcome of the petition to the czar, at any rate. He will thus be able to overcome the damage to his political fortunes worked by Senator Joe Simon of Oregon.

On the other hand it is not likely that Russia will throw a fit as the result of American meddling with her private affairs for just now England and Japan are making faces at her and Russia can't afford to lose any friends. The Roosevelt luck is still on tap.

The most sensible suggestion yet made, we think, regarding the negro question is, that they may be colonized in the Philippines, with Booker T. Washington as governor. They would doubtless soon assimilate the Filipinos, as there is not the marked distinction between them as there is between the negro and a white race. The negro would have some sort of a future, before him, while here the antagonism is irreconcilable, and the more he strives the greater are the obstacles in his pathway.—Olympia Standard.

Such a scheme is not so chimerical as might seem at first blush. It is probably the best use that could be made of the Philippines which will always be more or less of a white elephant on this country's hands as long as it keeps them.

For fear the democrats should take a notion to nominate W. K. Hearst, whom they do not want, instead of Grover Cleveland, whom they do, the republican editors are beginning a campaign of personal abuse against the former. The Tacoma Ledger, past master in the art of innuendo and vilification, devotes a half column to dark hints as to the unkind things it will be obliged to say of Hearst and the wife he recently married, unless Mr. Hearst withdraws from the presidential race. That anyone who is at all familiar with the career of the New York congressman should attempt to "bluff" him is distinctly amusing.—Olympia Capital.

It seems to be up to Russia to decide as to whether there shall be war or not in the Orient. With both England and Japan demanding the evacuation of Manchuria it becomes a serious matter for the Bear to decide. To the uninitiated it looks as though Russia would either have to back down or fight. If the subjects of the Czar are forced to fight both Japan and England they will have no time for such little diversions as Jewish barbecues.

WALLA WALLA is just now in the throes of a municipal election and the political atmosphere over there seems to be highly charged with a sulphurous odor. The tribe of Ankeny and the tribe of Moore, are at each other hammer and tongs. Since the leader of each clan is a national bank president and is anxious to beat the political life out of the other it is pretty safe to assume that honest votes won't go a begging on election day.

THE city council of North Yakima at its last meeting unanimously voted in favor of the gas franchise. Perhaps the new gas works will aid in securing other industries that we need. At any rate the coming gas works is evidence that the town is growing and will continue to grow. At any rate that is the view taken by the shrewd promoters of the enterprise.

HIS HOLINESS, the pope, fighting valiantly for life at the advanced age of 93 commands the sympathy of the world. The Catholic church will be most fortunate indeed if the successor of Leo XIII shall prove to be as wise and as great a man as is the venerable Pontiff who seems near the end of his illustrious reign.

NATURE'S machinery seems to be slightly out of gear this season with the result that extremes of climate if they don't meet, certainly follow each other very closely. The man who panned his overcoat at the beginning of the glad springtime has been out of luck.

ACCORDING to the way the Tacoma News figures taking the school census of this year as a basis, Seattle now has a population of 100,000, Tacoma 60,000, Spokane 48,000, and Everett 20,000.

THE usual crop of accidents and mishaps seem to be lacking as the result of celebrating the fourth this year. It must be that the small boy is learning the ways of wisdom.

Washington Letter.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington D. C. July 2, 1903.

From a democratic standpoint the remarkable excess of receipts over expenses of the national government during the fiscal year just closed, upwards of $52,000,000 in amount, is but another proof of the necessity of some modification of the tariff schedules. It has long been maintained by the most able financiers and political economists that a just system of taxation consisted in taking from the people for administration purposes only that sum necessary to defray the expenses of the government, but the republican party, according to an able democratic statesman, has so involved itself in the protective system that it now finds it impossible to reduce the revenue without antagonizing some of the protected interests on whose liberal contributions to the campaign fund depends the perpetuation of republican administration. The present policy, according to this authority, is resulting in gross extravagance and actual waste of the people's money. It is, moreover, resulting in the hoarding in the treasury of gold which is needed in the business affairs of the country, and the lack of sufficient currency to transact business it is proposed to meet by a bill authorizing the issue of paper currency which will deposit as collateral thereof their state, county and municipal bonds. An attempt to reduce the revenue without offending the protected interests was made during the first session of the last congress when a material reduction was made in the internal revenue taxes but that did not prove sufficient. The next move will be the reduction of the tax on whiskey and beer as, according to the republican doctrine, no change must be made in the tariff schedules.

Senator Stewart, who is a staunch republican, makes the direful prediction that there is a serious panic but a short way ahead for the United States, a panic which the Aldrich bill might postpone but could not avert. The senator moreover expresses the belief that if the Aldrich bill is passed it will but furnish a little more currency with which to raise still higher the dam which is now holding back great quantities of watered stock and which he likens to the Johnstown, likely to break loose and flood the country at any minute. The Cannon policy of no financial legislation might, says Mr. Stewart, prove the means of letting the water out of stock gradually and might result in a less serious panic than must follow if Aldrich expedient is followed.

See C. H. Bruenn, the contractor, and get his estimate on that new house. 24th

The "Iowa Idea" Knocked Out.

The manner in which the "stand-patters" took Governor Cummins and his "Iowa Idea" in to camp on the tariff question is sufficient to arouse the mischiefs of an egg plant.

After all the Governor's brave words before convention time about "views not hastily formed or carelessly expressed, and which he expected to maintain in the future as I have in the past because I believe them to be true," for the honor of a renomination Governor Cummins eats his crow with all the disappointing gusto that marked a similar feat by Senator Hanna of Ohio.

While the Iowan loudly asserts his belief "that the mighty transformations of the last six years demand a change in some of the tariff schedules," he accepts the non-committal platform and listens to the unconcealed glee of the "stand-patters from Standpatville," as Congressman Lacy calls them, and suddenly discovers that he can "neither impugn any man's motives, question his integrity nor challenge his Republicanism because he does not agree with me concerning the application of the historic policy of the industrial world."

A blow in the neck has knocked the "Iowa Idea" out in Iowa and it is doubtful if it is strong enough elsewhere to cause the "stand-patters" any uneasiness.—Seattle Times.

Notice of School District Bond Election.

Notice is hereby given that a special election will be held at the Central school building, in School District No. 7, Yakima County, State of Washington, on the eleventh day of July, 1903, for the purpose of determining whether or not the directors of said district shall borrow money and issue bonds of the district in the sum of twenty-two thousand dollars ($22,000) for the following purposes to wit: First, To purchase a school site within the following described limits:

Beginning on the south side of the H. J. Snively residence property thence north to a point north of the C. P. Wilcox residence property; thence due east to the bench; thence following the contour of the bench in a southeasterly direction to a point due east of the point of beginning. THE CITY COUNCIL.

Gas Franchise Ordinance Passed, Street Improvements Ordered, Reports of Officers.

The city fathers convened in regular session Monday night and held a rather interesting session. Mayor Shaw presided and all the councilmen were present with the exception of Moran.

A petition was read from numerous property owners asking that a board sidewalk be built along the east side of South Third street between Maple and Race. The petition was granted as was also one asking for a walk on the west side of said street for the same distance.
A petition was also read and granted asking for the grading of South Second street from Walnut to Race.

A numerous signed petition was read composing a majority of the adjacent property owners asking for the creation of a sub-sewer improvement district for the purpose of laying a sewer in the alley between South Third and Fourth streets. The petition was granted.

The petition of Kellogg & Ford, laid over two weeks ago, for a saloon license in their building on South First street was granted.

The ordinance granting a 50 year franchise to Charles B. Hurley of Tacoma and associates to install and operate a gas plant with its connections within the corporate limits of this city was next taken up and read the second time by title. On motion of Liggett the ordinance was placed on its final passage and went through by a unanimous vote. The official publication of the ordinance is made in this paper.

A lengthy petition was read from numerous residents of Fairview asking that the city discontinue the practice of dumping garbage near the site of the present pest house as the smell of the decaying matter had become intolerable.

A petition was read signed by the officers of the Yakima Band asking for permission in behalf of the Southern Carnival Company to occupy a portion of certain streets from August 17 to 22 inclusive, the dates arranged for the street fair. Manager White and J. E.
Merwin addressed the council in favor of granting the privilege. The matter was finally compromised by placing it in the hands of the street and ditch committee with power to act.

T. D. Quinn, who resides on Cherry street, made a vigorous talk to the council on the necessity of opening up that thoroughfare to travel. This time-worn subject was then discussed at great length and it was again decided to leave the matter in the hands of the street committee and city attorney with power to act.

Reports of city officers for June were then read. That of the police judge showed that $410 had been collected in fines, $280 from prostitutes, $75 from gamblers and $55 miscellaneous. That of the marshal showed the same amount in fines, 41 vagrants out of town, 31 meals furnished to prisoners and 41 dogs destroyed. The sexton's report showed 12 burials in the city cemetery and $77 collected.

On motion of Liggett the city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance authorizing the establishment of a cemetery sinking fund for the purpose of meeting the cemetery indebtedness as the same falls due.

The franchise ordinance asked for by E. F. Murphy of Seattle to install a heating plant was laid on the table on motion of Liggett.

County Health Officer Frank then addressed the council on the vexed subject of disposing of the city garbage.
Dr. Frank stated that he had been instructed by the county commissioners to inform the council that a new dumping ground would have to be secured by the city as the fill being deposited on the present grounds south of town was a nuisance and a menace to public health.
The matter was discussed at length by the council. The city attorney was finally instructed on motion of Keck to examine the abstract of the Thomas property along the river bank and report with the view of purchase by the city.

Bids were then read by the clerk for building a sidewalk on the east side of South Fourth street. The contract was let to G. H. Moulton at 43 1/4¢ per foot.
The contract for building a board walk on the east side of Natches avenue from Spruce to Race street was let to John LaChance at 39 3/5¢ per foot.

On recommendation of the street and ditch committee the walk laid by J. F.
Kaufman in district No. 46 was accepted as was also the grading done in district No. 50 by Pettigrove & Daniels.

The monthly grist of bills for June was then read by the clerk and such as had been O. K'd by the finance committee were ordered paid. The council then adjourned.

thoroughfares be broken up for a distance of more than two blocks without special permission from the city engineer, to be given in writing, and in all such cases when it shall become necessary to dig ditches or excavate upon any of the avenues, streets, alleys, or public fore, without any unreasonable delay and to the force from and after five days from and after the date of its publication.

The Local Round-Up.

G. A. Lane, an attorney of Prosser, was in the city Tuesday on legal business.

A son was born Sunday, July 5, to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Courtright of Yakima City.

Sheriff Grant returned Friday from Billings, Mont., bringing with him J. R. Clayton, the missing tailor.

The handsomely finished new funeral car of Sessions & Gibrath arrived from the east Thursday. The new hearse is said to have cost $2000.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church are arranging to give a recital under the direction of Miss Maud Ferguson of Tampico. The date will be announced later.

Miss May, who recently resigned her position as assistant teacher of the High School has written friends here that she has accepted the position of principal of the High School at Victor, Col.

P. J. Flint states that he expects to begin marketing his early peaches about the middle of next week. The local crop of peaches promises to be better than was anticipated earlier in the season.

Members of the order of Elks are requested to be present at the lodge room in the Mason building at 1:15 Sunday afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late N. S. Johnson.

The dog poisoner is getting in his deadly work, and as a result the dog population on North Seventh street was materially decreased Tuesday night. Supt. Dickey lost two valuable dogs on that night.

The Lady Maccabees will give a charity ball at the armory Tuesday evening, July 14, the net proceeds of which are to be devoted to the benefit of the Heppner flood sufferers. Tickets 75c; spectators tickets 25c.

Hugh Purdin of the Wenas has a broken arm as the result of a ladder breaking under him while picking cherries the first of the week. Dr. Wells who has been attending the unfortunate man reports that he is now getting along nicely.

The Fourth was a comparatively quiet day in North Yakima. The joyous small boy, of course was in evidence with his fire crackers as was also the man with a "jag on." Good order, however, prevailed and comparatively few arrests were made.

M. W. Smith and H. VanHorn, two well-known ranchers of Kiona, were county seat visitors Tuesday and made the DEMOCRAT a pleasant call. Mr. Smith stated that in his opinion the wheat of Horse Heaven would average a good half crop this year. Harvesting will probably begin there in about 10 days.

Walker and Boag, the two Sunnyside ranchers arrested for fighting on Yakima avenue on the afternoon of the 3rd, as announced in the DEMOCRAT last week were fined respectively $5 and $25 by Police Judge Taggard. Walker openly accuses Boag of having broken up his home. The injured man has applied for a divorce and the custody of his two children, a girl and a boy, aged respectively six and eight years.

Maurice Evans, a prominent citizen of Prosser, was in the city Thursday and made the DEMOCRAT a pleasant call. Mr. Evans stated that the people of Prosser had now complied with all the conditions required by the promoters of the proposed beet sugar factory including the contracts with farmers for 3500 acres of beets and stock subscribed to the amount of $30,000. As a result the citizens of that town feel jubilant over the success that has crowned their efforts.

Work Done While Asleep.

Cabanis tells us that Franklin on several occasions mentioned to him that he had been assisted by dreams in the conduct of affairs in which he was engaged.

Condillac states that while writing his "Course of Studies" he was frequently obliged to leave a chapter incomplete and retire to bed, and on awaking he found it, on more than one occasion, finished in his head.

The most remarkable testimony of this kind is perhaps that of Sir Thomas Browne, who declared that, if it were possible, he would prefer to carry on his studies in his dreams, so much more efficient were his faculties of mind when his body was asleep.

Hysteria, In Dogs.

Nerves are the disease of the present day among human beings, but I did not know till recently that hysteria is also a malady of dogs. A friend of mine owned a dog which suddenly one day was seized with an attack of nerves. Since then it has been very ill, wandering incessantly round and round the room, refusing food, but still recognizing its owner. Another little dog suffered from hysteria in consequence of fright from railway traveling, and it really seems as though civilization, in rendering dogs more delicate and more susceptible, had done them a distinct physical injury. — London Graphic.

Work Planned Out.

"That was a pleasant gentleman you introduced to me."
"Yes; he has some excellent qualities. I am going to make something of him if he will let me."
"You make something of him? Why, he looks old enough to be your father."
"He is old enough. That's what I'm going to make of him—a father-in-law." — Kansas City Journal.

Plenty of Taste.

"Well," said Nuritch, who had been showing Kandor through his new house, "what do you think of the furniture?"
"They—er—show a great deal of taste," replied Kandor.
"Think so?"
"Yes; but it's all very bad."

No Cause For Complaint.

"So you resent these hints of dishonesty in the government?"
"Most emphatic," answered Farmer Cornstossel. "I've been buyin' postage stamps from the government for years and never got cheated yet." — Washington Star.

The Financial Scheme.

A Mexican reader of the Commoner asks whether the United States is on a gold standard. Our monetary system can hardly be called a complete gold standard, because while silver is not admitted to coinage on equal terms with gold (as it would be under bimetalism) still we have some $600,000,000 of silver which is a full legal tender except where contracted against, and so long as this silver is standard money and helps to support the credit money of the country the rigors of the gold standard are less felt. England has the gold standard complete. Gold is the only full legal tender, silver being subsidiary coin. There is no doubt that the advocates of the gold standard contemplate, first, the making of the silver dollar redeemable in gold; second, the withdrawal of full legal tender privileges from silver, and, third, the retirement of standard silver, but so far they have not dared to carry their theories to their legitimate conclusion. When the gold standard is fully rounded out gold will be the only legal tender and bank notes the only paper. Then the financiers of the world will control our paper money. And the people? Well, they will have nothing to do except work and make money for the financier—the Commoner.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. N. A. Jolly, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at Fred L. Janek's.
