Dear Mr. Relander,

Thank you for your letter of December 2; we are pleased to know that the window display on Pearl Street is causing some interest in the opening of the store.

Unfortunately we do not have any of the books you mentioned in stock at this time. However it is entirely possible that they may show up in future purchases, and we shall keep your list on file and notify you if we do get any of these books.

Although we are handling a certain amount of mail order business at this time (mostly of current books), we don't anticipate opening the store for retail sales until late spring of 1966. In the meantime, we will be glad to keep a look-out for the books listed in your letter, or to order current volumes for you.

Sincerely yours,

Anne S. Denman

P.S. We could, of course, get a modern edition of Mooney, The Ghost Dance Religion and the Sioux Outbreak of 1890; but we are assuming that you want an original edition.
