MENALKAS SELANDER is an artist who loves the scenic opportunities of the Pacific Northwest. His paintings and drawings are actual places, not ethereal compositions; possibly some spot which you have seen or would like to visit. They are presented in a manner which everyone can understand and recognize, for they are realistic. Mr. Selander is an Oregonian by birth who received his art training at the Art Institute of Chicago. After graduation he worked two years as a package designer for Montgomery Ward and three and a half years in an advertising agency in San Francisco. During World War II he served as a top gunner on a B-29 making missions from Guam. Mr. Selander has exhibited at the National Academy of Design in New York, the San Francisco Museum of Art and Oregon Society of Artists' shows. His one-man exhibits include the Gallery by the Sea at Delake, Elfstrom Galleries in Salem, the J. K. Gill Galleries in Portland, the Art Center at Klamath Falls and the Larson Museum and Gallery at Yakima.
