

Feb. 12, 1963

Washington Jockey Club,

634 Skinner Building,

Seattle, Wash.

Attn. manager.

Dear Sir:

A publication, called The "Washington Horse, reached the paper where I am city editor today addressed to one of our staffers, Paul George. It was his day off so I have not yet had a chance to look it over. But it seems something I wish for my research library which includes horses.

I am enclosing my check for $1.50 the price listed on the publication and hope a copy can be sent to my home address.

And for general information of any of your office interested, I am attaching a "promotion" sheet of "strangers on the Earth.

The chapter on "wild horses" (Hoofbeats on the Land) runs about 7,500 words. The entire paper back publication, a tribal project runs to 63,000 words.

Sincerely

Click Relander

1212 N. 32nd Ave., Yakima, Wash.