STATE OF WASHINGTON. )
 ) (ss.
County of King. )

C. H. Steffen, being first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: That he was the attorney in the estate of George Washington Carmack, deceased, being No. 31527 of the files of the Superior Court of King County, State of Washington, and as such, he did, on July 12, 1922, prepare a petition for Marguerite Carmack for her appointment as administratrix of said estate, with the will annexed; that said petition was on a regular printed form, prepared by the Clerk of the Superior Court of King County, State of Washington, and that in filling out said petition affiant made it appear that Marguerite Carmack was a resident of Seattle, King County, Washington, and at the time of his preparation of said petition he assumed, by reason of his long acquaintance with Mrs. Marguerite Carmack and George Washington Carmack, deceased, that they were residents of Seattle, King County, Washington; that when affiant had Mrs. Carmack sign said petition for her appointment as such administratrix he did not call to the attention of Mrs. Carmack that it was represented in said petition that she was a resident of Seattle, King County, Washington, but affiant assumed her residence to be a fact and Mrs. Marguerite Carmack had no knowledge that affiant was assuming her residence to be in Seattle, King County, Washington, for the reason that affiant had not specially called it to her attention that it was necessary for her to be a resident of Seattle, King County, Washington in order to make such petition for appointment as administratrix of the estate of George Washington Carmack.

Affiant further says: That thereafter and in October, 1922, this affiant did, upon ascertaining that Marguerite Carmack was a resident of California, so inform the Court and her appointment as administratrix of the estate of George W. Carmack in Washington was revoked, and H. S. Frye was appointed in her stead.

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this 28th day of May, 1926.
