Nevada H. Lillie being first duly sworn deposes and says:- That all cattle branded with an anchor brand - thus $\rightarrow$ - on left shoulder, ^{and slit in the right ear} now running on the Yakima Indian Reservation are the individual property of Josephine Lillie, and the said anchor brand with a slit in the right ear is the recorded brand of the said Josephine Lillie as the same appears of record in the office of the County Auditor of Yakima County Washington Territory; that the said Josephine Lillie is a half-blood indian of the Yakima Indian tribe, and is the lawful wife of the deponent, having been duly united in marriage under the laws of Washington Territory.

Nevada H. Lillie.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of March 1888.

R. B. Milroy,
Notary Public.

I, Josephine Lillie, above mentioned, hereby certify that the facts set forth above are true and correct, and that I am unable at present to appear before an officer to make affidavit thereto, but am willing to do so at any time.
Dated March 1st 1888,

Josephine Lillie.
