

Local History

Yakima Valley Regional Library

4 — YAKIMA REPUBLIC Tuesday, Jan. 6, 1959

MAIN FLOOR—The reading room of the new library with its adjoining reference, periodical audio-visual areas forms a large part of the main floor of the library. At the right are staff offices and to the rear is a staff area and bookmobile garage. At the left, bordering A Street, are the children's area, the young adult section and the new popular library. The library opens to the public tomorrow at 9 a.m. Formal dedication is scheduled Sunday.