Dear Click:

A friend from Winlock is very much concerned over an Indian who can repeat the Lord's Prayer in his dialect, and thinks it should be on a tape. A radio man in Chehalis wrote to a station in Yakima last May but that was the end of it. I told the Winlocker that if he would give me the name I'd pass it along to you, as you would know what to do about it and probably knew the Indian.

The name is Nip Wright, Route 7, Box 84, Yakima. Walt Purdin might be able to do something about it if you think it worth while. Nip may have something else worth preserving.

In the meantime, we'll hope for the best for the young man from Grandview who is hard at work at Issaquah.

Hastily
