he has been writing checks on certain banks in which he has no funds. He is the man who attempted to throw cold water on the good roads movement and said mean things about the North Yakima men who have been instrumental in creating interest in a good roads undertaking. Harris was influenced unduly by Editor Freeman, of the Farm and Home Journal.

Editor Harris has evidently played in very hard luck. He has been trying to operate a newspaper plant at the little village of Grandview in the lower valley. No doubt he has encountered rough sailing and collections were probably hard to make.

Such an unfortunate state of affairs embarrassed the newspaper man in a financial way. In the absence of funds to pay his own bills Editor Harris drew worthless checks on a bank in Sunnyside. For this transgression of the state law he is now in the toils of the law and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Taylor declares that he has a good case against Harris, and that furthermore, he intends to push it through with all due haste.

Editor Harris was arrested in Seattle last week. He says that he will have no trouble in getting sufficient funds to clear himself. If it is possible for him to straighten matters up satisfactorily to his creditors the probabilities are that he will not be prosecuted.

Dr. F. F. Gray, who recently arrived in North Yakima from Hudson, Wis., has completed a fine new home on Nob Hill and sent for his family.

One of the most notable weddings of the year occurred in this city last Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Helen Scott, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. The newly married couple are spending their honeymoon at Kachess lodge, experiencing the cordial courtesies of Captain and Mrs. J. W. Gale. They have rented the house of Engineer McCoulloh on North Naches for the present and will be at home there after September 1.

Hunters returning from a trip through the Upper Naches report that Indians camping on the headwaters of the river have been killing fish by dynamite. Thousands of fish, they say, have been slaughtered, the Indians smoking the larger fish.

Allen & Downs of Seattle have let the contract for the construction of their big ditch, which is to water 10,000 acres of land above Richland, and teams, men and grading outfits are on the ground. Fechter & Rudkin are running lines to water 4,000 acres adjoining this city and with railroad building and ditch construction Kennewick stock is soaring upwards.

COMPANY E WINS THE STATE RIFLE CONTEST

Team, Handicapped By Wind, Scored 1,359 Points Out of Possible 2,100.

Handicapped by a strong wind and new, untried model 1906 Springfield rifles in the hands of several recruits, Company E of North Yakima won the second annual competitive rifle shoot of the Washington national guard this morning, thereby retaining the governor's trophy and adding to the reputation of Company E as national militia rifle river Monday. The hopes that Company | The body of the boy was discovered A of Tacoma would rise above sevently place were shattered this morning when Sergeant J. I. Fitch missed eleven targets out of a possible twelve during the 1,000-yard slow fire event, thereby pulling down the total team score and giving Company A, signal corps, of Seattle, sixth place.

There were six events in the team shoot which began at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon and was not finished until late this morning. Company E was tied with Company A, signal corps, when the 200 and 400 yard slow fire events were completed Thursday, but pulled out of the hole early yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon had lead which could not be overcome by Company D, the closest competitor.

The shoot, which occurred Saturday, will in no manner compare with that of a year ago, when every man was acquainted with his piece and there were few recruits, but is is pronounced a great success, all things considered, by the officers in charge.

Captain F. T. Liggett, general inspector of rifle practice, was in the pit practically the entire time and the ten new Aiken rolling target frames worked perfectly. Adjutant General Ortis Hamilton was on the range yesterday and this morning, going to Camp David S. Stanley this afternoon. All officers of the guard who are here feel well satisfied with the work done and the showing made in the face of handicaps such as have never been known at previous shoots on this range.

The detailed score of Company E, which will keep the bronze figure of a kneeling soldier holding the colors, was as follows:

UNION LABOR STRONG FOR BRYAN.

Straw Vote Gives Democratic Candidate · Lead, Debs Second, Taft Third.

Union labor in Seattle, through its delegates in the Central Labor council Monday evening, expressed itself overwhelmingly in favor of the election of William Jennings Bryan to the presidency. A straw vote taken among the 51 delegates present showed that 31 would support Bryan, four were for Taft and sixteen for Debs.

According to a report received from New York at the labor temple, a vote was taken by the delegates to the Federated Trades council of that city. Sixty-three representatives voted. The result was, Bryan 51, Tart 1, Debs 11.

"Straw votes will be taken among all the representative labor bodies in the United States within the new few weeks," said Frank Cotterill, business agent of the Central Labor council. "According to the reports so far received, Bryan is far in the lead, Debs is second, and Taft simply nowhere. Mr. Taft will get a very small percentage of the labor vote in Seattle."-Seattle

MR. SPLAWN'S CANDIDACY

Now that the Hon. A. J. Splawn has nally decided to make the race for the nomination for governor on the demoe atic ticket it behooves the democrats or his home county on Senator Splawn's recount to get busy and to take a special interest in the result of the primaries to be held throughout the state eptember 9. A good way to begin is to join the membership of the Bryanplawn club and get in touch with the work being done by that organization.

Owing to the demands at present made upon his time by his business interests Senator Splawn will be unable to make a personal campaign over the state before the primaries are to be held. The time is too short to accomplish much in that direction anyway. Inasmuch as there are two opposing candidates in the field actively seeking the nomination it will thus be seen that there is urgent necessity for doing needed missionary work on the part of Mr. Splawn's local supporters, who have induced him to enter the race for gubernatorial honors.

Mr. Splawn, honest and capable old pioneer that he is, after having done so much for the people of the Yakima villey, is fairly entitled to all the help that his neighbors can give him in making his race. He has not pushed himself formard for this high honor and is making the race at a personal sacrifice. In fact he would not be a candidate were it not for the importunities of old time friends and neighbors who recognize the worth and the ability of the man; they believe in Splawn for they know that under any and all circumstances that he makes an honest effort to make good

In presenting Senator Splawn to the consideration of the democracy of this state as a suitable and winning candidate for the high office of governor the democrats of Yakima county do so with full confidence in the man and his ability to win at the polls even as against heavy odds. He is a man of strong character, genial manners and frank in speech. Just the sort of a man, in fact, to make a winning and enthusiastic campaign.

DON'T MIX IN IT.

The Democrat hopes that no democrat in Yakima county or the state will so far forget his manhood and his duty to his own party by permitting himself to be inveigled into participating in the republican primary for the purpose of voting for this or that republican candidate. Democrats who do so will be committing a grievious wrong and instead of helping their own party, will only succeed in injuring it, as well as their own good names. Even from the standpoint of expediency there is nothing to be gained by such a course. From the standpoint of public morality and Butler played in 1884, except that the of political decency it is no less than former is represented on the ticket by a crime.

There are some democrats in this county, it is said, who are desirous of casting a vote for Mr. Jones. There are other democrats that we know of in other counties who are desirous of casting a vote against Mr. Jones. Our advice, in both cases, unsolicited though it may be, is to FORGET IT. In other words, don't do it, even though you may be able to do so unchallenged and without the necessity of swearing falsely.

For his own part Mr. Jones has publicly said that he neither asks nor desires democratic support in the primaries. Even though he be a local man that statement ought to be sufficient notice to local democrats to keep hands off. As for voting for Senator Ankeny we fail to see why any self-respecting democrat should want to do so. Senator Ankeny, by the free use of his barrel and the political "pap" at his disposal, has actually accomplished more for political corruption in this state than any other hundred men who ever attempted to play the same game. In view of the record that he has made it is unpatriotic for republicans to advocate his re-election and it is doubly so for democrats to do so, for they have been trained in a better school and they know better.

The democratic party of this state has better men in the field who are election. He interviewed 50 men. Every avowed aspirants for the exalted office one of them, with the exception of one, of U. S. senator than are either Mr. said he would vote for Bryan and Kern. Jones or Mr. Ankeny. The democratic The lone anti-Bryan man said he would party of Washington contains within vote for Debs, if he had a vote. its membership a score or more of men Why not hurrah?—Washington Demowho would represent this state with far crat.

The Yakima Democrat more ability than either of the two re- HAVE HAD MUCH OPPORTUNITY. far Mr. Jones' campaign has been very publican candidates. In the event of Mr. Bryan's election to the presidency, a most probable event, a democratic senator could and would accomplish more for the state than would either Subscription $1.50 Per Year in Advance Mr. Jones or Mr. Ankeny.

Moreover, the democrats have plenty of candidates of their own to select from. They have two candidates for U. S. senator, three for governor and South First street, North two or more for nearly every other state office. One of the candidates for governor is a popular citizen of this county and certainly has a valid claim for support at the primaries from Yakima democrats at least, and he should re

Democrats, take our advice and don't run after false gods representing false principles or no principles. Stay with your own candidates and your own party and thereby make the best showing possible for use later in the campaign

THE HEARST "GROUCH"

Mr. Hearst, yellow publisher and political charlatan, it goes without saying, is merely out in this campaign to try to defeat William Jennings Bryan for the presidency. However, in the judgment of many shrewd politicians the effort that Hearst is making is very likely to cost Taft more votes than Bryan. In the state of New York, according to the calculations of the World the strength of the independence league was made up originally in the ratio of three democrats to two republicans, the most of the democrats who trained with Hearst being extreme Bryan men who were disgusted with the peculiar methods of Tammany. But since the Denver convention, says the World, the Bryan men in the league are showing a marked tendency to support Bryan regardless of what the so-called independence party may or may not do and that it is a mistaken idea to assume that Hearst can control them. They insisted loudly upon the indorsement of Mr. Bryan at Hearst's sideshow convention it Chicago, but the bitter antagonism to Bryan in that packed body has alienated them from further support of flearst and his schemes. But the republican nucleus of the independence league, naturally dissatisfied with the nomination of such a candidate as Secretary Taft, is very apt to continue in support of Hearst. In fact, it is a fair conclusion, strange as it may seem, that Hisgen, the Hearst nominee, will, in the last analysis, draw more votes from Taft on the one hand and Debs and Watson on the other than he can possibly secure at the expense of Bryan. Probably when the republican managers and editors are fully acquainted with the real situation they will promptly cease to coddle the yellow editor and will again renew their old habit of denouncing him as a "blatherskite and a political viper."

Whatever may be said in favor of Hearst the fact is now clearly evident that he is now actuated by spite. He the great Nebraskan declined to support his absurd candidacy for president before the St. Louis convention of 1904. The editor of this paper was a spectator at that convention and on two cr three occasions heard the hirelings of Hearst in their disappointed rage swear engeance against Bryan. That sentiment is directly responsible for the nomimation of the so-called independence ticket this year. It would be the irony of fate if the famous Hearst "grouch" instead of killing off Bryan politically, should aid the great commoner on his ugged pathway to the White House. Hearst is playing the role that Ben

WHY NOT HURRAH?

Bryan and Kern ratification meetings have been held recently by the demoerats of several Washington cities. Each was attended by a large crowd, and enthusiasm was not lacking. At each mention of the great commoner's name and that of the Indiana leader there was enough applause to satisfy all. Taft ratifications meetings have been lifeless

The president of the Musician's National Union, while in Seattle recently, addressel the heads of the different unions. He spoke before some 75 union leaders, urging that all union men be instructed to vote for Bryan and Kern. After the speaking a vote was taken. Twelve of the union men were for Taft and Sherman, eight for Debs and the remainder for Bryan and Kern.

Recently a prominent democrat of Seattle entered a barber shop where the barbers work. "How are you fellows on politics?" he asked the man who was shaving him. "Nine of us are for Bryan," the barber answered, "the other fellow doesn't know whether he'll vote for Taft or Debs."

Another Seattle democrat decided one day to ask every man he knew how he was going to vote in the presidential republican cause in this campaign is in who all seem to be of the opinion that the fact that we represent policies es- in order to assist Mr. Jones they must sential to the reform of known abuses," ridicule or browbeat someone else. It William Howard Taft overlooks the fact that the republican party has repres- Jones has eminent qualifications and ented these policies for the last 12 a record to work on, but he needs to be years,-that the abuses have been known most of the time, and that a considerable portion of the party has made a desperate but vain effort to have them reformed. An overwhelming majority of republicans in high places don't want any reform, and under the "standpat" leadership have prevented any reform, and will continue to prevent it as long as the republican party is in power. With all his might and main, President Roosevelt has given a fair initation of a republican trying to enforce "policies essential to the reform of known abuses," but the aggregate results have not been piled up so than any one can see them. No one will pretend that Mr. Taft can do more than Mr. Roosevelt, whose policies have been ignored or turned down by a republican congress and by the republican national convention, before it nominated Secretary Taft.-Seattle Times.

Oscar H. Neil, editor of Nya Varsden New World), a Swedish paper, published at Bellingham, has filed his declaration of candidacy for the office of governor on the republican ticket. Then immediately the query began of "Who in the d- is Oscar H. Neil?" This inquiry, it appears, is just what the candidate wanted. In an interview this ingenious Swede explains that he is simply running for governor as a business proposition, his object being to advertise his newspaper. He admits that his candidacy is not serious and that he does not expect to secure the support of his felow-countrymen in his own ward. However, it cost him but $60 to file, he says, and the advertising he will get out of it will be worth ten times that amount to him. Such a foolish joke as Mr. Neil's candidacy is an apt illustration of the necessity that exists for amending the primary law in order that self-seeking adventurers may be kept off the official ballot.

Mr. Roosevelt is said to have cussed most vigorously when word reached him in his summer capital at Oyster Bay that Judge Grosscup in language cutting and sarcastic had kicked over Judge Landis' Standard Oid decision. Forgetting for the moment his oft repeated sentiment of "respect for the courts" that he has often used as a bludgeon on the heads of offending democrats, the impulsive Theodore talked for publication in a manner that relieved his overburdened mind. He even intimated that the judge rendering the decision is but a mere creature of the interests. This latest evidence of presidential displeasure has moved some of the more bold of the plutocratic mewspapers to broads "sore" at Bryan and has been since by hint that Mr. Roosevelt is clearly guilty of "contempt of court" and that justice would not be going far astray if the president should be summoned to appear before Judge Groscup and forced to answer to that serious charge. Now wouldn't that jar you?

> Judge Taft is plainly worried about his own state of Ohio, and there is reason for worry on his part. Ohio is more nearly a doubtful state today than ever before in her history. There are 72,000 negro voters in Ohio and the great majority of them are "sore" at Mr. Taft for drawing the color line against their race. If one half of them vote against the heavyweight candidate he will fail to carry Ohio. Another cause for grief in the "Buckeye" state is the hostile attitude of union labor. This element appears to be more active in its opposition to Taft in his own state than in any other, a fact that is probably due to a keen remembrance of the candidate's anti-labor decisions during the 11 years that he sat on the bench in that state. That union labor, which is a powerful factor in Ohio politics, will cut Taft severely at the polls seems reasonsure about his own state, certainly not!

Japan, it seems, is planning for a slight naval demonstration on her own account. When the American fleet reaches Tokio the Jap fleet in all its pride and glory will be drawn up in fine array to meet it, and to impress our naval warriors, too, if you please. This is likely to give Cap. Hobson another spasm of pain and set the hero caught Taft trying to make away with of the Merrimac to going again.

Hon. Lee A. Johnson, candidate for congress, according to all reports, is making a red hot campaign for the coveted nomination. He was up in Stevens county last week extending the "glad hand" in all directions. The indications are, with four Spokane aspirants in the field, that Mr. Johnson will win the g. o. p. nomination. The election? Well that is quite another matter.

We should be preased to reprint some good editorial concerning Congressman Jones, but it seems that the papers throughout the state that are boosting for Mr. Jones contain a roast for some other candidate in the same article. So

In saying that "the strength of the poorly managed by his press agents, is a poor policy and will not win. Mr. saved from some of his fool friends .-Dayton Chronicle.

Judge Taft's speech of acceptance was long drawn out and dreary document that seems to have fallen pretty flat on the public. Apparently few people have read it, owing to its excessive length, as to do so meant taking a day off. Judge Taft lacks the happy faculty possessed by T. Roosevelt, his political godfather, of expressing himself clearly in few words. It is passing strange that when he took the written speech to Oyster Bay that his strenuous chief did not make him cut it down about two thirds.

Judge Grosscup's decision knocking out that $29,240,000 fine against the Standard Oil company is likely to make 100,000 votes for Bryan, shrieks a republican exchange. Yes, very likely it will do better than that, a fact that will vindicate Judge Landis' fine in the long run, even if Uncle Sam don't get the money. If the fine had to be paid the public would have to foot the bill. As it is now they won't have to pay it, thank Heaven-and besides, it has opened their eyes to the truth.

It is understood here that Walter J. Reed, on account of ill health, has withdrawn as a candidate for the republican nomination to the state senate and that S. J. Cameron has filed at Olympia for the place. The fight therefore in the g. o. p. primary for the senatorial nomination will be between Mr. Cameron and S. J. Harrison, of Sunnyside. There ought to be something doing under such conditions.

Col. Robertson, recognized republican boss of this county and local manager for "Senator" Jones, has served notice on the wicked democrats that they will be monkeying with the buzz saw if they are caught trying to "manipulate" the g. o. p. primaries. How suspicious of all mankind the tall boss seems to be since the notorious "Boss" Croker turned the spotlight on him.

On Saturday, July 25, a poll on presiential preferences was taken of the nembers of a certain labor council of Seattle and the vote is said to have resulted as follows: Bryan 53, Debs 3, Taft 4. No doubt this is not indicative of the real sentiment of the labor unions as a whole in this state, but it shows which way the wind is blowing.

The announcement of Mr. Splawn's andidacy for governor has been joyousy received not only in Yakima county, but in nearly every section of the state By many of the democratic leaders of this state Mr. Splawn is regarded as ideal candidate, one who would be strong with the people and the man most likely to win at the polls.

All democrats this year should conribute according to their means to the democratic campaign fund. It takes money to conduct a legitimate campaign and the campaign committees want money for no other purpose. The editor of this paper is authorized to collect subscriptions for the use of the state central committee.

Has anybody gently whispered it in your ear that Washington is a doubtful state this year? If not take our word for it that it is. Bryan, the candidate of the common people, is growing in strength in this state every day. Any man who travels about any and fails to get wise to that fact is by no means close observer.

Banker Sheldon, treasurer of the re publican national committee and the man who is expected to fry the fat this year, is according to the N. Y. World, ably sure. Oh no! Mr. Taft don't feel the right man for the place. Sheldon, it says, knows the way in and out of every trust headquarters in Wall and Broad streets, and his motto is "Get Judge Taft shows plainly a disposition to swipe some of Mr. Bryan's principles for his own campaign use, just the same as his political mentor, T. Roosevelt, did before him. But Bryan has th estolen goods and very cleverly turned the spotlight on him.

The Standard Oil trust having escaped the payment of that $29,000,000 fine. will doubtless now be willing to do the right thing by contributing generously to the g. o. p. campaign fund. It ought to do it anyway if it has any sense of gratitude for favors received.

In other lines there is no activity at this time. Meats remain practically unchanged in price. FERNIE IN HARD LUCK.

Fernie, B. C., the main seat of the coal mining industry in the Crows Nest country, was practically wiped out by a huge and devastating forest fire Saturday, August 1. Under a heavy wind and other favoring conditions a forest fire under terrific headway jumped across Elk river and consumed the town, driving its 6000 inhabitants into the neighboring mountains in the mad effort to find safety. About 60 lives are believed to have been lost at Fernie, while it is thought that 100 others perished by fire in other settlements in the Elk valley. The property loss is estimated at from five to eight million dollars. The people of Spokane and of neighboring cities quickly furnished necessary relief in the way of money, food and clothing. Considering its youth, Fernie has had its share of misfortune, as the following record will show:

Founded in 1897. May 22, 1902. Explosion in No. 2 mine killed 128 men.

We note from a recent issue of the Van Wert (Ohio) Republican that Mr. Forrest H. Sweet and wife, have left that city to make their future home in or near North Yakima. Mr. Sweet is an attorney by profession and intends to follow his practice in this city. He will also look after a fruit farm that his father owns in this vicinity. #### DITTER MEMORIAL ALTAR.

The Ditter family of this city, ineluding Mr. Henry Ditter, his two sons, Phil and Joe, and his daughter, Mrs. Anna Donovan, have erected in St. Joseph's Catholic church of this city a most beautiful memorial altar in memory of the late Mrs. Henry Ditter, who died three years ago. It is understood that the altar will be formally dedicated sunday, August 16.

The altar is 24 feet in height and is constructed of carved wood in beautiful designs with pure onyx pillars, columns and trimmings. It is said to be a beautiful work of art and was constructed under contract at Dubuque, Iowa. A. E. Howard is setting up the new altar. Father Brusten and the members of his church generally are delighted with this beautiful gift to the church from the Ditter family. The new altar is necessarily a very expensive one.
