OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

BEFORE another issue of this paper goes to press, the battle of the ballots will have been fought and won, or else fought and lost. Whether a glorious victory is to be gained in behalf of the common people by the tripartite alliance, or an ignominious defeat to be suffered by them, depends entirely upon the fusionists themselves. They have an unquestioned and admitted majority in both this county and state: but that is no reason why any man who calls himself a reformer should not pull off his coat, roll up his sleeves and go to work with a will, to help pull through every man on the People's ticket. Let there be no trifling or faltering, or offering to trade with the enemy—for we have nothing to trade for and they nothing to hope for without trading. Every man on the fusion ticket from supreme judge down to constable, is the open and avowed enemy of the gold standard and hates it, for its injustice to the poor. On the other hand, every man on the republican ticket, is either a firm believer in that obnoxious standard, or else is a feeble apologist for it, and a defender of the pernicious system. Free silver versus the gold standard is none the less the issue to day than two years ago, and it will continue to be the central issue, until it is finally settled, and settled right. If the republican party succeeds generally in this campaign, they will immediately undertake to more firmly establish the gold standard, and will begin by destroying the greenbacks, and turning over to the National banks, the sole function of issuing paper money. This is unquestionably the Hanna scheme, and if carried out, will very probably entail more misery upon the human family during the next twenty-five years, then would all the wars and pestilence in the world combined.

THE publication in THE EPIGRAM last week of Senatorial candidate Baker's unseemly record as a railroad man, while a member of the last legislature, has begun to bear its fruit. Numerous farmers in this valley, of republican proclivities, as well as a number of progressive business men in this city, have announced the fact that they cannot support Mr. Baker; while many others remain silent, but are none the less determined to quietly resent his candidacy at the polls. The most of our people realize that a just and proper solving of this disturbing and oppressing rate question means far more to the future of Yakima than does the personality of the next united states senator. These patriotic republicans know full well that they cannot trust a man with such a record as Mr. Baker has made. They realize that he is bound hand and foot to the railroad, and that if elected, he has no choice but to do its bidding, and that for four more years, we must sit still and see ourselves rankly misrepresented in the state senate. They know that they have a recourse in voting for Mr. Brooks, who is a silver republican, an antimonopolist and above all else an honest man. They also feel that he is a man who can be trusted to stand by the people against a grinding corporation. Mr. Brooks will receive the votes of these men, in addition to his full party vote, which will give him such a decisive lead, as to enable him to easily overcome the adverse majority in his own beknighted county of Klickitat.

A READERLESS goldbug paper, published in Goldendale, known as the Sentinel, attempts to call THE EPIGRAM down this week, for so completely showing up the record of its patron saint, Baker. The patent outside organ insinuates to its readers that this paper has been guilty of lying about Mr. Baker and his record in the legislature. Oh! Oh! How it does hurt; but the record is here, gentlemen. You can't go behind the record. Of course it makes heart aches, and brings forth curses on our luckless head; but the record stands as a silent witness against your man, just the same. Instead of lying about him, we have not told more than half the truth which the House Journal contains about his votes. We challenge any man to show by the record, where this man Baker ever voted for any railroad bill in the house. As a man sows, so shall he reap.

DON't trade off any reform candidate. No reformer can do so without being guilty of treason to his principles, his party and the cause of good government. Vote it straight. An X in the bracket to the right of the name Peoples Party will do the business.

MR. BROOKS has no pass, and has never had one, and the Republic knows it. Yet they deliberately send out that roor-back to injure him.

VOTE IT STRAIGHT!

VOTE IT STRAIGHT!

A GREAT many republicans in this valley, are just now wondering what on earth their party ever nominated a man like Baker for any way, and thereby forced them in self-defence to vote for a fusionist.

WAGERS are being freely offered here and at other points in the state, on the success of the fusion state ticket, with apparently no takers. Betting of itself of course is no argument, although this year it seems to illustrate the confidence in our party, and the total lack of it in the other.

THE republican spell-binders throughout the county, during the past week, have been kept busy trying to explain away Baker's record, and incidentally cussing THE EPIGRAM, for having called the public's attention to it. But the record still stands in all its hideousness, and the attempt of these gentlemen to doctor it up is quite amusing, to say the least.

THE REPUBLIC makes a whining plea this week for fusionists to vote for Jones on account of local pride. The organ cites the case of Mr. Snively to prove that we all ought to vote for Jones. Rest easy, Brer Sperry we're all going to vote for Jones, and he will be elected too, and this is the way he will write his name when he gets to the National Capital. W. C. Jones, M. C.

GRANDPA BARGE of the federal brigade, in the course of a recent speech delivered at Selah, attempted to make "Klickitat" Baker's odoriferous railroad record look as white as snow. He is reported to have said, that THE EPIGRAM, which exclusively published the record, was a nasty little sheet, that amounted to nothing. Well! well! If that be true, why did the gentleman stop to discuss us; or find it necessary to white-wash Baker's record?

LET no man who regards himself as a fusionist or reformer, allow himself to be tricked, by any member of the opposing party, into trading off or scratching any candidate on the People's ticket. The republicans themselves entertain no hope of electing the major part of their ticket. They are working solely on the basis of securing sufficient help from the fusion ranks, to elect their two candidates for the legislature and sheriff. You can defeat this scheme, by voting your ticket straight. fusionists.

Additional Local.

T. A. Davis has moved his marble works from North First street to a location one block north of THE EPIGRAM office.

James Thomas on Tuesday while picking apples at Yakima City, fell from a stepladder and broke his leg. He is resting as easily as could be expected.

Hon. N. B. Brooks, the fusion candidate for the state senate, has been speaking nightly this week to crowded houses in the lower end of the county.

C. A. Anderson, of the St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Co., has sufficiently recovered from injuries received at Sunnyside last week, to be at his place of business.

A hobo fell from the west bound overland train Friday night between Yakima City and North Yakima and had a leg broken. He is now in the hospital.

T. Manning, of the Wenas, returned last week from his visit to Dallas, Texas, bringing with him several curiosities including a centipede and a branch of cotton.

Hon. T. M. Vance and Hon. A. L. Slemmons will close the campaign in this city at Mason's opera house, on Monday evening, Nov. 7. Everybody is invited to attend.

H. F. Bean, former janitor at the court house, came up from Yakima Saturday and spent Sunday with his family in this city. He is employed in a store in Yakima.—Ellensburg Localizer.

E. B. Preble and Fred Miller returned Tuesday night from the lower end of the county, where they have been holding large meetings nightly in the interest of the fusion ticket.

Services at the M. E. church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 30 p. m., Sunday school at 10 a. m. Class meeting at 12. Junior League meeting at 2.30 p. m., Epworth League devotional meeting at 6.30 p. m. A beautiful installation service will occur at the close of the morning service. Our church home is always open to strangers and visitors.

Lillian Thompson, the eldest of the Thompson tots, with the "Pulse of New York" company died at Seattle on Sunday last, suddenly. The mother of the child had the body embalmed and taken to Boston, Mass., for interment. The Thompsons will not again return to the stage. It is probable that the death of the little one was due to overwork, she being but 9 years of age and taking one of the leading characters in the play.

Chaplain Lozier gave what might be called a lecture or recital at the M. E. church on Tuesday evening, which was very highly appreciated by all who heard him. The speaker referred to the fact that his son had been with the troops at Porto Rico, and had recently returned at the point of death. That his illness was caused, as was the case with most of the soldiers, on account of the bad quality of the food furnished and the absence of medicine.

The frame work of the new depot is now fast approaching completion under the able management of Contractor Switzer. The building when finished will not be the stately and imposing edifice which the public citizens of Yakima had long hoped for; but still it will be infinitely superior in every way to what we have now, and when the old eyesore, which has for so long obstructed our principal thoroughfare, is removed, and the avenue made, as it always should have been, the great connecting link between the two sections of the city, the town will henceforth have an opportunity to grow in a natural way.

Company E, together with the rest of the First Battalion, First Washington volunteers, composed of Companies A, B, D and E, sailed from San Francisco at midnight of Friday last for Manila. Letters to members of Co. E should be addressed, (name and military designation, giving company and battalion) Philippine Islands, via San Francisco. It takes from thirty to forty days for a letter to go from San Francisco to Manila owing to the delay at Hong Kong, which is not usually longer than three days.

A ROTTEN RECORD.

Unsavory Showing of Candidate Baker on Railroad and General Legislation, While a Member of the Last Legislature.

Below we print the record of George Herbert Baker on important legislation, in which the people of this county feel a deep and vital interest. Never once did this man during the progress of the long fight over in the legislature, ever utter a word, or cast a vote in favor of the poor people of Central Washington who are ground down by the unreasonable exactions of the Northern Pacific. Do the honest farmers of Yakima county who have suffered so long and so much from this grinding octopus, want a servile agent of this giant corporation to represent them in the senate; and do the railroad's bidding for four long years, simply because he may happen to belong to the same party as themselves? If they do, they ought to vote for Mr. Baker. But let them first read his record on railroad legislation which we have copied from the official House Journal.

House Bill No. 420, page 677—a bill known as the "three cent passenger rate bill" passed, ayes 59; noes 5. Absent or not voting, 14; 57 fusionist voted for the bill and 2 republicans. THE NAME OF G. H. BAKER WAS NOT AMONG THOSE SUPPORTING THE BILL.

House Bill No. 417, page 560. A bill for the reduction of freight rates. Passed the house, ayes, 59; noes, 17. Absent or not voting 2. Only one republican, Libby, of Jefferson county, voted for the bill. BAKER AND ALL OTHER REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST THE BILL.

House Bill No. 176, page 296. A bill to prevent public officials from riding on passes, in accordance with the state constitution. Passed the house, ayes 65; noes, 8. Absent or not voting 5; 4 republicans voted in favor of the bill. BAKER DODGED THE VOTE.

House Bill No. 54, page 928. A bill to compel railroads to maintain cross ties. Lost—BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 99, page 406. A bill to compel railroads to put in transfer switches. Passed house. BAKER AND TWO OTHER REPUBLICANS VOTED NO.

Senate bill No. 141, page 876. A bill to exempt executions. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 398, by Eugene Way, providing for submission of constitutional amendment. BAKER VOTED FOR IT. (This is what the republicans call the single tax amendment.)

House Bill No. 517, page 902. A bill to regulate telegraph charges. Passed house. BAKER VOTING NO.

House Bill No. 244, page 431. A bill to prevent usury. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 447, page 783. A bill to compel payment of wages is lawful money. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 151, page 890. Passed. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 418. A bill to regulate and control insurance companies. Passed. BAKER VOTED NO.

And this is only a part of Statesman Baker's unsavory record.

A Fine Body Of Men is The People's Party Ticket.

The Peoples Party ticket in both state and county in this campaign, is one in which every loyal member of the great fusion party ought to take a commendable pride. Beginning with the name of that great tribune of the people, James Hamilton Lewis, clear down to Wash Jewell a candidate for constable, it will be seen that every man on the ticket is an honest representative of what the ticket and the party stand for. Col. Lewis and Hon. W. C. Jones are so well known, as to need no further reference here, except to record our opinion that notwithstanding the bitter and unrelenting fight that has been made upon them, they will be triumphantly elected next Tuesday, by any where from seven to ten thousand majority. And as for our two splendid candidates for supreme judges, the Hon. M. M. Godman and the Hon. B. F. Heuston, against whose good names, and great abilities no republican can offer a word in condemnation, they will also unquestionably be elected, by as equally emphatic majorities; so that grandpapa Anders will undoubtedly be given an opportunity to go back to work on his Walla Walla ranch.

Coming down to the joint senator it seems very unlikely that such an upright talented and popular candidate as N. B. Brooks could meet defeat at the hands of a man who is in every way so much his inferior, and with an indefensible record as well. Some of Mr Brooks' friends here believe that his majority in this county will reach four hundred.

The fight between Colby and Englehart for the honor of being representative, is a pretty one, although the former is generally conceded to have the best of it. Still if the republicans succeed in voting a large proportion of the floaters in the county, as many of them claim that they will, they may even up matters a good deal.

Charles R. Donovan is the stalwart and good looking candidate of the fusion party for treasurer, is expected by all of his friends to win the race in a canter. Mr. Donovan has been the efficient and accommodating deputy of Treasurer Bartholet for the past four years and during that time he has made host of friends, both in and out of his party, who will stay by him. That he will make an honest and capable official no one who knows the man can doubt.

For the office of sheriff, it is of course Shaw against the field. Jack Shaw has probably made the best and most economical sheriff that this county has ever had. Such a record, taken together with his conceded fitness for the office, his great popularity throughout the county, and the splendid work being done for him by his friends will it is believed easily continue him in his present station for another term, although the goldites are making great boasts about Tucker winning the race.

As for the offices of clerk and auditor, for which J. R. Coe and A. B. Flint are the people's candidates and George Allen and Edward Kelso the republican candidates, the probabilities all point to the election of the two former; although Messrs Allen and Kelso are making a plucky and determined fight. Coe and Flint have made such splendid records, that most voters outside of the politicians, concede them another term.

Honest John Lasswell the popular candidate for assessor, has made such a splendid showing in his office, during his two years, that very few taxpayers would care to have him leave, except perhaps the corporations and their agents.

F. H. Plumb, our present able and scholarly superintendent of schools will of course be his own successor, as there are very few in the county who desire any change in that office. The genial Professor has by dint of hard and patient labor, placed the schools of the county on a higher plane than they have ever been before, and a change now would be a serious detriment to the welfare of the schools.

H. F. Marble, the present and future county surveyor, has, so it is generally conceded, made one of the best surveyors that Yakima county has ever had. His re election is everywhere conceded.

Louis Ker, an old pioneer of this valley is the present efficient coroner and is probably as popular with the people, as any coroner could be. He will be his own successor.

The two candidates of the fusion party for the extremely important offices of county commissioners are J. P. McCafferty in the first and Stephen Schreiner in the second district. Both are well known pioneers and are large taxpayers, and if elected as we believe both will be, the people of the county may congratulate themselves on securing men of such well known integrity and good business sense, to administer and watch over the affairs of the county.

For justices of the peace, the fusionists of the city precincts have put forward the present well known and popular incumbents G. H. Moulton and J. C. MacCrimmon. These gentlemen by their fairness and sense of justice, have given the public perfect satisfaction in those trying positions, and it is the sense of the local bar, as well as the people generally, that they ought to be continued in their present positions, which at best are not very lucrative.

For constables, Frank E. Craig and Wash J. Jewell are the fusion nominees, and two better fitted or worthier men would be hard to find. Mr. Craig is at present serving in that capacity, and has made a number one officer. Mr. Jewell while a new nominee, has before had experience in the office, and is well qualified to fill it. Both will undoubtedly be elected. This is the kind of a ticket which the reform party offer the people for their suffrages. The candidates themselves represent the principles of the party. That every man of them will be elected next Tuesday is almost an absolute certainty.

A Very Tame Affair.

Ex-United States Senator John B. Allen, spoke to a good audience at Mason's opera house on Friday night. The distinguished speaker was in bad voice, which made his words grate rather harshly on the ears of his audience. On the whole, however, the address was a vast improvement on, and made a much better impression than was the case with either that of Cushman or Humphrey, who preceded him here. Senator Allen, of course, did not descend to the coarse abuse, or indulge in the billingsgate that either of the former speakers did, although his speech was fully as empty in argument, and as guiltless of reason as were those of his predecessors. He devoted most of his time in praising the patriotism and great statesmanship of the president, and appealed to everybody to vote the goldbug ticket, in order to hold up his hands. He had but little to say about the financial issue, except to reiterate the oft repeated statement that the "Silver issue was dead," although he did not offer to explain why he had so persistently voted in favor of silver, during his brief term in the senate.

Like the shrewd politician that he is, it seemed to be his studied purpose, to draw the minds of his auditors away from the main issue and have them believe that the hopes and destiny of the people depended, on our government swiping the Philippines. He made a special plea in conclusion, for the election of "Yakima" Jones and his boy running mate, saying that the honor and good name of the state depended on their selection, which caused an amused titter in the audience. After the agony was over, R. K. Nichols the presiding officer came forward and excited a good natured laugh by proposing three cheers for "Yakima" Jones, and Bill McKinley. The crowd, anxious to make its escape, responded with a whoop, and inside of three minutes the big house was empty.

Still a Name to Conjure With.

A good story comes to us from Tampico concerning the unhappy experience of a Yakima republican orator, who evidently had not attended candidate Cushman's great debate here two years ago. The aforesaid orator who was instructing and entertaining a Tampico audience on this particular evening, with tall stories about the war, and the imperishable glory won by the administration, in an evil moment happened to mention the name of Bryan. At once the audience caught the magic name, and the orator simply had to quit while the air was full of hurrahs and huzzas given freely in honor of the soldier statesman. When the applause died away, the orator was allowed to proceed, but he did not, so we are informed, refer to the great Brynn again.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

J. N. Mull last week received through the Wallace-Coburn Hardware company a new steam wood saw of the latest make.

J. L. Stackhouse, with a corps of surveyors, leaves in a few days for southern Idaho, where he has a year's work on railroad surveys.

H. A. Smull, the well known night watch, is receiving the congratulations of his friends over the late arrival of a new son and heir.

The "sere and yellow leaf" is raising the mischief with streets and lawns these days, and the office devil muttered something about the trees turning red on account of their naked limbs.

D. C. Stone, Harry Stone and D. F. Bunnell returned Sunday from the mouth of the Yakima river, with sixteen geese and a number of ducks. They report game plentiful.

Allen R. Dennis and Miss Mary Gallagher were quietly married Saturday night, Rev. Father Domeat, officiating. The young couple left the same night for Seattle where they will make their future home.

W. H. Paulhamus, formerly deputy sheriff of Pierce county, has been in the city for several days. It is rumored that he is here as a political agent, and doing some smooth work in the interest of the Northern Pacific railroad.

Commission men are kept busy these days shipping hay, hops and apples to sound points, and, as a stranger remarked recently, a visit to the west side is sufficient to tell one wherein lies the wealth of Yakima valley. It is a hard matter to get cars as fast as they are demanded by shippers.

Harry Griffin, T. R. Fisher and I. H. Dills spent several days in the lower county this week hunting ducks and geese. The outcome of this excursion may be another challenge for the county medal which is held by Mr. Griffin, who owing to the value of the trophy, will make every effort to keep it in his possession.

There was quite a jail delivery from the county bastille on Monday. Deputy Marshal Dilley took eleven prisoners to Walla Walla for trial before the United States court, Marshal See took one to Missouri, and three were discharged, sentence having expired. However, as there are eight more culprits left awaiting trial next month, the sheriff and his deputies do not feel at all lonesome.

Dick Ball, who is superintending the construction of the bridge at the mouth of the Rattlesnake, across the Natchez river, was in town the latter part of the week, and informed THE EPIGRAM that that structure was about completed—this week probably, would finish the work. By the way, Mr. Ball, while in town tried to secure a house for the winter, but was unsuccessful, and is figuring on building.

R. E. See, marshal of the supreme court of Missouri at Jefferson City, arrived Sunday night to take into custody George Morgan alias Billy Atkins, who was convicted of working the gold brick racket in Macon, Mo.; had appealed his case to the supreme court and in the meantime skipped his bond. He is also believed to be connected with a notorious band of crooks in that state, which makes his capture very important. Mr. See gives great credit to Sheriff Shaw for having apprehended this dangerous man. Sheriff Shaw arrested Morgan about a month ago on the charge of shoplifting, he having swiped several articles from the New York store. From papers found on the fellow the sheriff suspected that he was wanted some place for a serious crime, and by telegraphing soon found that he was wanted badly in Missouri, for the reason stated above. Marshal See left on Monday night with his prisoner for Jefferson City. The latter agreed to go without the formality of extradition papers.

Some two weeks ago there appeared in this city an individual styling himself Dr. Chas. R. Love, and represented that he was sent out by Miss Barton, of the Red Cross society to engage nurses to go to the Philippine islands. It is alleged that he has been working on the patriotic feeling of the women, and taps them for small loans. According to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, Mrs. George Courter fell a victim to his persuasive tongue to the tune of $35. Mrs. Courter becoming suspicious of "Dr." Love, wrote to a Yakima friend, from whom Love bore a letter of introduction to her, and learned that the "Dr." had borrowed $35 from her, but that she thought he was all right. The Seattle paper devotes a couple of columns to the fellow and prints a picture of him. He wears a regulation Red Cross uniform and walks with a crutch. His sojourn in the Northwest will be brief. Pass him along.

Martin Mulkern, known about town as "Little Martin," was the victim of a painful accident at the Richelieu restaurant, on Sunday night. A party of young men occupied a box eating a late supper, when Martin and a companion came in and took seats in the main dining room, and having been drinking were in a talkative mood. The young men in the box were "chaffing" the little Irishman, who, upon finishing his meal, stepped to the entrance of the box and separated the curtains, when he was given a push by one of the occupants, falling to the floor in such a manner as to break his leg a few inches above the ankle. There are a number of stories out about the manner in which the accident occurred, but THE EPIGRAM has taken pains to obtain the true statement, which is given above.

A GREAT ACTRESS COMING.

Janet Waldorf in Romeo and Juliet.

Now and then we have the pleasure of announcing the coming of a great actor to North Yakima, last season Mr John G. Ritchie, of New York City, brought us Frederick Warde and we all remember the splendid performance he gave of Virginius. Next Friday November 11, Mr. Ritchie brings us a great actress, Janet Waldorf, who will be seen as Juliet, Shakespeare's greatest heroine. Romeo and Juliet is the play and Miss Waldorf comes to us endorsed by the large newspapers of the east and west as one of the greatest actresses upon the stage today and her company is said to be nearly perfect. The company includes a number of New York favorites among whom may be mentioned William McVay late leading man for Margaret Maiber. Norval McGregor a prominent and much liked juvenile man, Allan Dunn, George Hernandez, W. D. Adams, Walter Adnan, Ellen Boyer, Louise Compson and Ada Dow-Currier, one of the best known actresses in the country. The success of this company in Butte City, Spokane, Helena and other large cities has been tremendous and we hope this distinguished actress will meet with the greeting here of which she is worthy.
