

TEST QUESTIONS FOR INQUIRERS.

ANXIOUS FRIEND, these questions are for you, to lead you to think, and to think right. Do not simply read them over, but study them. Take up, consider, and finish one at a time.

1. Am I really a GREAT sinner against God?
2. I have sinned much in doing wrong. Have I not sinned more in NEGLECTING TO DO GOOD?
3. In not loving and serving God, have I not robbed him? If it is very wicked to rob men, what must it be to rob God?
4. Then is not MY guilt very great?
5. Am I willing to give up every thing for the sake of Christ?
6. Am I willing that all my acquaintances should know and see my efforts to become a Christian?
7. Am I willing to request Christians to pray for me?
8. Is it not pride of heart that makes me unwilling?
9. Is it not wicked in the last degree to be ashamed of Christ before men?
10. What is said in Mark 8 : 38, and in Matt. 10 : 32, 33?
11. When I kneel down and pray for pardon, for the sake of what do I hope to be heard?
12. Is what I have done, am now doing, and mean to do, together with my great distress for sin, the ground of my expectation?
13. Or are the sufferings and death of Christ the ONLY thing for the sake of which I hope to be heard and saved?
14. How can I be forgiven? See Acts 10 : 43.
15. How may I become a child of God? See Gal. 3 : 26.
16. And since it is for Christ's sake rather than my sake that I am to be saved, can any unfitness hinder my salvation?
17. Is Christ willing now to save sinners?
18. Is he willing to save ME?
19. Can I believe that he is willing to save me NOW JUST AS I AM?
20. Why not? will I ever be more fit?
21. Since I must perish without a Saviour, and since Christ OFFERS to be my Saviour, shall I not at once TAKE HIM as mine?
