Mr. Click Relander,

Yakima, Washington.

Dear Mr. Relander:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of September 9, 1954, referring to an article in the last issue of the Scottish Rite News Bulletin entitled "American Indians Will Receive Assistance" and asking for three copies of the July issue and two additional copies of the September issue.

Under separate cover there were mailed to you on September 15 three copies of the July issue and five copies of the September issue of the Bulletin. These have no doubt reached you by this time and I hope they are of value to you.

With reference to your statement that you are preparing a book entitled "Drummers and Dreamers" and that publication date is now awaited, I wonder if it would be possible to obtain a copy of this book when published. We have, as you no doubt know, a very extensive library and your book would prove an addition to it since it refers to problems relating to Indian rehabilitation.

Thank you also for the clippings enclosed with your letter.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Relander:

With reference to your letter of July 6, 1955, concerning my interest in obtaining a copy of your book "Drummers and Dreamers" for the Scottish Rite Library, the following may be pertinent.

The New Age reviews books of current interest in its columns regularly. These reviews are not limited to books of specific Masonic content. We have been interested in problems of the American Indian, in our history so far as it affects our Indian population and in the development and preservation of our present government.

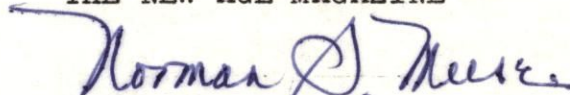

If you believe that it would serve a purpose to have your book reviewed in The New Age, I should be very glad to see that this is done. Our circulation is over 400,000 copies monthly. If you do not believe that such a review would be of value, I shall, of course, ask our library to purchase a copy of the book in the usual manner. I believe that it is of sufficient value to us to warrant our obtaining it as a permanent acquisition.

Very sincerely yours,

THE NEW AGE MAGAZINE

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you very much for your letter of September 1st and its numerous enclosures. I note your statement that "Drummers and Dreamers" will be forwarded to me for review by the printer within a short time. This book has not yet arrived, but when it does I shall be very happy to prepare a review of it for The New Age. Copies of the review will be sent to you in the customary manner.

This promise is of course dependent upon the approval of the Grand Commander, which at the present time appears to be in no doubt.

Dear Mr. Relander:

I have for acknowledgment your letter of February 5, 1963, with which you enclosed a pamphlet under the title, "Strangers on the Land", which you suggest might be mentioned in THE NEW AGE, as part of the story of the American Indian.

There is a great deal of competition for space in THE NEW AGE at this time and I do not know whether the Grand Commander will approve a review of this booklet. An effort will be made to determine his wishes in the matter at as early a date as possible and, if approved, it will be mentioned.

Very sincerely yours,

THE NEW AGE
