Dear Mr. Belander,

I thoroughly enjoyed my visit with you in Tacoma. The thing that fascinated me most were the clothes that Mr. and Mrs. Alba Shawaway wore. The song they sang was the first Indian song I have heard, to me it was beautiful.

The book you wrote, Drummers and Dreamers was a little past our grade, but when I get old enough to understand it I would love to read it. I liked very much of what I heard but it was a little hard to understand.

Say hello to everyone on the reservation especially Mr. and Mrs. Alba Shawaway. This summer I might come to see you on the reservation.

Sincerely,
Ruth Eddy
