Dear Mr. Belander:

Your book "Drummers and Dreamers" sounds very interesting and I hope we have an opportunity to help you put it over. All buying for the Northgate store is done through our main store downtown.

I am very interested in your "tour" with some of the Indians as Northgate usually draws a large crowd for any such interests so I hope you might be able to come here. Of course, that too, is up to Jones Pearce, our buyer, downtown.

I'll be looking forward to reading your book and think your idea of writing and sending newspaper clippings very good.
I know I always feel more like selling something when someone makes a personal approach.

Sincerely,
Ruth Weeks

Dear Mr. Relander:

You are cordially invited to be our guest at an autograph party and tea honoring the Pacific Northwest Writers Conference on Thursday, July 25th.

The autograph party will be held in our Book Shop, 6th floor, at 1:30 p.m. followed by a tea in our Cascade Dining Room at 3:00 p.m.

A full page advertisement in the Wednesday TIMES, July 24th, announcing the event to the public has been planned. Pictures of approximately 70 authors attending the party and tea, and the titles of their best selling books, will be featured in the advertisement. Because of an early newspaper deadline, would you please indicate your plans to attend on the enclosed card and return to me.

Sincerely,

Virginia Pearce
