

May 6, 1963

Mrs. Faith Cooke,
1808 Riverside Dr.,
West Richland, Wash.

Dear Mrs. Cooke:

Your memo information on the First Regional Writers Conference of the Mid-Columbia group came in today as I was preparing to write and ask about the program.

I have made arrangements to take my time off next week to permit me to attend. The program outline will give me something to make or base preparations (on).

I will come to Pasco, stop at Shields for the purpose of seeing they have copies of Strangers on the Land, and the out of print reaty booklet, and then go to the North Richland Library, being there perhaps half an hour before the opening forum type of session.

The time for the night(?) meeting or dinner at the Desert Inn Lobby is missing from my memo but Mrs. Relander and I will of course remain for that. If it is a dinner as indicated, please make reservations for us, and please, we will take care of our dinner tickets.

Because of the dinner uncertainty, Mrs. R and I will be pleased to take advantage of your vacation trailer hospitality, inasmuch as that looks like it will facilitate matters.

Thank you for the information and accept this as confirmation of my appearance, at no charge to the conference, and helpful as possible along the lines you have indicated.

Sincerely Yours

Click Relander