BRYAN-KERN CAMPAIGN FUND

Shall the People Rule? If you believe in this principle and desire to see the cause of the people triumph in the ensuing campaign contribute your mite towards the desired result. It requires money to conduct a campaign and the party managers look to the people for the sinews of war. Every Democrat, who can, should contribute one dollar. The Democrat will endeavor to raise a fund to aid the National Committee and will publish weekly the names of all contributors. Get your name on this Roll of Honor as soon as possible.

IS REPUBLICAN AID SOCIETY

That Is What A Correspondent Thinks of the So-Called Anti-Saloon Society—Local Option
A Delusion and A Snare.

Is the Anti-Saloon League Sincere?
Editor Democrat: The Republic of September 2, said editorially:

"We have no quarrel with the purposes of the Anti-Saloon league; but we are bound to say that some of its work is sloppy. Down in Benton county it has indorsed a candidate for the legislature who within the past three weeks affixed his signature to a petition asking the mayor of the town to permit the saloons to keep open on Sunday. We do not see how anybody can have much respect for the indorsement of an organization that pretends to be down on the whisky business, and yet upholds men who want to give the saloons more latitude than they have now."

We feel very much as the Colonel feels, but for different reasons. We think the "Anti-Saloon League" so-called, is not in fact an "Anti Saloon League," but a republican adjunct, to aid the republican party. We do not think the majority of its members know this, or would even believe it if it were proven; but we will present some of the evidences nevertheless, for we are sure that is the motive of the leaders.

First—When several of the candidates of the republican party were asked early in the campaign what would be their attitude on the local option proposition, they replied with almost universal similarity, "Well, I do not know; I have not yet heard from Doty." Who is Doty? "He is the lawyer for the Anti-Saloon League." "Does he make up your opinions for you?" "No, but we could not declare ourselves until we had heard his program." Is Doty a republican? Inquire of the Anti-Saloon League officers and see.

Second—The president of the Anti-Saloon League for Yakima county, is a republican. He is opposed to closing the saloons, talks against it, refused to sign a petition asking the council to close, refused to sign a petition asking the council to remove the red light district and believes their business a "necessary evil." Now, if he is opposed to closing the saloons we have no quarrel with him for that opinion, however we may disagree. Our contention is that he has no right to pose as an "Anti-Saloon League" president, deceive the people into believing that he is working against the saloon, obtain money of temperance workers for that purpose, marshal the pulpits in favor of their political schemes, get the ministers to preach on the subject of local option—a republican scheme—enlist the W. C. T. U. with all their broad sympathies, all under the pretense of fighting the saloon; when as a matter of fact, it is to suppress the rising tide of anti-saloon sentiment, that finds expression in the prohibition party, and this year was taken up by the democrats and found expression in a plank in their platform for state prohibition. Now why, if they are sincere, and "non-partisan," as they pretend, did they not endorse the democratic platform instead of throwing all their force to the republicans? In declaring for the republican measure of local option, they declare for the same things the saloon men want. Nobody believes the saloon men want anything that injures their business, but they want local option. The "Anti-Saloon League" wants local option, too. So where is the difference?

It may be said that the saloon men want the least effective local option law, and the "Anti-Saloon League" want the most effective. That is doubtless true of most of the members. But is it true of the management? We do not believe it, and we do not because in view of the known facts we cannot. If the "Anti-Saloon League" really wants to abolish the saloon why do they not declare for state prohibition; rally their forces; get the ministers to preach on it; enlist the W. C. T. U. and the disgruntled taxpayers who know that the saloon adds a burden of at least 25 per cent. to their taxes. If they had done so they could have won a glorious victory and been crowned with honors.

WHITMAN COUNTY ENDORSES CHADWICK

Popular Jurist, Although a Democrat, is Strong Favorite with Leading Republican Lawyers Throughout the State.

Hon. Stephen J. Chadwick, for eight years judge of the superior court of Whitman and a candidate for the supreme bench of this state on the non-partisan ticket, was a North Yakima visitor Wednesday. While here Judge Chadwick was the guest of the Yakima and called on numerous old friends and acquaintances as well as most of the attorneys of this city.

Judge Chadwick is deservedly popular with members of the bar all over the state. This is due to his high standing as a jurist, his fairness on the bench, and his genial ways as a man.

He is very highly regarded by all the people of Whitman county, where he has resided for over 20 years. Previous to his election to the bench there he was a practicing attorney of Colfax. Judge Chadwick is a native of Oregon, his father before him having been a distinguished man of that state.

Judge Chadwick is recognized by his fellow members of the bar of this state as an able lawyer and an honest, upright judge. A straw vote taken by members of the Spokane bar recently showed that as a candidate for the supreme bench that Judge Chadwick was favored by 186 out of the 217 members voting. His present candidacy has been endorsed by the leading papers of the state.

In politics Judge Chadwick is a democrat and is the only democrat in the race this year for the supreme bench on the so-called non-partisan ticket, the remaining half dozen candidates for the three vacant places all being republicans.

It should be remembered that the primary next Tuesday virtually is the election, so far as the judicial ticket is concerned. The name of Judge Chadwick will be third on the ballot and there are three supreme judges to be elected.

Don't fail to vote for Judge Chadwick.

Later.—At a meeting of the Yakima Bar Association Thursday evening a straw vote was taken on Judicial Candidates. Out of 16 votes cast Judge Chadwick received 15. The next highest were Root and Parker.

VOTE AT THE PRIMARIES

Every Democrat in Yakima county should cast a ballot at the primaries next Tuesday—call for the Democratic ticket.

Attend the Democratic meeting at the courthouse Monday night September 7 and learn how to vote.

Robert Scott and family returned home Sunday night from Willapa where they spent a month most pleasantly in camp.

GEORGE A. GRAHAM DIES AT HOT SPRINGS

Well Known Yakiman, Secretary of State Fair Board Succumbs to Long Illness—Victim of Brights Disease.

George A. Graham, secretary of the Washington State Fair board, died at the Green River Hot Springs last Wednesday morning about 8:30 o'clock. His death was due to Bright's disease.

The deceased had long been a resident of North Yakima and was generally known throughout the county. He was associated with the Northern Pacific, first as operator, then as cashier and finally as agent. He resigned this position about four years ago and had since been connected with the state fair commission.

A scholarly and capable man, devoted to his family George Graham made a most estimable citizen. He was 51 years of age, a member of St. Michael's Episcopal church, a member of the order of Knights of Pythias and a 32nd degree Mason.

He is survived by a wife and daughter, Miss Clara Graham.

The funeral arrangements had not been completed at the time of going to press, but it is supposed that the funeral will be held from the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

A Democratic meeting will be held at the courthouse Monday evening Sept. 7, under the auspices of the Bryan-Splawn Club. Hon. Dudley G. Wooten of Seattle, Hon. A. J. Splawn and the candidates for the legislature will deliver addresses. Everybody invited.

No Use for Nichols.

There are many good reasons why the decent republicans of the state should nominate and elect I. M. Howell, of Tacoma, secretary of state. Chief of these is his character. Another sound reason is that his sole opponent for the republican nomination, is the present incumbent of the office, who wants to hold the office for a third term.

The present inefficient secretary, Sam H. Nichols, is the man who, in flagrant disregard of the rules of common honesty, held back the filing of candidates for state office until he and his man Friday, Schively, had filed theirs, in order that they might obtain whatever advantage there is in being at the head of the list.

Those who have had business with the secretary's office know of too many sins of omission and commission that should prevent the renomination of Nichols, who has been too long on the pay roll of the state. His age spared him from severe attack when the last legislature was in session, but it is significant that the legislature took from his office many of his duties. There was reason for this. His demand for a third term is the height of impudence.—Post-Intelligencer.

MEAD AFRAID OF JACK SPLAWN

Says He Would Rather Have Any Other Man In the State As An Opponent Than the Cowboy Candidate of the Cowiche.

Governor Albert E. Mead admits that if "Jack" Splawn gets the democratic nomination for governor he will have a hard time beating the Cowboy candidate at the polls in November. Of course he made the statement believing, or at least pretending to believe, that he would be nominated by the republicans at the primaries next Tuesday.

Governor Mead delivered an address at the opening of the Y. M. C. A. building here last Tuesday night. His speech was strictly non-partisan, but after the program was concluded the governor was interviewed by a Democrat reporter who induced Mr. Mead to talk a few politics.

"Well, yes, I'm inclined to the belief that I have all of my numerous opponents badly beaten in the race for the nomination of governor, and I think that I am destined to spend another four years at Olympia," was one of the first statements the distinguished visitor made.

"But do you think you can defeat our man 'Jack' Splawn if you are successful in securing the nomination?" he was asked.

"To be frank with you," added the governor, "I would rather run against any man in the state than 'Jack' Splawn. While I think that I will defeat him on election day, I would feel much more sure of succeeding myself if I knew that I had some other democrat opposing me."

Governor Mead also said a lot of nice things about North Yakima. He has been here several times since he sprung into prominence in the state, and the governor says that every time he comes here he is impressed by the unusual progressive conditions that are everywhere apparent. He thinks the Yakima valley has a distinctiveness and uniqueness about it which is going to make it some day the most widely known fruit producing section of the whole United States.

For Insurance Commissioner.

Edwin Masterson, a well known life insurance man of Tacoma and the democratic candidate for state insurance commissioner, was a North Yakima visitor this week.

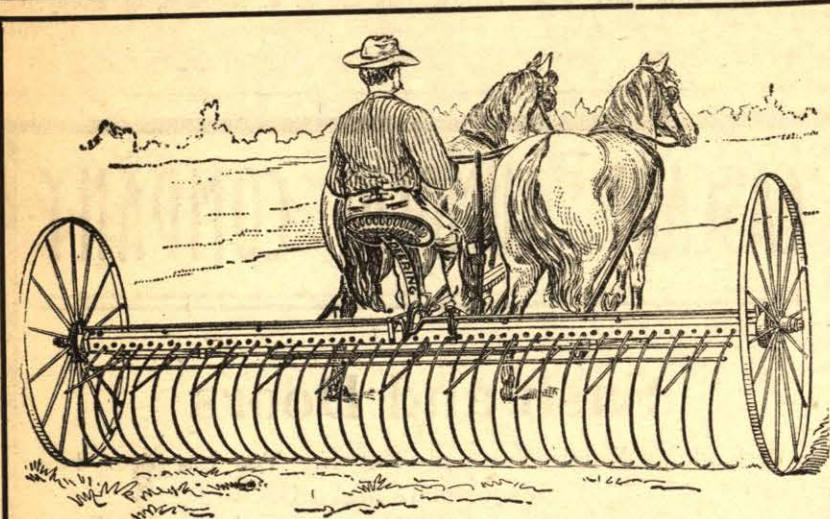

Mr. Masterson feels sanguine that he can win the election for that office this fall, especially if he will have the good luck to have the present incumbent, John H. Schively, for a competitor in the final race. Schively's record in that office, according to many reports, has been so rotten that Mr. Masterson thinks he would be able to beat him at the polls. D. R. Bullock, a life insurance solicitor of Spokane, and Albert Helander, a book keeper of Seattle, are also after the republican nomination, but it is not thought that they have much chance to win. Helander resided in this city for a brief period and was a book keeper for the Yakima Trust company.

Schively is very unpopular in the eastern part of the state on account of his connection with the defunct Northwestern Live Stock Insurance company, which went broke a year ago, leaving many losses unpaid. He is also severely censured for allowing so many "Jim Crow" insurance companies to start up in the state.

The Post-Intelligencer has editorially denounced Schively and says that he is an unfit man for such a responsible position.

As to Voters' Rights.

We quite agree with the Post-Intelligencer that democrats should not participate in the republican primaries. We believe that those democrats who vote at the primaries should call for the democratic ballot and vote for the democratic candidates.

However, we do not agree with the P-I. when it says that a democrat voting a republican ticket at the primaries, or a republican voting a democratic ticket, binds himself to cast the same ballot in the general election. There can be no such law. The legislature is absolutely powerless to make such a law.

The right of private opinion and the right to change that opinion is the most sacred right of a free man, and no legislature can pass a valid law that can deny the conscientious expression of the voter at the ballot box.—Washington Democrat.

PAYING A DOLLAR A BOX

Growers of Hops Who Pick Are Paying the Old Price.

Hop growers who will pick their yards this fall have about decided to pay $1 a box to pickers. There was some thought of asking the pickers to work for less this fall on account of the low price of the product but the general opinion is that the old scale should rule. Growers in the Moxee have decided to pay $1.

The exterior of the new home of Banker George Donald on the corner of C and North Second streets is practically done, and Contractors Hibarger and Lang expect to have the house completed by about the first of October. This has been referred to as "the finest house in central Washington," and will cost in round numbers, $25,000.

PRIMARY OFFICERS APPOINTED.

Republicans Take Lion's Share as Usual, in Spite of Democratic Protest for Square Deal.

County Commissioners McDonald and LeMay (Chairman Sinclair being absent) met Friday, August 28, for the purpose of appointing the precinct boards to conduct the primary election next Tuesday. The democratic county committee asked that a democratic judge be appointed for each of the different precincts and that a democratic inspector be appointed for each alternate precinct. Chairman Sloan of the republican committee demanded that the republicans be given the inspector and one judge in each of the precincts. The commissioners took this partisan view of the contention and gave the republicans two out of the three officers appointed in every precinct of the county, except Cowiche. The names of the appointees follow:

Ahtanum—James Wiley, E. Woodcock, Ed Hackett.
Alfalfa—E. G. Flemming, George Ide, James Skirving.

Then in case they had to make concessions, or in any possible event of failing to get all they asked for, they could at least have had county local option. But now, they are the strongest opponents of state prohibition we have to meet. We do not object to meeting the saloon keeper in open field. He says what he means and contends for what he wants. In doing so he at least challenges our respect. But to fight a subtle foe, under cover of wanting to suppress the saloon, when in fact they are in league with it—a foe that poses in the livery of heaven and wears the sanctimony of religion, yet rejects everything that is not fostered by the republican party, that pretends to want to save men from evil but when the opportunities are presented in a practical and tangible way they sing "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." They uphold a system that robs the weak of their manhood, and then tell them to "Look to Jesus." They turn thousands of happy homes into hovels, and then tell the miserable inmates to "Think of a home over there." They make children orphans, and then sing to these poor, starving, naked and wan products of greed "Safe in the arms of Jesus."

We do not object to these beautiful references of a future life, if only they were not accompanied by hypocrisy and cant. We wonder how many preachers and members of the W. C. T. U. will be deceived by it, and driven like quails into a net? Go to church next Sunday and see.

JOHN GASTON.

Thinks Murdered Man Her Husband.
The sheriff's office has received a letter from a Mrs. C. G. Rice, at Coulee City, stating that she has reason to think the man who was killed by J. L. Burke, a Northern Pacific brakeman at Toppish last month, was her husband. She states that she has not heard anything from him for six weeks previous to the date of the letter, which is August 23, and concludes by requesting a full description of the victim of the brakeman. The letter was answered by Deputy Sheriff Cox, who gave her all the information in his power.

The paving contractors, Savage & Co., have lost much valuable time through the non-arrival of brick. However 70,000 were received Monday, enabling the contractors to proceed with the work on South First.

TREED BY A BEAR

Incident That Marred the Happiness of Selah People at Camp Dean.

Dr. and Mrs. Pressey, of Buckeye ranch, in the Selah, have just returned from Camp Dean, up in the mountains. Camp Dean is a perfectly equipped camp. It is composed of about 25 representative people of Selah heights, and there will seldom be found a more jolly or congenial crowd. Last week night have been considered a red letter week except for one little incident. One of the members of camp, Al Reynolds, alias "Yakima Red", (in camp) started out on a fishing trip and after several hours failed to return, which caused great anxiety in camp. A searching party was sent out and found Reynolds had been treed by a huge bear. On the arrival of two hounds old brin departed and Al returned to camp none the worse for his experience. Al had clung to his nice catch of trout. Mr. Reynolds is a rancher of Selah heights.

Attorneys John H. Lynch and Thomas E. Grady have formed a partnership for the practice of law with offices in the Mullins building. Both are worthy young men and of good legal ability. The Democrat wishes the new firm a full measure of success.

"SHAUGHNESSY" WRITES MANAGER SHROEDER

Avers That One Year Ought to be Enough as Punishment for His Misdeeds.

A kindly and manly letter from the man whom he was instrumental in sending to the penitentiary—that's what Manager W. C. Schroeder, of the Yakima hotel got this morning.

The letter was from "B. B. Shaughnessy," the young man who masqueraded here a few weeks ago as the son of the president of the Canadian Pacific road, and who left a trail of false checks behind him not only in this town but there is no telling in how many more. He was bound over here on a charge of passing a check on Mr. Schroeder for $11.80, which turned out to be worthless, and after lying in jail a few days, came into court and entered a plea of guilty, whereat he was sentenced to what is known as an indeterminate sentence—from one to five years in the Walla Walla penitentiary.

Compliments Schroeder.

In the course of the letter he says: "You were the only one of my creditors who acted like a gentleman when I was there, and all I want is the chance to get out at the end of a year and prove that I can be a man among men."

He is under the impression that he can get out at the end of the year if his conduct is good meanwhile, and asks the hotel man to intercede in his behalf for a parole, promising, if necessary, that every one of his creditors here will be repaid before he leaves the state.

Metzger Was Good to Him.

He refers to Deputy Sheriff Metzger in terms of kindness, stating that that officer was good to him while he was in jail here, and alludes to the fact that he has been well treated since his arrival in the penitentiary and that he has a "good job."

After stating that he thinks that one year will be sufficient atonement for his misdeeds in this section, and that he ought not to be prosecuted for any additional claims, he winds up with the signature, "Fraternal yours, B. B. Shaughnessy."

TROPHY FOR STATE FAIR

Kentucky Saddle Horse Association Donates a Pitcher.

A beautiful silver pitcher from Kentucky is on exhibition at the store of D. N. Keene and is to become the property of some one of the hundreds of exhibitors at the state fair this fall. The pitcher was received at the office of the state fair commission from The American Saddle Horse Breeders' association, being the gift of the association for the best stallion or mare, any age, shown to hand. The American Saddle Horse association has taken a deep interest in that type of horse in all parts of the United States, particularly in the west and the cup or pitcher offered here is intended not only to arouse the interest of breeders but also of owners of that class of animals. The trophy is suitably engraved declaring on one face that it is a "Trophy presented at the Washington State Fair, 1908," on the front that it is from the "American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association," and on the third that it is "For Stallion or Mare of Any Age, Shown to Hand."

BUFFALO BILL IS COMING

Fresh From European Triumphs the Wild West Show Is Here.

After touring Great Britain and Continental Europe for the past four years, Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World is home again. Arrangements have been perfected for the exhibition to appear in this city September 17, exactly as given in Madison Square Garden New York City, when the show opened its tour this spring, the performance will be presented without curtailment or change of any sort.

Buffalo Bill has been abroad so long that his home-coming affords what is practically a novelty in arena entertainment. During his absence the little folks have grown into youths and young ladies and those of us who saw the exhibition years ago will take equal interest in seeing it all over again. There will be real novelty provided in many features of the program and for the home-coming tour of this foremost among arena institutions, two spectacular features have been prepared as special attractions.

During the four separate tours of Europe which Buffalo Bill has made he has presented his historical entertainment in 18 different countries, before crowned heads and plebeians, and in a vast majority of instances where an English-speaking person was a rarity. But in all his travels he has depicted the conquest and eventual civilization of the Indian and has presented scenes of historic events with unflinching fidelity and with success which has astounded the skeptical. He has done more than any other American to open the book of our early history before the eyes of Europeans and they have looked with admiring eyes upon the wonders there unfolded.

While the exhibition will be practically new this season, the display will, of course, conform to the general style of entertainment which Col. Wm. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) has always presented; historical in its fundamental principles, original in its conception and maintenance, unique as an arena entertainment, and in a class all by itself among out-of-door amusements. There will be a number of special features in the department of rough-riding and general equestrian displays, and there will be two special exhibits which have been exclusively designed and perfected for the present tour.

The topping features of the program will be pantomimic melodrama "The Great Train Hold-Up," and "The Bandit Hunters of the Union Pacific," together with the "Battle of Summit Springs." These separate and distinct features will depict two important eras in western development—the conquering and subjugation of the barbaric red men and the fast disappearing trail of bandits who followed the horde of the colonizer and preyed on the railroad and express companies in their advance across the plains.

The Congress of Rough Riders of the World will constitute an important factor in the exhibition and will present a display of equestrian expertness and an exhibition of nerve, skill and manly daring which is sure to excite enthusiasm and admiration. Horsemen of all nations will vie in feats of fearlessness, and our own American-bred cowboys will not be the least factor in the stirring picture of primitive history.

STATE FRUIT GROWERS WILL FIGHT FREIGHTS

Increased Charges on Apples to be Taken to Interstate Commerce Commission

H. M. Gilbert, of North Yakima, is a member of the transportation committee of the state horticultural association, which is to be called together to arrange for ways and means of promoting the fight in behalf of the growers against the proposed increase in freight rates east on apples as announced by the Northern Pacific railroad to take effect September 13. Mr. Gilbert represents the Yakima valley on the committee. The other members are J. L. Dumas, of Dayton, and George Farwell, of Wenatchee. L. G. Monroe, secretary of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, is ex-officio a member of the committee also.

There is an impression in Spokane that the matter will be taken up at once with the interstate commerce commission. The advanced rate comes at this time as a blow to the fruit industry of eastern Washington, meaning, as it does, an advance of 15 cents a hundred on practically the entire apple crop of 1908. While many protests have gone forward to the railroad officials from all the fruit sections, they are as nothing compared with what will be said if the rate is continued.

WANTED—Agents to sell the Ohio Steam Cooker. Is especially attractive for the canning of fruits. Agents making $3.00 to $15.00 daily. Liberal commissions and exclusive territory. For particulars address 411 Granite Block, Spokane, Wash.

FILL OUT THE TICKET.

Democratic voters at the primary will observe that there are three vacancies on their state ticket and two on their county ticket due to the fact that filings were not made for those positions in regular order previous to August 10. The democratic state committee informs us that suitable candidates have since announced themselves for attorney general, state auditor and state treasurer. For the two vacancies on the county ticket suitable candidates have likewise announced themselves. All are good, competent men and if elected will fill the positions satisfactorily. Following are the vacant places on the ticket and the names of the candidates proposed, whose names should be written on the ballot by the voter:

For Attorney General
W. A. HOLTZHEIMER.

For Auditor,
W. H. CARSON.

For Treasurer,
JOHN SCHRAM.

For County Superintendent of Schools
W. F. F. SELLECK.

For County Surveyor,
C. O. ADAMS.

Cut this out Mr. Voter and take it to the primary with you.

GO TO THE PRIMARY.

Each and every democrat in Yakima county should make a special effort, an effort entailing a personal sacrifice if need be to attend the primary next Tuesday and cast a democratic, not a republican vote, therein. Aside from out duty as citizens to do this there is a special reason.

A. J. Splawn, a popular pioneer and a leading citizen of Yakima county, is an aspirant for the gubernatorial nomination and his chance of success is most flattering. His fellow-democrats in his home county have an opportunity to give Senator Splawn a testimonial of their high regard in the way of a unanimous first choice vote that will be not only complimentary to the home candidate but will aid him materially in the hard work of his ante-election campaign. There is nothing that will help a man so much in politics as a strong and loyal indorsement at the hands of the candidates' own neighbors.

There is probably not one democrat in this county but who entertains a feeling of affection for "Honest Jack" Splawn and would like to see him succeed in his present ambition, and there are probably as many republicans who entertain a similar feeling towards the sturdy old pioneer, but his republican friends, unfortunately, are powerless to help him at the primary, so it is all the more essential that the democrats give him all the support possible.

It is unsafe to assume that Senator Splawn will have any walk-away in the primary, although he seems to be by all odds the favorite in the race. It must be remembered that there are four other candidates in the field and that each of the four is making a very spirited canvass. A judicious bunching of the second choice votes might easily defeat Mr. Splawn. The safest plan to follow is to make a straight out fight to secure for him the necessary 40 per cent of first choice votes and by that means eliminate the second choice votes from the count entirely.

Let us make a determined effort to do this and begin the good work right here at home. It ought to be a pleasure for every Yakima democrat to lend his aid in the movement to land "Jack" Splawn in the executive chair at Olympia for our candidate has himself in many a campaign been a faithful party worker and is now the executive head of the democratic party in this county. He has in numerous campaigns spent his time and money in the interest of the party. More than that he has always been a most zealous worker for the good of his home county.

Let us all go to the primary then next Tuesday and show our confidence in this remarkably useful and public spirited man and give him the loyal support that we owe him in this emergency a support that he will remember with gratitude the balance of his life.

IS BAD ADVICE.

The editor of the Republic knows as well or better than any other man in Yakima county that Sam G. Cosgrove is not a fit man to be governor of this state. Yet in an apologetic way, as though he was ashamed to do so, he has asked his readers to support Cosgrove at the primary.

When we say that Mr. Cosgrove is an unfit man to be governor of this great state we do not mean to imply that there is anything wrong with the man morally, that his record is bad or anything of that kind, for we are inclined to think he has always been a good citizen and in his younger days made a good soldier. But if we are any judge of men Mr. Cosgrove is not of the type that would make a suitable governor. He would be a misfit, for he is narrow of gauge and a shallow thinker, except when he sleeps he talks incessantly and his conversation, instead of being elevating or even entertaining, is usually commonplace or foolish. Of dignity he has no apparent conception. He has an idea akin to mania that he must be governor and the oldest inhabitant, "Jack" Splawn excepted, can't remember when he didn't have the bee in his bonnet. Time after time the little old man has haunted the state convention halls of the g. o. p. and begged of the bosses this highest honor at their hands. But the wary bosses always smiled and said him nay. Even in the days of fusion, when the honor was known to be an empty one, they turned him down. Why? Simply because he lacked the caliber, and the bosses recognized that fact, though truth to tell, they were in the habit of naming cheap men for the governorship.

Editor Robertson is serving neither his party nor the public well in advising his readers to vote for Cosgrove. As we said before Col. Robertson knows better, for he is the wisest fox in this political vineyard. He must have felt ashamed of himself if he took occasion to read that editorial when set in cold type.

THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

In a "straw" vote for U. S. senator at Spokane, August 29, Jones received 191, Ankeny 188, Snell 4. The Chronicle, under whose auspices the vote was taken at a certain street corner, thinks it a fairly accurate test of republican sentiment in Spokane. This test, like many others that have been taken over the state, indicate that neither Jones or Ankeny really have any walk-over for the senatorial indorsement, no matter what the partisans of each candidate may claim. That Judge Snell, the third candidate, has no possible chance of securing the nomination, is clearly evident from the "straw" votes taken at different points, yet it is probable that Snell may prove the deciding factor in the situation by rolling up a considerable vote in his home county of Pierce, where he is undoubtedly popular. His candidacy may therefore prove fatally hurtful to that of Jones, who otherwise might obtain a plurality of 3000 in Pierce county. From our viewpoint the main hope of a successful issue for Jones is in a big vote in the rural counties. A majority of the farmers of republican proclivities are for Jones and if they turn out well at the primaries he will be nominated, but if a large proportion of them stay at home he will be beaten. The strength of Ankeny is in the cities, the saw mill towns, the logging and coal mining camps of the state. It is in the busy haunts of men that the paid agents of the "Great Corrupter" have got in their deadly work.

RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH.

Unless men are making public nuisances of themselves or are causing public thoroughfares to be blocked by the practice of making stump speeches on the streets this paper does not believe that the city administration has any legal authority for causing such speakers to be arrested and jailed for insisting upon that right and that is evidently the opinion of Police Judge Lushman, who last week discharged a trio of socialist speakers brought before him for trial. The constitution of the United States guarantees to all citizens certain inalienable rights pertaining to free speech, which the mayor and chief of police of this city would do well to familiarize themselves with. This practice of depriving men of their liberty under flimsy pretenses is liable to involve the city in vexations and costly litigation in the way of damage suits if persisted in. This paper has no more use for the doctrine promulgated by these itinerant preachers of socialism than has the officials referred to, but that has nothing to do with the merits of the case. In this great country, presumably free, we are all often compelled to listen to speech that we cannot indorse and do not accept as truth. In Russia men are cast into prison for demanding the right of free speech, but we had not supposed that we had yet reached that limit of brutality in free America. Better cut it out Mr. Mayor, for it don't go down with free men!

Why Col. Robertson should support Land Commissioner Ross for re-election and in the same breath refuse to support that eminent gentleman's "Siamese Twin", Albert E. Mead, is one of the things that seem past finding out to the average voter. True enough, both the twins are enemies of the people of the Yakima valley, at least they were, according to the files of the Colonel's valuable paper. But for some reason, unknown to the public, Ross, the brighter, yet the more villainous of the twins, is freely forgiven, while Mead is pointed out as a pariah and an outcast. Surely there is something wrong somewhere. Can it be that the governor's offense was personal rather than political? It hardly seems fair. Besides, we have the colonel's word for it that the twins are really one and inseparable.

Every voter should read the acceptance speech of John W. Kern, delivered at Indianapolis, August 25. The speech is a masterpiece and shows unmistakably that no mistake was made in placing the "Hoosier" statesman on the ticket with Bryan. In his remarkable address Mr. Kern certainly put a crimp in the logic of "Sunny Jim" Sherman calculated to make that gentleman think twice before he rushes into print again to pick flaws in the democratic platform. Speaker Cannon, too, came in for a good lambasting that he richly deserved, for the arrogant attitude that he has assumed as the head of the oligarchy of "stand pat" politicians in the house. It is morally certain that neither Sherman nor Cannon will attempt to reply to Kern, for the latter has put them in a hole, so to speak.

It is said that the friends of Lee A. Johnson in Yakima county and elsewhere are insisting upon being shown. It is asserted that they have issued an ultimatum to the Jones management to the effect that unless they are guaranteed a reasonable amount of support for Johnson from the Jones camp that they, the Johnson men, will insist upon exercising their inalienable right to vote as they please in the matter of a senatorial choice, which in plain English means that they will elect to support Levi Ankeny. Probably no fair minded man would blame Johnson's friends if they should do so, for certainly their forbearance has been sorely tried by the contemptuous treatment that their chief has received at the hands of the North Yakima "push."

Whether Mr. Jones wins or loses this senatorial fight he ought to be able to learn something from the experience that he never should forget, and that is the power of money in politics. That is something that democrats have had to contend against for so these many years! Heretofore Mr. Jones has tripped gaily along the primrose path to preferment, but in his present campaign he finds obstacles in his way, obstacles that are put in his path by the gold of his opponent and by the political power that he wields. From this experience Mr. Jones should be able to form some idea of what George Turner was up against six years ago when the Walla Walla millionaire started out to buy his seat in the U. S. senate.

The Young Men's Republican club, of Tacoma, in a fulsome indorsement of Judge Snell's candidacy for the senate, says that "Pierce county, owing to its population and commercial importance, is entitled to one of the two United States senators from this state." What poppycock! The republican leaders are responsible for the sectionalism that is the curse of this state. Perhaps if the grievance of the young republicans of Tacoma is not satisfied they will proceed to organize a state of their own and thus gain two senators.

While it is admittedly none of our funeral we would nevertheless be glad to see Hon. Lee A. Johnson win out next Tuesday for the congressional nomination. Our reason for expressing such a wish is that he is a Yakima county man and that it is our belief that he is not getting a square deal from the over-zealous friends of Mr. Jones hereabouts. Johnson, as we have repeatedly said, has as much right to run for congress if he wants to as any of the rest of the bunch.

It is hard to see wherein public morals have been bettered any in North Yakima by wiping out the Whitechapel district, thus scattering the demi-monde all over the business section of the city to disgust decent people. All reasonable men should now agree that it is better to keep the fallen women in a restricted district under police surveillance and a system of fines than it is to pursue the present policy of permitting such people to live where and as they please.

The Yakima hop growers propose to pay the usual $1 per box to pickers this year and want that fact to be known generally, as it should be. Local papers last week erroneously published information to the effect that the growers had concluded to pay but 75 cents per box. The circulation of this misinformation, the growers fear, will have the effect of keeping pickers away from Yakima, and they need a goodly number of outside pickers.

The death of ex-Governor Eugene Semple, which occurred in California, August 28, removed an honored pioneer of Oregon and Washington. Eugene Semple was governor of Washington territory during the first Cleveland administration. He was an able man, conscientious, loyal to his friends and absolutely incorruptible. Like many another man of similar mould, he died poor, but the world is better for his having lived.

Judge Taft did a hard stunt of campaigning last Saturday for a fat man in hot weather. He cracked his heels together most emphatically and stated that the story that he had ever said that "a dollar a day is enough for any workingman" is a blankety blank lie. "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." The judge is surely getting mad and the perpetual "Taft smile" has gone a glimmering.

According to the Sunnyside Sun Bro. Lee Johnson is a very great man; according to the Republican, of that town, S. J. Harrison is likewise a very great man; but according to the Forum Col. H. D. Jory is both good and great. No doubt they are all very great and very good men and great statesmen as well. Sunnyside, by the way, seems to be a wonderful breeding ground for up-to-date statesmen.

The anti-saloon league has endorsed republican legislative candidates in this district as follows: S. J. Harrison of Sunnyside and E. B. Williamson of Prosser for the senate, and Leo O. Meigs of North Yakima and W. H. Cline of Sunnyside for the house. Mr. Cameron, Capt. Thomas, Mr. McCredy and Mr. Duncan will therefore have to worry along without the league's valuable support.

Guarantee of bank deposits must be pretty good "dope" or the republicans of this state would never have placed such a plank in their platform, although their national convention repudiated the idea and branded it as rank heresy. But the republicans of this state believe in it just the same and many of them intend to vote for it—by supporting Bryan and the democratic state ticket.

The Japanese question, or rather the whole Asiatic labor question, is having the expected effect of making California a doubtful state this year. The democratic plank in the Denver platform demanding a law to stop the further immigration of those undesirable people is provoking much discussion in California and is meeting with much approbation, and it will have a big influence in this state, too.

Democrats should adhere strictly to their own primary ticket next Tuesday and let the republicans settle their own factional troubles to suit themselves. In any event Mr. Jones is not in need of democratic support and what is more to the point, he has said repeatedly that he does not want it. That ought to be strong enough to keep any democrat from butting in at the g. o. p. primary.

Bryan's Topeka speech defending the guaranty of bank deposits plank was a masterpiece of logic and fine reasoning and apparently had a most wholesome effect not only in Kansas but throughout the entire country. The guaranty plan is growing daily more popular and many shrewd political observers say it will determine the result at the polls this fall—in Bryan's favor.

The Anti-Saloon League management over at Seattle has placed its seal of approval on Gov. Mead for first choice and upon "Farmer" Cosgrove for second choice for governor. For poor old Gov. McBride, the best and ablest man in the bunch, the league has nothing to offer save a crown of thorns. Perhaps the league sissies have heard of that historical McBride "smile."

In spite of all the talk to the contrary by republican papers and politicians the labor union leaders are going right along in endorsing the stand that Gompers took at Denver in support of Bryan. The effort to defeat Taft that union labor is making is no longer a joke, it is a real, hard fact and the leaders of the g. o. p. are getting scared as well as sore about it.

The suburbs to the west last Tuesday voted most emphatically against being annexed to the city. Well, then, let them stay out! The trouble is that these people, being able to get light and water service from the local corporation, feel no incentive to "come in." If these utilities were owned and controlled by the city they would be glad to be annexed.

Three of the seven republican candidates for congress in this district are ex-democrats—renegade democrats we used to call them. The fact that so many of these former democrats are running for office these days on the republican ticket in this republican state may be construed as pretty good evidence as to why these patriots changed their political coats.

The latest advices that The Democrat has received regarding the outcome at the primaries next Tuesday foreshadows the nomination of Jones for senator and Mead for governor. The Cosgrove boom is largely "hot air." It is the opinion of most experts that if the Pomeroy man wins it will be by a fluke in the manipulation of the second choice vote.

The burly form of Taft is gradually crowding Roosevelt out of the range of the spotlight. But that will be only for a little time. After the third day of November it will be very different. "Bill" Taft will then have to go way back and sit down. As for Roosevelt, trust to the strenuous one not to fade out of sight altogether.

Ex-Senator David B. Hill, who returned from a trip to Europe last week, says that he will do everything in his power to promote the election of Bryan and Kern, and David B. Hill can do a good deal if he wants to. The democratic party is in its old time fighting form this year, if anybody should ask you!

A feature of Market Day at Sunnyside is political speeches by county candidates. It would have been a bright idea on the part of the management to have placed the different candidates on the auction block and then start the bidding.

Presidential Candidate Chafin of the prohibition party, has just finished a trip to Seattle from Chicago and now Eugene Debs, socialist nominee, is out hot on his trail. Surely this is evidence of a hot campaign.

JIMMIE DURKIN

Candidate for Governor on the Democratic Ticket

The word Democracy means that the people rule, it's a farce so far as being a fact in this State today. The best evidence that this is so is furnished by the leading Republican Candidates who are in office and others who are aspiring to succeed them. In their efforts to do so they are throwing bricks of truth proving that in the past, as well as the present, they have not been as they would have you believe--the Servants of the people--but are representatives of the Corporations who have but to nod their head and they do their bidding. Did you ever see a Candidate for office that had a corporation brand on him? No, and you never will. Why? Because the Corporations know that the power to elect people to office rests in the hands of the people, and all they have to do in this state is to bring out a horse from the same old stable, name him Republican, but a new Jockey on his back, play the game of prejudice, give the people another gold brick, and then let them find out after the election that the same old horse and the new Jockey are eating in the Corporation's bins as the others did before. The politicians study the people and go into politics as a business, that is what they can make out of it while they are in the business. What are the people going to do about it? What does a woman do when she finds that the old broom does not sweep clean. Now take the spectacles of prejudice from your eyes and try to see if possible where there is a man whose past record is a bond of the future, and vote for him regardless of what party brand he has upon him. And if men of this character were elected the time would soon come in this state when the Politicians would be asking what are the people going to do, instead of asking as they do now, who is the Corporation's Candidate. I have not consulted with any politicians about my candidacy, or as to what I would do if I were elected Governor of this State. The Corporations are not helping me to get the nomination nor will they influence me in my decisions if elected. If you will use your vote--as the farmer does his plow--in turning down the rank weeds that time has let grow in your State Government by voting for me for your next Governor--I will guarantee you a saving of money on your investment.

JIMMIE DURKIN

Every Little Helps--How About Your Vote?

P. S. The people have taken the joke out of my candidacy and have taken it seriously, and I am sincere in asking you for your vote, promising you a strictly business administration devoid of all political graft, and will aim to get for you one dollar in good value for every dollar of yours that is expended.

GRANGER.

In an effort to assist in the election of Miss Kate L. Brown, candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, the ladies of Granger and vicinity yesterday organized the Kate L. Brown club. The manner in which the ladies expect to assist in the election of Miss Brown is by asking their husbands to cast their votes for her at the coming election.

At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Vilas yesterday afternoon the first gun of the Kate L. Brown club was fired. All the women of the town and vicinity attended and were heartily in favor of the movement. The club was temporarily organized by the election of Mrs. George P. Eaton chairman; Miss Clara Vinup, secretary, and Mrs. R. I. McLaughlin, corresponding secretary. Another meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hutton, when the club will be permanently organized.

Letters are being written by the corresponding secretary to all prominent ladies of the various sections of the county in an effort to make the club a county affair. Should this move be successful the election of Miss Brown, the leaders of the movement claim, is assured.

With the permanent organization of the club the ladies state that a thorough canvass of the county will be made in an effort to win votes for their favorite candidate. Husbands will be pleaded with, neighbors argued with and laborers asked to help win for Miss Brown the county superintendency. "Good schools" is the ladies' principal argument and their endorsed candidate, from recommendations received from various school boards of the county, seems to be well qualified for the position.

At the meeting yesterday the following resolutions were adopted: "Whereas, Whatever concerns the welfare of the public schools is of vital interest to women from whose homes come the pupils, and from whose ranks most of the teachers are chosen; and, "Whereas, Miss Kate L. Brown, principal of the Granger public schools, is a candidate for nomination to the office of county school superintendent at the primaries to be held September 8th, 1908.

"Resolved, That we, the women of Granger precinct, in mass meeting assembled, do hereby endorse Miss Brown as in every way exceptionally well qualified for said office.

"Resolved, That we cordially invite the women of all other precincts in the county, out of loyalty to women and having the best interests of the schools at heart, to make our course their own;

"Resolved, Further, That we appeal to the qualified voters of the county to cast their ballots on the 8th of September with justice, fairness and true manliness, for the only woman candidate."

The camping party that went to Bumpin River Soda Springs have returned. They traveled as far as Spring Flat by wagon and then packed into the spring from there over about twenty miles of trail. They report a delightful trip and say that the soda water is exceptionally good. Those in the party were Mrs. A. H. Baif, Miss Edyth Whitmore, Miss Etta Bair, Mr. Robert Hever, Mr. George Angle, Mr. Lloyd Bair.

George Chapman, Frank Gasper, Will Angle, O. B. Whitmore, Ed Kershaw, George Maltby and families had planned a trip to the Tieton for the purpose of viewing the government works, but unforeseen circumstances prevented and the trip has been delayed until next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson are in the valley for a few weeks.

Rev. O. B. Whitmore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kershaw have returned from the Ahtanum Soda Springs.

Miss Ira Nelson, who has been visiting in the valley returned to Yakima Monday.

Mrs. Cramer leaves for Seattle this week, where she will spend the winter. Mr. Gammon returned from Seattle Sunday.

OUTLOOK

Fruit canning is on in full blast.

The cool weather of the past few days was appreciated by one and all.

Earl Shearer, accompanied by his mother, spent a few days last week in Parker looking after fruit. While there they called on the Outlook girls at the Sawyer fruit orchard and also visited at the home of A. G. Dickson.

Mr. Thomas is building an addition to the already commodious dwelling for Ed. O'Brien.

A. Christenson went to the Orchards on Wednesday of this week to bring down a load of pears and peaches.

Wilson Dopps spent Sunday with his sister in Parker.

P. Foraker visited the fruit orchards in Parker on Sunday.

Mr. Lowe is here again after completing his carpenter work this week for John Sudweeks, Sr., on the south side of Snipes mountain.

The evangelist from eastern Washington left for Sunnyside. While here he gave several lectures introducing a new doctrine of the bible claiming that there should be no death and that we are living in the end of the six thousand years. He also believes that the seven thousand year is near at hand and is the time the devil is to be chained.

Since in this valley we have heard of round-ups of horses and other animals, we sincerely hope there will be one on blind pigs, as we fear one at this place. The man that missed the train on Monday of this week gave it all away in the manner in which he displayed himself.

Rev. Pontius, the minister-evangelist, was here a few nights the past week. A business meeting was held at the school house. They are figuring on a plan to build a church in this locality.

The Checking Account for the Farmer

Many farmers keep a checking account with us regularly because it is a great help and convenience in their every day business.

With a checking account you can tell exactly the total amount of your receipts and expenditures for each month for the entire year. When you sell your farm products, deposit your money in the Bank, subject to check. The obligations you have can be cancelled by check. When you make a purchase, pay by check.

We invite you to try this system.

DITTER MEMORIAL ALTAR DEDICATED

Imposing Ceremonies Attending the Magnificent Gift Made to St. Joseph's Church

A congregation filling the big edifice to the doors, enforcing standing up on the part of many who were unable to obtain seats, was present Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church to witness the dedication ceremonies of the magnificent altar presented to the church by Philip and Joseph Ditter, the sons of the late Mrs. Catherine Ditter, who passed away in April, 1905.
 The service was conducted by the celebrant Father C. Brusten S. J., assisted by Father H. Vrelosh S. J., who officiated as deacon, and Father J. O'Shea, S. J., or Spokane, who was the sub-deacon. Francis Witt's mass under the direction of Miss Hanes, was rendered by the choir and the organist in the superb style incident to high mass, the hour being 10:30 in the morning in accordance with the usual custom with respect to ceremonies of that sort.
 Glittering in all its magnificence of gold and onyx, the altar presented an appearance calculated to impress the audience with feelings that will dwell for many years in their memory, and as a hush fell on the assemblage just previous to the entrance of the train of acolytes and choir boys, followed by the priests in the full panoply of the robes of the Church of Rome, the solemnity of the occasion was heightened by the notes of the great organ pealing forth the initial music of the memorial service which will go down into the ecclesiastical history of St. Joseph's as a date never to be forgotten by those fortunate enough to be present.
 After the altar had been blessed by the sprinkling of holy water and the six towering candles had been lighted, never to be extinguished, barring anything short of some fearful calamity, the services continued along the lines of the mass as it is generally rendered, at the end of which Father Brusten delivered a sermon, taking for his theme the purpose of the altar as it is now in the church, and the lessons to be learned from such an institution.

Miss Cora W. Glover, who taught the seventh grade in the Barge school here for two years, and who later went to Tacoma and taught the eighth grade in the Lincoln school for two terms, has gone to Fairbanks, Alaska, where she takes charge of the eighth grade at $175 per month. She will remain in there until next summer. The Fairbanks people wrote to Tacoma asking for the best teacher and disciplinarian in the employ of the Tacoma board and Miss Glover was recommended as being the person. She had, however, made a Tacoma school contract and the directors did not want her to leave. At the urgent request of the Fairbanks people she was released for the new position.

A SUCCESSFUL SPECIALIST

No Such Thing as Failure Under His Treatment.

Dr. Darrin knows the diseases and weaknesses of men and women like an open book. He has restored hundreds to perfect health and vigorous vitality, and are today living monuments to the skill, knowledge and success of this well known specialist. He never holds out false hopes, nor undertakes a case that he cannot cure.

He has made a thorough study of all the diseases of men, such as varicocele, hydrocele, contagious blood poison, stricture, nervous debility, impotency, general weakness, loss of vigor and vitality, etc., and has also mastered all the complications of female troubles, so that when he undertakes a case there is no such thing as failure.

Every form of female complications, involving the uterus, ovaries, bladder or rectum successfully treated, as pelvic diseases are a specialty with Dr. Darrin.

He charges nothing for examination or consultation, and his knowledge, skill and experience are at the service of the sufferer. Dr. Darrin's offices are in the Postoffice building, corner Chestnut and South Second streets, and are open from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily. Call on him personally if possible, or write to him in strictest confidence.

Quick and certain cure is always possible under his treatment and advice.

TRANSPORTATION TO FAIR GROUNDS EASY

Street Railway Engineer Tells of New Cars and Conditions They Will Meet.

The new street cars for the Yakima Transportation company have been shipped from Danville, Ill., and in the ordinary course of events should arrive here within the next two weeks. There is no question in the minds of the officers of the company that they will be on the spot in ample time for the requirements of the state fair, which will begin September 28. There are three of the cars of the longitudinal seat type, which will make five cars in the service on the line here when they are placed in operation. This will be all the company will be able to handle with its present power and before more rolling stock is added the power will have to be increased. Engineer Kenly of the street railway company will be able to operate the five cars over the line from the present terminus west to the fair grounds on a fairly rapid schedule. With the equipment, Mr. Kenly says, the company will be able readily enough to handle such crowds as attended the state fair last year, though he does not profess that after the races the five cars will be able to carry the whole crowd up town in a few minutes. He does think, however, that the company, with its cars in operation, will greatly facilitate the transportation question, making access to the grounds easy and the return therefrom much simpler and speedier than at present. The track to the grounds will be ready for use before the arrival of the cars. In fact is almost ready now and the work is not being hurried.

CAMP 6 BEING MOVED

Getting Ready for the Making of Cement for Government Work.

Camp No. 6, which has been considered one of the best camps in the Tieton by the government laborers as a place to work, is now moving to Joe Weddle's place, where a bridge will be built this fall, and preparations made for the resumption of concrete work as soon as the winter is over. Ordinarily this has to stop in October of November, or whenever the frost begins to get in its fine work, and that part of the plant is not resumed until the spring.

Another new departure is the establishment of a saw mill, which is going up at Camp 13, another favorite camp with the employees.

Everybody Wake Up

This town must shake herself—let's get awfully busy and do things. Over eight months of 1908 gone forever, yet what has been done to stir things up? Everybody get together and work—bury self—bury petty jealousy and the mossbacks and knockers. We will all work for North Yakima! We are doing our share to make it better by selling good furniture and carpets. Now let's hear from you, says Ben the Booster, with

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Brief Record of Local Happenings for the Week in North Yakima and Vicinity.

C. W. Liggett and family returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation visit with relatives on Willapa harbor. Miss Della Schott, who graduated this year from the high school, will take a Normal school course at Bellingham. She will leave North Yakima Saturday.

Postmaster Will Lemon and wife arrived home Saturday from their vacation trip on the Sound. They report having enjoyed their outing immensely.

Miss Grace Varker, who was a member of this year's graduating class of the North Yakima high school, will leave North Yakima tomorrow for Bellingham to take the Normal school course.

September 1 opened the duck shooting season and a number of city nimrods promptly hiked out for favorite places on the reservation in search of feathered beauties.

The Traders' State Bank, of Toppenish, will open up for business next month. J. D. Cornett, formerly cashier of the Yakima National Bank, is president of the new Toppenish bank.

Judge Preble and family arrived home Monday from their vacation trip to the Sound. The judge left for Ellensburg the following day to hold court for a day or two in the absence of Judge Knuffman.

Mrs. A. E. Mead, wife of the governor, while here this week with her husband, was taken out on Nob Hill to view the beautiful homes and orchards there. The lady was much pleased with what she saw.

Marriage licenses were issued Tuesday by the county auditor to Neil Den Beste, aged 22, and Ida Mieras, aged 19, both of the Moxee; also to Hilliard W. Poyer, aged 25, and Delilah M. Gravey, aged 20, both of this city.

Col. Ridpath of Spokane, one of the numerous candidates for governor at the republican primary, was in town Wednesday. The colonel insists that he is the favorite in the race and that he will win the nomination "dead sure." And they all profess to feel the same way.

Fred R. Reed, one time mayor of North Yakima and a well known character of this state, but now a resident of Shoshone, Idaho, presided over the deliberations of the republican state convention in session at Boise this week. Fred, at any rate, could entertain the crowd.

J. M. Brown and associates are figuring on a site in the south part of the city for their conserving plant for orchard products and hope to secure from the Northern Pacific a sidetrack to their plant. They will make an effort to get the new establishment in running order this fall.

Assistant Electrician Lynch of Spokane has been in North Yakima for a few days engaged in the installation, at the Miller building, of an auxiliary fire alarm system of the Gamewell kind. This system will be the first of its kind in this city but it is anticipated that after it is in operation others will be introduced, one being at the new high school.

The Russell cannery is now working about 150 hands, mainly women, boys and girls, in preparing pears, peaches and plums for the canning process. The canning company has purchased the fruit crops of Messrs. Huxtable, Haasze,

Irish and other well known growers near the city.

Prosecuting Attorney H. H. Werde, who has been spending his vacation at his home in Buffalo, N. Y., was expected to return here early this week, but he is coming over the Canadian Pacific, and his deputy, Mr. Taylor, thinks he has just about been caught in the snow blockade which has been in effect in Winnipeg lately, in which case he will not be here before the latter part of this week or the fore part of next.

If you live in North Yakima or any other incorporated town of Yakima county you cannot vote at the primary next Tuesday unless you are registered. Remember you cannot register on primary day. The books will close Monday night. The place to register in North Yakima is City Clerk Brooker's office in the court house.

Hon. George Linbarger and wife, of Eureka Springs, Ark., who have been in Yakima for the past six weeks visiting their son, ex-Councilman Linbarger, will leave for their home early next week after a pleasant stay here. Mr. Linbarger is a native of Illinois and was a schoolmate of Adlai E. Stevenson who later became vice president of the United States.

Engineer Frank Marble returned Wednesday from Umatilla county, Oregon, where he is building a big ditch for Pendleton capitalists. Mr. Marble and Prof. Barge have a 40-acre hop yard on the reservation and they are trying to decide the question of whether it will pay them to harvest the crop or not. A seven cent market don't look very alluring to the grower.

In commenting on the hop situation last week the Democrat and other local papers stated that the growers were disposed to pay but 75 cents per box. Andrew Slavin and other leading growers say that that report is a mistake and that they expect to pay the usual $1 per box. It is regarded as unfortunate by these growers that such a report got out as they fear it will keep pickers away. Hop picking will begin in many yards next Monday.

Game Warden Mullen says that many people are under the impression that the law is "out" on Chinese, Mongolian and imported pheasants. Some, he says, who act on this impression are liable to find themselves in trouble. The penalty for shooting the birds is a fine of not less than $10 or more than $500, or imprisonment of not less than 30 days or more than six months, or both. Mr. Mullen is now working up evidence against a man, formerly a city official, and his son, for a case of pheasant killing at Sumach park recently. He has direct evidence from a man who saw the killing and handled the bird. Another case is an official of one of the towns of the lower valley and still another is a Moxee case. These will be brought to trial as lessons to other offenders.

CLUB ORGANIZATION

The republican national convention voted down overwhelmingly publicity at any time of campaign contributions. The republican nominee for president is against publication until after the election. It is evident that the republican party intends to rely in this campaign as in the past, on the favor-seeking interest with the hope of carrying the election by the methods usually employed. Public opinion is strongly against such methods. That this public sentiment may crystallize into an effective force, it is necessary for the people to organize.

All patriotic citizens, therefore, irrespective of party, who stand for the rule of the people and are against the corrupt or undue influence of money in elections, and to that end favor publicity of the larger campaign contributions before the election, as demanded by the democratic platform, are urged to organize themselves immediately into campaign clubs for the presidential election.

All organizations in sympathy are expected to assist actively in this work. The chairman of the democratic state committee in each state is requested to have each county and precinct committeemen organize a campaign club in each precinct on or before the 15th day of September, and to call meetings immediately for that purpose. All existing organizations should meet at once and appoint campaign committees.

The names and addresses of all campaign organizations, their officers and committeemen should be sent to John W. Tomlinson, chairman committee on club organization, democratic national headquarters, Chicago, Ill., so that certificates of enrollment, literature, etc., may be sent. No special form of organization or by-laws necessary.
