

Program For The First Annual Meeting Of

Washington State Reclamation Association

Yakima, Washington, November 1 and 2, 1945

Thursday, November 1

9:00 Registration

9:30 Call to order by Acting President George R. Thompson of Chehalis

Words of Welcome:

Hon. A. W. Mogren, Mayor of Yakima
Dr. George W. Cornett, President of Chamber of Commerce

Response:

Charles L. Powell, Kennewick

10:00 First Annual Report—Acting President Thompson

Announcement of Membership and Resolutions Committees

Election of Nominations Committee
(five members)

10:30 Report of Projects Committee—F. L. McGovern, Chairman, Vice President National Bank of Commerce, Seattle

Discussion

11:00 Irrigation Experiment Station—H. P. Singleton, Superintendent, Prosser, Washington

11:30 Western Washington Reclamation Institute—Leo E. Lowe, Secretary; Manager, Farm Market Relations, Inc., Seattle

12:00 Luncheon
River Authorities and What They Mean—Senator Don T. Miller, Wenatchee

1:30 Water Resources of Washington:

Surface Waters—Charles J. Bartholet, Consulting Engineer, Department of Conservation and Development, Olympia, Washington.

Ground Waters—Arthur M. Piper, Ground Water Engineer, U.S.G.S., Portland, Oregon.

2:15 The Lands of Washington and Their Uses—P. C. McGrew, State Conservationist, Pullman.

2:25 Soil Conservation in Washington—R. L. Rutter, Chairman, Washington State Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors, Ellensburg.

- :00 Puget Sound Flood Control Council—H. O. Walberg, President, Mount Vernon
- :25 Additional Storage for Yakima Valley—C. de Vere Fairchild, Rancher and Engineer, Yakima
- :45 Developing the Pacific Northwest—J. C. Compton, President, Pacific Northwest Development Association, McMinnville, Oregon.
- ☆ ☆
- :00 Annual Dinner.
Address "East and West Unite in Common Cause." E. W. Rising, Water Conservation Conference, Washington, D. C.

Friday, November 2

- 9:30 Postwar Problems of Agriculture—Henry P. Carstensen, Master, Washington State Grange, Seattle
- 0:00 The Farmer's Stake In Development of Land and Water Resources—R. T. Smith, President, Washington State Farm Bureau Federation, Ellensburg.
- 0:30 National Reclamation Association—James A. Ford, Spokane, Director for Washington.
- 1:00 Division of Reclamation and its Relation to Reclamation Districts—Vince B. White, Assistant Director, Department of Conservation and Development, Olympia
- 1:20 Getting the Columbia Basin Ready for Construction and Development—Charles E. Cone, Research Assistant, Columbia Basin Commission, Spokane.
- ☆ ☆
- 2:00 Luncheon
Address—Art Garton, Director of Department of Conservation and Development, representing Governor Mon C. Wallgren.
- ☆ ☆
- 1:30 Development Programs Ready To Go—
U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, H. A. Parker, Engineer, U.S.B.R., Ephrata.
U. S. Army Engineers, Col. C. P. Hardy, District Engineer, Seattle.
- 2:30 Discussion
- 2:45 Report of Resolutions Committee
Report of Nominations Committee
Election of Officers and Directors
Adjournment

Organization Meeting of Board of Directors