Dear Mr. Relander:

Some time since you were mailed a copy of the PACIFIC NORTH-WESTERNER, quarterly publication of the Spokane Westerners. Enclosed were an invitation to you to become a corresponding member of the Spokane group and an application form for that purpose.

To date, no reply has been received from you relative to your decision concerning membership. I know that you would be pleased, if not happy, to find your name listed on our roll with such individuals and Colonel E. N. Wentworth known widely for their work on the broad field of the west. Libraries putting the stamp of approval upon our publication such as the Huntington Library, the California State Library and those of the Universities of Idaho and Washington may be singled out for mention from among a number of others.

As the second issue of our publication is now in active production, we find it necessary to check our mailing list to the end that no person may fail in obtaining a copy of the publication. Production costs make it imperatively necessary that the volume copy issue must be rather closely limited to the demand, as indicated through paid memberships. It is not our desire that any one should be disappointed in the matter of receiving expected copies of the publication.

Trusting we may soon hear regarding your decision in the matter of membership, you may believe me to be

Most cordially yours,

Thomas Teakle
