TO MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY:

The Annual Meeting of the Washington State Historical Society will be held April 17, 1954, (Saturday) at the New Yorker, Sixth at Cushman, in Tacoma, beginning with a luncheon at 12:30 P.M. The business session and program will follow the luncheon.

Our speaker this year will be Judge Matthew W. Hill of the Washington State Supreme Court, one of the outstanding civic leaders of Washington, an eloquent speaker and deeply interested in Washington history and its preservation. It is the first time we have been fortunate enough to secure Judge Hill as our speaker and we are assured a rare treat.

This Notice of Meeting includes a cordial invitation to visit the Society building during the day, if you have not done so recently. The new Indian-Alaska Hall is now completed and is receiving the warmest commendation from those who have visited it. Other evidences of continuing progress will be noted throughout the building.
