

QUESTIONS TO THE BOARD

One of the most frequently mentioned planks in your platform was to return to the three 'R's'.

1. What subjects do you have in mind at the various grade levels?
2. What subjects do you plan to eliminate or to reduce?
3. What activities do you object to? Which ones do you plan to eliminate?

RELATIONSHIPS TO ADULTS:

1. How do you propose to show teachers that you really do respect them?
2. What is the relationship of John Snider to the board?
3. How do you propose to gauge what the majority of the people desire in schools?
4. Do you propose to give moral support to the Washington Education Association?
5. Do you contemplate a system of merit pay?
6. What is the procedure to be for, and upon what grounds, will you hire or fire teachers.
7. Do you plan to personally investigate conditions in the school before passing judgment upon them?
8. Will you ask teachers to live in this community?

CURRICULUM AND SERVICES:

1. You frequently mentioned non-essential services. What are these services?
2. Do you plan any change in the library service?
3. Do you plan any change in the visual aid service?
4. Do you plan to continue cooperation with Dr. Von Pein and his Staff?
5. What curriculum changes do you anticipate?
6. Is there any plan to cut the amount of teaching supplies?
7. Do you plan to have Kindergarten?

STANDARDS:

1. Do you plan to have specific standards for passing each grade or subject in grades Kindergarten through Grade 12?
2. What do you mean when you say that discipline has been unsatisfactory and what kind of discipline do you expect your teachers to maintain?
3. Do you believe that the high school is primarily college preparatory and that the course of studies should be primarily for college bound students?