Plymouth--a town on the Columbia river in the south central part of Benton County. A rugged basalt rock makes out into the river. The Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway has a tunnel 800 feet long through the rock. The settlers hoped for a town and sought a good name. Gibraltar was objected to because it was foreign and inhospitable. The American name of Plymouth was chosen. The Indian name for the locality was Soloosa which was preferred by A.D. Wender and Walker as a name for the town. ) IN names MSS Letter 372.) (Meany)
