Mr. Vance Orchard,
Walla Walla Union Bulletin,
Walla Walla, Wash.

Dear Vance:

Ginay (Mrs. Relander) and I were were through Walla Walla last week, but it was Sunday and we went on to Pendleton, then back via Marsh Hill. Had hoped to hit there during daytime and weekday and say "hello."

Understand you or the UB had something about Strangers on the Land not long ago. Our UB usually gets stranded in the Editorial Writer's offices, and then is tossed out before I get to "canvass" it. I'd sure appreciate a clipping or two from it.

Hope things are going well in the field and on the "Kennewick" front. Later I plan to do some rambling around, if possible up into Joseph land for a small tract if there are any such left there, and will try to time it to have a coffee or something with you.

Best regards from Yakima and let me know how things go. And what are you doing in the literary world besides the "rambling?"

Best regards

P.S. As I recall, one of the "publishers" had more than usual interest in history. If you want a "Strangers" for him, let me know, please.
