

Department of the Interior,

Washington, January 28, 1884.

ORDER:

Agents, interpreters, and others in charge of Indian delegations visiting Washington will, while not officially engaged on business in this Department, report with the Indians under their charge to the Bureau of Ethnology for the purpose of furnishing ethnologic, linguistic, and historic information in relation to the tribes to which said Indians belong, and to afford that Bureau an opportunity for obtaining photographs of the visiting Indians.

H. M. TELLER,

Secretary.

Circular Letter.
9 Aug. 1884. Recd
Jan. 28 84. Recd
Mch 4 15

As to Indians
visiting Washington

Department of the Interior

Washington, January 28, 1884.

ORDER:

Agents, interpreters, and others in charge of Indian delegations visiting Washington will, while not officially engaged on business in this Department, report with the Indians under their charge to the Bureau of Ethnology for the purpose of furnishing ethnologic, linguistic, and historic information in relation to the tribes to which said Indians belong, and to afford that Bureau an opportunity for obtaining photographs of the visiting Indians.

H. M. TELLER,

Secretary.

(1884-20)