Dear Friend Click:

The mailing list paper is being sent you today, so that will ease the headache a little.

I talked with our lady at the book counter and she thinks we should start out with about six. Binfords and Mort put their books in our counter on a consignment basis-- we pay for what we sell. We have the same arrangement with a few authors. If Caxton would do this on your book, and I hope they will, we could order more at the outside. Mrs. Taplin was thinking only of an order for which we'd have to pay.

I'm glad to note that you are down to only a couple of hundred things or more to do. What to do with leisu e time must be an hard nut for you to crack.

Fraternally,

CHAPIN D. FOSTER, Director
