Dear Sirs:

It happened I was going to Toppenish this evening, a matter of hours after receiving air mail material, including the return of Paute MS IV.

Mr. Svarra had already located one of the letters of which a comparison was desired. With a code number of the second in my file, the other was readily located and I am sure he will expedite their return.

Thank you for the general information concerning the anticipated date for trial in the claims cases.

While I am trying to catch up on odds and ends of essential things, it may be that I will have an opportunity to forward, on loan and strictly as a volunteer gesture, any copies from Letter Record books that bear on salmon fishing. I believe I have sent most of this material but in case any is yet remaining, I shall dispatch it. It would be of dubious value, other than it is the type of material available in the Yakima office during preparation of the plaintiffs to press their claim.

A pre-date of the Seattle Sunday Times reached Yakima yesterday. I am enclosing a tear sheet from it that you will undoubtedly receive from other sources, but may have use for to give to Mr. McLeod, or as desired.

Sincerely
